Foreword

IT HAS BEEN THE PRIVILEGE AND PLEASURE OF THE CLASS OF 1932 TO GIVE HOUGHTON COLLEGE ITS EIGHTH YEAR-BOOK.

WE ARE INDEBTED TO TENNYSON'S IDYLLS OF THE KING FOR THE INTERPRETATION OF OUR THEME AND FOR SELECTED QUOTATIONS.

“ that Bleys
Laid magic by, and sat him down and wrote
All things and whatsoever Merlin did
In one great annal-book.”

Dedication

TO THEE, A GREATER HOUGHTON, WE ENTHUSIASTICALLY DEDICATE THIS EIGHTH VOLUME OF THE BOULDER.

*“ may all love,
His love, unseen but felt, o’er-shadow
Thee,
The love of all Thy sons encompass Thee,
The love of all Thy daughters Cherish
Thee,
The love of all Thy people comfort
Thee, ”*

THE SENIOR CLASS

President	MARSHALL L. STEVENSON
Vice-President	EDDIE ZUBER
Secretary and Treasurer	ELMA WILLIAMS

Each year at graduation time, a great group of happy, young idealists leave their Alma Mater to seek out their ways in life. To the Class of 1931 this is a glad time, yet, a sad time.

To them, the Commencement is that transition from romance to realism. Each now goes to become an integral part and to do his work in a great society of a great nation. It is a glad time, and should it not be? For the anticipation of this set task, whatever it may be, is food for the optimism and hope of youth.

Yet, deep in the hearts of these Seniors there is a bit of sadness, a note of regret. They are leaving Houghton. Only Houghton men and women can realize what it means to leave for the last time. It means leaving in a group which, perhaps, will never meet together again; it means leaving collegiate activities and good times; it means leaving to return as alumni but never as students.

Still, may we not liken those graduating in the Class of 1931 to Galahads or Launcelots leaving that great Round Table to travel afar? And may the Great King watch over His, these travelers, until they may find their grail.

ALETHA RUTH FAIRFIELD

Early in the year the Senior Class lost one of its number—one possessed of a kindly, quiet nature, a true child of God.

Aletha Ruth Fairfield was the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Benjamin Fairfield. Her childhood was spent in a Christian home and, at an early age, she determined to follow whatever plan the Master had for her.

Aletha completed her secondary education at Angelica and entered Houghton College in the Fall of 1926. She was very active in Christian Endeavor work, at times travelling and preaching with the Student Volunteers. Although illness forced her to miss several semesters of college work, she planned to graduate with the Class of 1931. However, the first semester of this year had only begun when the Great Teacher graduated her into Life Eternal—the degree which He alone knows when to confer.

Each commencement not only sees a new and Promising Group added to the alumni of an institution, but it also sees a new class of seniors—a group which will be the elite of the college.

Early in September the Juniors made plans for a distinctive year-book. To that end the Boulder Staff labored unceasingly to build a book which should remain a monument of the years' activities and accomplishments.

Since the Freshman year of the class, various members have distinguished themselves in some phase of collegiate activities. This year has been no exception. Juniors won honors in scholastic standings. The Men's Tennis Team played into the semi-finals in the class series. The Junior Women's Basketball Team became the undefeated champions of the College, the first to have its name on the Intramural Cup.

The Class of 1932 had the distinction of being the largest class to enter Houghton, and it is looking forward toward having the same honor at graduation.

Although many Christian schools and colleges have apparently lost the evangelical and evangelistic zeal of their founders, Houghton continues to stress the necessity for definite Christian service. This need has been especially fostered through the agency of the Christian Workers.

The organization of this society was formed a number of years ago, to enable students to derive practical experience in Christian work, and to spread abroad Christian influence through the preaching of the Gospel.

The Christian Workers have not been so very active during the past few months, but are praying for the enlarged and more effectual sphere of service both within the school and in surrounding communities. As God has seen fit to bless in the past so we anticipate his continued blessing, while we preach the Gospel which is the "power of God unto Salvation."

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

President	HOMER J. FERO
Vice-President	PHYLLIS ESTABROOK
Secretary	HELEN WILTSIE

The Student Council is a comparatively recent organization and embodies the progressive spirit of Houghton College.

The prime object of the Council is to act as a unifying force between the student body and the faculty. It endeavors to further the ideals and traditions of the College, to instill in the minds of the undergraduates the real worth of their Alma Mater, and to promote better cooperation and understanding within the school.

Representatives from each of the four college classes and two faculty members comprise the group. The meetings consist largely of the discussion of the existing problems of college life.

The Council has not been as active this year as last. Nevertheless, in the past it has been most effective in its work. Truly, the Student Council has a place in the college.

Homer Fero, Prof. C. A. Ries
Prof. F. A. Gillette, Neva Henry, Pres. Luckey, Phyllis Estabrook

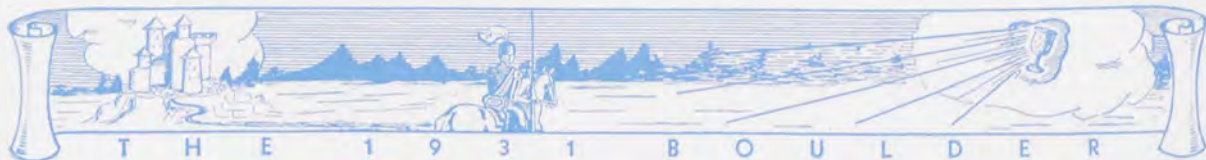

THE EXECUTIVE LITERARY BOARD

The Executive Literary Board was founded in order that the publications of Houghton College might be permanently established and a more efficient direction exercised over them. Through this organization the Star, the Boulder, and the Lecture Course are united under a common controlling unit.

The membership of this Board is limited to seven: three faculty members and four students, the President of the College being the presiding officer. The group is in constant touch with the various fields represented, and acts to make improvements wherever possible.

Nominations for the student publications are submitted to the student body through the Executive Literary Board. In this way a better selection of those capable of bearing the responsibilities is assured.

One of the outstanding features of the Music Department is the Women's Glee Club.

The Club was organized last year and has shown remarkable development since then. It consists of thirty-six voices, divided into three parts—First Soprano, Second Soprano, and Alto. These parts are well balanced and produce exceptional harmonization. Under careful leadership the Glee Club renders difficult numbers very effectively with clean attacks, and releases, varied rhythm, and sympathetic interpretation.

At the final pre-holiday chapel the Glee Club gave its second annual Christmas program which was brought to a fitting close by the Hallelujah Chorus from Handel's Messiah.

An accented note of progress was sounded this year when the Club gave a number of Sunday evening concerts in the surrounding towns.

Once again Houghton College may boast of a good orchestra in which there is a good balance, variety of instruments, and good talent.

The orchestra has participated in the regular concerts of the year, furnished music for the pageants, and cooperated with the Music Club in their public programs in addition to presenting the Annual Orchestra Concert in May. The Personnel of the group is:

Violins	Cello	Trombone

THE HOUGHTON

The Houghton College Chorus presented two outstanding numbers this year—the first, a Christmas cantata, “Bethlehem,” the second, a cantata of variable theme, entitled “Esther.”

The Christmas Cantata, “Bethlehem,” by Maunder, was rendered on December 12, 1930. It was presented in a very impressive manner under the direction of Professor Alfred Kreckman. The solo parts were taken by Lucile Crowell, soprano and senior voice student; Leon Hines, tenor; Henning Turnell, baritone; and Theos Cronk, bass. Fred Ebner had prepared for the bass solos but on account of illness was unable to render them. Much credit is due Mr. Cronk who so successfully met this situation. Margaret Carter, a senior piano student, accompanied the chorus at the first piano while Bernice Davie accompanied at the second piano.

The subject matter of the cantata was in three parts as follows: Part the first, The Shepherd's Gift, including a soprano solo and the ladies' chorus, “Glory to God in the highest.”

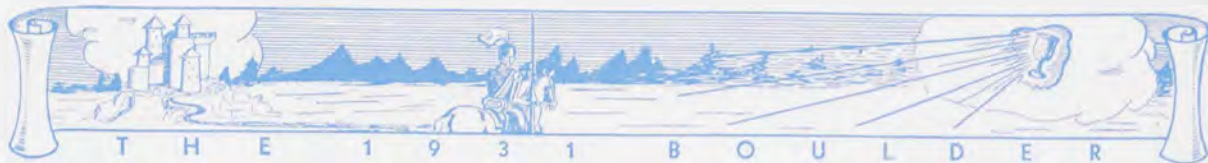

COLLEGE CHORUS

Part the second, The King's Gift, with baritone and bass soloists predominating. Balthasar, the baritone and his train are wandering in the desert; the crowd, represented by the chorus, approach and pass by in the beautiful and dramatic chorus, "Across the Desert." Part the third, Our Gift, in which the scene is laid before the Inn and which tells the story of the presentation of the gift. The soprano solo, "Mary's Lullaby" was especially impressive as well as the prayer by the chorus, "Here we offer and present unto Thee, O Lord." The final chorus, "Highways and Byways" an expression of great love and praise for the Master climaxed the cantata.

The second semester the chorus has been working on the number entitled "Esther" by William B. Bradbury, to be given Friday evening, June 5, 1931. The story of Esther's saving her own Jewish nation is a very touching one and to it the composer has added an extra touch of beauty. We may well look forward to this rendition with even greater anticipation than the Christmas cantata.

The Music Club was organized in 1928 to stimulate interest in the various branches of music, to create a deeper and more intelligent appreciation of the art, and to afford opportunity for practice in public performance. The membership is open to all college students.

This year has been by far the most successful in the history of the society. Early in the year, the date, topic, and leader of each meeting for the entire year was arranged. Such themes as Gypsy Music, Hawaiian Music, and Indian Music were assigned to these meetings. This plan enabled the Club to offer a variety of excellent public programs.

The meetings and programs proved to be very educational to the members, and were most entertaining and pleasing to the public.

THE GERMAN CLUB

President	H. CLIFFORD BRISTOW
Vice-President	SILAS ANDERSON
Secretary	GOLDA FARNSWORTH
Treasurer	WARREN THURBER

This year a new organization appeared in college—a German Club. No one may consider himself truly educated unless he is conversant with the customs and language of at least one country other than his own. It was to this end that the club was formed.

The membership of the club was extended to all students of the language. This included an enthusiastic group. Each meeting, it was decided, should be divided into two parts—first a business session, then a social session. During the latter, discussions of Germany and German questions were held. The members gradually became more conversant in the language and better able to take part.

Professor Fancher, Miss Molyneaux, and Mr. Ebner have very kindly given their time in aiding and making the club a success.

THE EXPRESSION CLUB

President	THEDA THOMAS
Vice-President	BERNICE DAVIE
Secretary	EDNA ROBERTS
Treasurer	WENONA WARE

The Expression Club was organized in April, 1930, with twenty members. This year the Club has doubled its membership and done commendable work in its field.

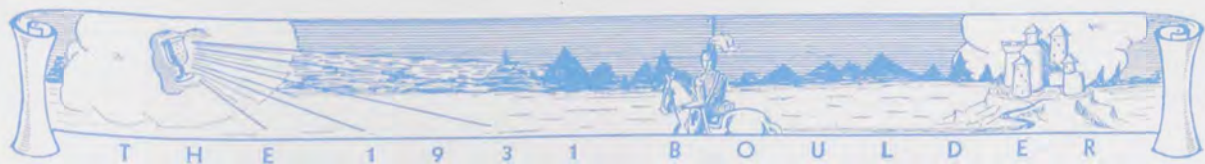

At the beginning of the school year the members chose leaders for each program, and planned the work for the year. A variety of programs were presented, ranging from humorous to classical. The organization also cooperated with the Music Club in its programs. These public performances were given on Monday evenings, in the chapel.

The Club is doing a very worth while work in the training of students for platform work and public speaking. Miss Rothermel has given her time and energy freely to aid the members of the Club in their accomplishments.

1930 TRACK AND FIELD MEET

The track and field meet of last May saw many new records set. From the start the Gold began to pile up a lead which the Purple were unable to overcome.

Paul Vogan, Gold, had the honor of being high-point man, with $21\frac{1}{4}$ points, for which he received a gold medal. Paul broke three standing records in addition to breaking the tape first in the 100-yard run. Eddie Dolan, Gold, was second in high honors by setting two new records.

The Gold Men's Relay Team (Vogan, Dolan, Roth, Bates) ran a thriller to defeat the Purple Team (Warden, Shipman, Woodard, Albro) by inches, although no new record was established.

Vogan, Dolan, and Flint, all Gold men, earned their letter for the first time in this meet.

The Gold Women also won their half of the meet for the first time in several year.

The two outstanding performers were Velma Harbeck, with $10\frac{1}{4}$ points, and Doris Clegg, with $9\frac{1}{4}$ points. Miss Harbeck received a Gold medal for high point woman, while Miss Clegg set a new 75-yard mark.

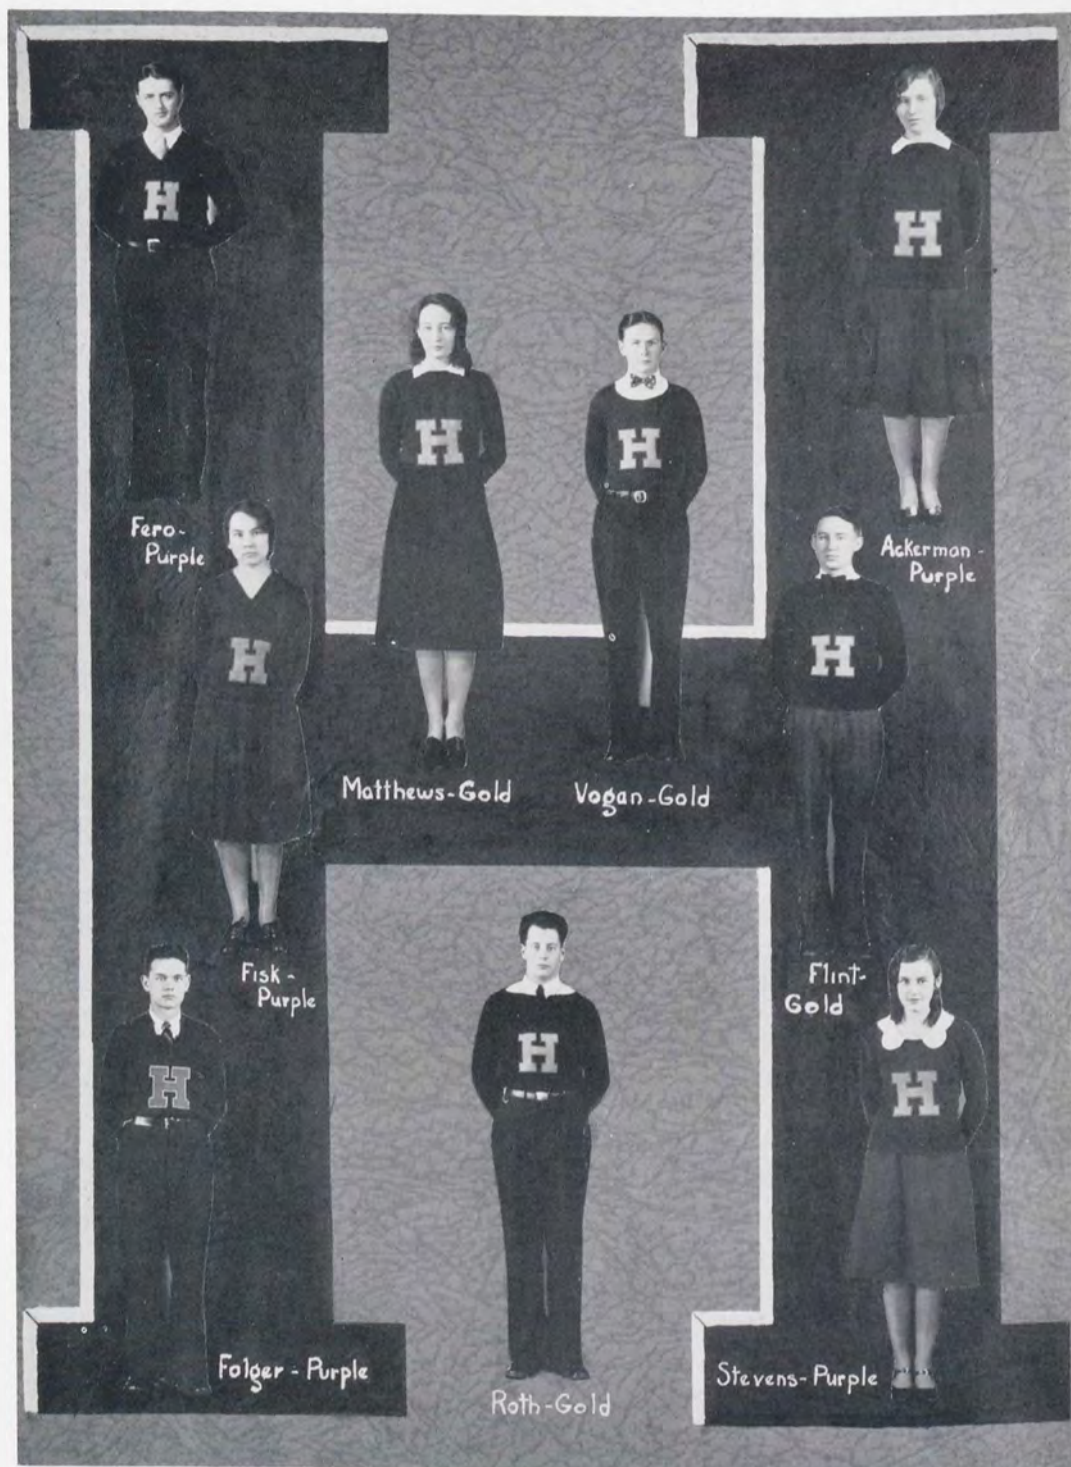

Those winning their letters for the first time are: Velma Harbeck, Gold; Doris Clegg, Gold; Marian Hewitt, Gold; Martha Dyer, Purple; Vivian Stevens, Purple and Genevieve Matthews, Gold.

THE BASEBALL SERIES

The Purple were much more fortunate in receiving athletic talent than the Gold and consequently won the baseball series—four straight. However, there were feature plays to make it an interesting series.

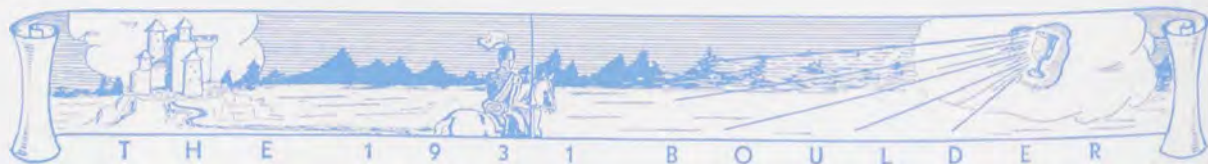

The first two games were marred by errors and consequently resulted in Purple victories. The third game was real baseball, a nip and tuck battle with the Gold forcing the issue all the way.

Farnsworth and McSweeney, the Purple battery, as well as Vedder Harrison, diminutive first baseman, were an aid to their team.

The leading batters of the series were:

LEFFINGWELL (Purple)	.538
FARNSWORTH (Purple)	.461
McSWEENEY (Purple)	.333
VOGAN (Gold)	.333

THE PURPLE-GOLD SERIES

The Series of 1930-31 was the most spectacular in several seasons—the Gold winning four of six games. Two games were won by one point. All games except the sixth were decided with less than a seven point difference in the scores.

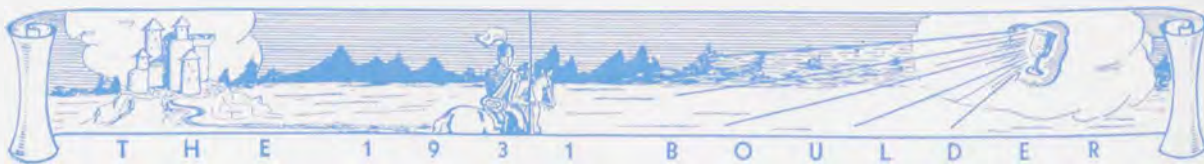

The Gold had a well-balanced team. Captain Fisk, who graduates this June, played back guard, "Red" Frank running guard, Vogan and Flint, alternated forward position with Dolan, Roth at center, while Armstrong, C. Moon, Taylor and Bates were the subs.

The Purple Team played a hard, clean game but were slightly outclassed. Captain Fero, guard, also played his last collegiate series. Farnsworth and Albro, forwards, furnished the punch in the Purple attack. Folger, another Senior, played a spectacular guard game.

SCHEDULE OF GAMES						Purple	Gold

THE PURPLE-GOLD SERIES

The Purple Women easily won the Purple-Gold Championship series for the second consecutive time. Alice Fisk, Purple Captain, lead her team to win four of the five contests. This is Alice's final year as an athlete in Houghton; she has excelled in sports throughout her entire college career.

The Purple lineup was of real championship stuff. Minnis, at center, had fine ability to play the tipoff. Fisk, running guard, had ability to dribble in fast for short shots. Ruth Kissinger, back guard, not only guarded but intercepted many long passes. Stevens and Congdon, forwards, were the deciding factors in several games. Ackerman, Coe and Lisk, substitutes, did commendable work in several games.

ATOM INTELLIGENCE IS DISCOVERED

NOTED HOCUM COUPLE UNITED IN MARRIAGE

Lost Chord Discovered

Announcement was made last evening at the irregular meeting of the Technique and Voice Control Club of the marriage of Miss Potgan Morghill to Professor Zimkreck Mann. Both were outstanding members of this benoted society in their younger days. News of the event was first conveyed to the president of the club by a startling note written on Discord paper and sent from Domisol, Europe, where the marriage took place.

The groom left our faculty a few decades ago and went abroad for study and research work in the field of music. He has traversed the farthest corners of the globe, endeavoring to reproduce the entire lost chord—fragments of which he sincerely believed to have located before his departure.

Last August the missing vibrations of the Chord were unknotted from the passes of the

FIND IS MADE BY HOCUM ALUMNUS

To Get New Degree

Dr. Richard Kling has recently announced the result of many years of research and experimentation in the beautiful Wentsee Valley. Hocum College is the Alma Mater of this renowned archeologist.

Dr. Kling has finally discovered an atomic animal which is a direct descendent of the colossal prehistoric antedeluvian Intelligence, which roamed the valley decades ago. Dr. Kling had believed this animal extinct and it is with no small degree of pleasure that he proclaims his discovery. Dr. Kling states "I have become an old man in the search for this creature and a life-time of work is at an end. I am satisfied to retire."

The atom itself has been presented to the Hocum College Museum. The gift was gratefully acknowledged by the famous French scientist and psychologist, Prof. Levay Bessie, who, with the whole-hearted support of the faculty, will confer upon Dr. Kling the honorary degree of M.A.Z.D.A. (Member of the Ancient Diatomic Association.)

The renowned Nellie Hewey, noted for her works in criminology, upon being allowed to view the tiny creature, discovered that it was masticating some sticky substance between its jaws. Madam Hewey believes this may lead to a discovery in the world of crime; it being very possible that the mind of the common person today may have degenerated from a lack of some stimulating influence taken into the body by the way of the alimentary canal and diffused through the blood stream.

WEDDING OF FAMOUS ATHLETES ANNOUNCED

Children of Alumni

Mr. and Mrs. James Fisk recently announce the marriage of their daughter, Genevieve, to Mr. Elmer Roth Jr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Roth, of Chicago, Ill., and Hocum, N. Y. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Alfred Jeremiah Gross, pastor of the "Little Church around the Corner."

Mr. and Mrs. Roth will be at home after February 30, in Hocum where the groom is director of athletics and the bride is an instructor in domestic science.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Roth distinguished themselves in tennis in the Olympic Games last fall. Mr. Roth broke the record in the mile; while Mrs. Roth played in the tennis finals to defeat Miss Agnes Currie 3rd.

The bride's uncle is Mr. Robert Folger who has recently retired from an active life in athletics. He will write a book, "Shall my Wife Play Basketball."

HORISCOPE FOR MAY By Martin Pyor

Persons born in this month enter the world under the spell of the sign of Taurus (the bull).

Men born in this month will have the nature of the sign. They will be headstrong and tend to impress others in a Mallus Troitus (pain-in-the-neck) fashion. They will be inclined to such diseases as bow-leggedness and bald-headedness. They will be short in stature, excessive in avoirdupois, and possess the grace of a youthful bovine.

Women born under this sign will make excellent reasons for

This paper endeavors to put forth all the news that's fit to print. It is an old and staid establishment started and sponsored by Wenjamin Banklin. It has always fulfilled its obligations and fully intends to do so in the future. (All contributions thankfully received.) All special holidays are carefully remembered and condolences sent to the afflicted. Obituaries will be kept on file till needed if individuals will drop in and leave the needed details. Hymeneal notices made up while you wait.

Many and enthusiastic congratulations to the present graduating class.

THE WEATHER SITUATION

Last week one of this paper's representatives went to Washington to interview the head weather-man. He found the little white-bearded fellow in his office surrounded by all kinds of instruments. The reporter attempted to get the little man's promise to give corresponding weather and weather reports. "That would be a calamity to the world" was the reply. "If that were done, it would take the old and reliable kicks, praises, and elements of conversation away and besides, I could not take my wrath out on the people when my mother-in-law came to visit."

The charming wedding took place soon afterwards; Miss Lucile Crowell, a former student of the bride and groom, impressively chanted the newly discovered lost chord throughout the ceremony.

Following a delightful luncheon and aesthetic drinks, the couple departed for Pianissimo, Italy, where they intend to sing life's sweet duet. Their many friends in Hocum join in wishing them a life of harmony and little tunes.

ALUMNI NEWS

Homer Fero visited in town over the week-end. His son, Homer Jr, is taking his Dr.'s degree in education under our aged but still energetic psychologist Bessie M. Fancher.

Mrs. Mary Bain after many years of service has retired to care for her husband whose delicate throat troubles him restrictively.

Miss Lovina Mullen sails for Europe, May 16, 1951, on a long deferred tour. Miss Evelyn Albro (daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Albro) is her traveling companion.

Dr. Marshall Stevenson and his wife (nee Elma Williams) were in town last week.

Dr. and Mrs. Stevenson have recently returned for a six months furlough from the mission field in the Cannabal Islands. Both are enthusiastic about their work. Dr. Stevenson gave a chapel talk on Monday.

"We have the most wonderful spot in the world in which to work," he said. "The natives are very likable. They give all foreigners coming to the island a warm welcome and soon attach themselves to the new-comers."

friendship of the originator of this movement. While a small boy my friend saw a neighbor beat a poor, defenseless pig. It grieved him and the lad ran to his mother sobbing. The good mother, seeing her chance to teach a great lesson said, "You must always remember, Stanley, to be good to animals." And he always did remember. That boy has grown to manhood but he still remembers. He is now Dean of Men at Hocum College.

It is true, my friends, that a man is never good unless he is kind to animals. Only recently I was on my farm and Edith, my favorite cow, came up to me, laid her head on my shoulder and licked the back of my neck. That was her way of expressing her affection. I did not strike Edith. No. I merely scratched her nose and she wandered away contentedly.

Now I needs must say, "Good afternoon for today." The dog is barking and it is necessary that I go and kick the stuffing out of him to quiet the brute.

BAD TONSORIAL ACCIDENT

Charles X. Leffingwell, constable of Hocum, was seriously injured on Tuesday by the erring razor of the famous Tonsoriat artist Monsieur Eugene Tyler.

Monsieur Tyler while gazing pensively after his wife who was leaving to take her position on the faculty of Snodgrass University, absent-mindedly inflicted a deep gash in the revered constable's head.

The entire community mourns fearing that the doctors will advise amputation—a community without a head.

TESTED RECIPESSenior Dignity

Four years of getting by, a fair amount of intelligence, plus a pinch of drag.

1 cap and gown (black).

Mix well with self-importance, dust over the top with grated rind of fruit of knowledge. Must be used in its birthplace, if taken into the world will become tasteless.

D Grade

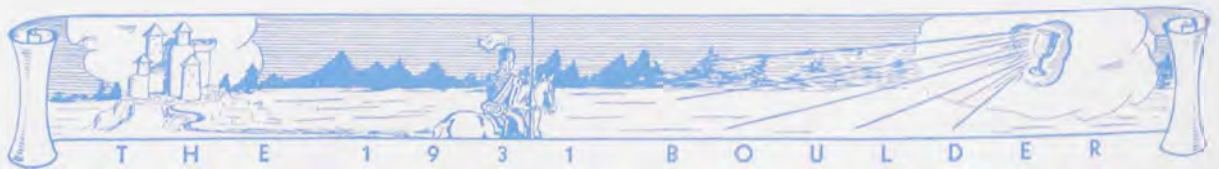

1/32 teaspoon study.

1/4 entire attention at class time.

1/3 outside reading.

Set away to cool until the night before test.

Mix with a pinch of brains and cup of judicious cramming. At test time the product will be a dark brown in color—perfect. This, if served with a sauce compounded of bluff, also makes a very good pudding called "C—."

YE CHRONICLE

6. Mon.—
 "There is something in October sets the gypsy blood astir;
 We must rise and follow her,
 When from every hill of flame
 She calls and calls each vagabond by name."
 BLISS CARMAN
7. Tues.—Evidently church service breeds content, for Miss Fancher says "They say:
 'If you're perfectly contended you cannot stay awake.'"
8. Wed.—Prof. Wright invites Upperclassmen to a party given by the Faculty men.
 Miss Burnell invites the Upperclasswomen to a similar function, emphasizing the fact that she wants every girl to come, for there must be no missing link.
9. Thur.—First doctrinal chapel. Prof. Ries gave fine talk on "The Inspiration of the Bible."
10. Fri.—The party to-night gave the upperclassmen a fuller realization of what Alma Mater means. We thank the Faculty for one of those nights which will prove to be a solemnly happy memory.
11. Sat.—Glad Columbus discovered America. The holidays gave many Alumni an opportunity to return to Houghton.
12. Sun.—Parable of the Sower.
13. Mon.—Blue Monday the 13th self-explanatory.
14. Tues.—Perfect Indian Summer day.
 Spring fever going the rounds.
15. Wed.—Seen on the bulletin board:
 "Lost, a little black lady's Waterman pen."
16. Thurs.—Tennis champs are up and coming.
17. Fri.—BOULDER Concert has become a memory now, and what a memory—cool starlight night, music, happiness, and good wishes for the BOULDER.
18. Sat.—Snow.
19. Sun.—"Separate until you are vitalized
 by God."
 J. R. PITT
20. Mon.—Seniors and Juniors frantically searching for happy color combinations for sweaters.
21. Tues.—Rev. Stanley Lawrence gives chapel talk on "What Makes Houghton
 What It Is."
22. Wed.—Tape measure kept busy—sweaters in the offing.
23. Thur.—Prof. Palmer, Cornell, gives amusing chapel talk on toads, moths, bats, etc. Frosh vote for class officers by secret ballot.
24. Fri.—Violinist and pianist from Eastman School of Music bring Houghton a musical treat.
25. Sat.—Do your Xmas shopping early.
26. Sun.—"There is only one person whose word is worth taking, and that is God's."
 J. R. PITT
27. Mon.—Halloween Program by Expression Club.
28. Tues.—Announcement made as follows:
 "A green fountain pen has been lost. Will the owner please return to Mr. Thurber."
29. Wed.—Rev. Shahbaz, a Persian missionary, gave a graphic description of the murder of 200,000 Christian Persians by Kurds—a wild Mohammedan tribe. His tribute of praise to the Americans and their flag was thrilling and appealing.
30. Thurs.—Nine 'rahs for Carroll, Law
 Preservation Party candidate for governor of New York state.
31. Fri.—Hallowe'en parties all over the campus.

NOVEMBER

1. Sat.—Pheasant day.
2. Sun.—"If Christ had anything to do with the ballot He would so vote that He would be clean in every way."
 J. R. PITT
3. Mon.—Shades of past exams.
4. Tues.—Crystal Rork gives interesting chapel talk on "Creation of Man."

5. Wed.—“Listen, it’s alive.” Even Pres. Luckey’s curiosity got the better of him, and he discovered along with the rest of us that it refers to the BOULDER. Roosevelt elected governor of New York State.
6. Thurs.—C. W. Butler, Pres. National Holiness Association and Cleveland Bible Institute, starts a series of meetings.
7. Fri.—“So many of us try to get the experience to make us believe instead of believing to get the experience.”
C. W. BUTLER
8. Sat.—The Ditto machine is nearly worn out—text books begin to see the light of day—in other words—“coming events cast . . .”
9. Sun.—“A Christian is God’s workmanship.”
C. W. BUTLER
10. Mon.—“One long, too hard three page examinations.” (Sing, if you’re able, to the tune of “One little, two little, three little Indians.”)
11. Tues.—More exams. Shades of zero!
12. Wed.—Eastman artists entertain lecture course indulgers. Chorus in halls nowadays: “Whajaget in . . .”
13. Thur.—General reaction from exams.
14. Fri.—Feverish preparation for the advent of Dr. Downing who is to inspect the school and report to the Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools of Middle States and Maryland.
15. Sat.—Dr. Downing has arrived, inspected and left.
16. Sun.—“How Christ can be as human as though He were not divine and as divine as though He were not human, I do not know.”
J. A. HUFFMAN
17. Mon.—Day after Sunday, day before Tuesday. Dr. Huffman explains the meaning of education.
18. Tues.—“Nature is God’s ordinary way of doing things. Miracle is God’s extraordinary way of doing things.”
J. A. HUFFMAN
19. Wed.—President is home again, but if history repeats itself, he won’t be with us long.
20. Thurs.—It is reported that one of our Profs posted a sign reading: “Lost a brown lady’s leather pocketbook.” Solomon in all his glory—anyway the Juniors certainly looked arrayed in their black and orange sweaters.
21. Fri.—Should be more Fridays in a week.
22. Sat.—Dr. Huffman gives interesting illustrated lecture on Palestine. Dean allows association.
23. Sun.—Last day of Dr. Huffman’s meetings. His presentation of the truth has helped and blessed many listeners.
24. Mon.—Things sorta settling back in the old routine.
25. Tues.—One month till Santa comes. Bea Jones gives a venison feed. “Squeak” almost too weak to squeak.
26. Wed.—Seniors step out in their royal blue and white sweaters. Seems as though one inspector no sooner leaves than another arrives. Prof. Furbay of Taylor University is the latest.
27. Thurs.—“Offer unto God Thanksgiving and pay thy vows unto the most High.”
PSALM 50:14
28. Fri.—Snowed-in students struggling back one by one.
29. Sat.—We answer questions for Mr. Furbay.
30. Sun.—“Our standard of the converted life is too low or Jesus was wrong.”
J. R. PITT

DECEMBER

1. Mon.—Holiday spirit in the air.
 2. Tues.—A Principle of Ed. student reminds Miss Fancher that it's too cold for outside readings.
 3. Wed.—Nineteen shopping days till Christmas.
 4. Thurs.—Still worrying about one of Mr. Furbay's questions. Can't seem to recollect how much education my grandfather on my mother's side had.
 5. Fri.—Purple-Gold series and Hines' Band make debut. Boys—Gold 21, Purple 20. Girls—Gold 12, Purple 18.
 6. Sat.—Real enthusiasts are those people who don't complain of sore stomachs after leaning over the rail in the gym to howl for their side, and those who can see good points in the other team.
 7. Sun.—"I wonder why the Lord gave us such a wonderful Book and gave us such a short time to learn it."
- J. R. PITT
8. Mon.—"Pres. Luckey remarked that the Business Office was "as hot as Dutch love."
 9. Tues.—Have you heard the one about the Irishman, the Scotchman and the Jew? If not, ask Mr. Eastman, tonight's lecturer.
 10. Wed.—Self-denial week in full swing. Seems as though the craving for candy gets more vicious every day.
 11. Thurs.—Everybody wondering about making connections in order to get home fastest way possible a week from tomorrow.
 12. Fri.—"Bethlehem" sung beautifully by the chorus. Houghton branch of alumni organized.
 13. Sat.—Time tables, bus schedules, and much "vacation" talk.
 14. Sun.—Next Sunday we'll be home.
 15. Mon.—"I see one of the angels is out for air."—a remark overheard at Pageant practice.
 16. Tues.—Sang the association hymn at worship to-night—"Love Found a Way."
 17. Wed.—Ate the 85th bowl of soup at lunch to-day.
 18. Thurs.—Miss Fancher can't keep her mind off educational subjects—she wished her Principles Class "A very merry and happy vocation."
 19. Fri.—No association to night. General exodus from "dear old Houghton."

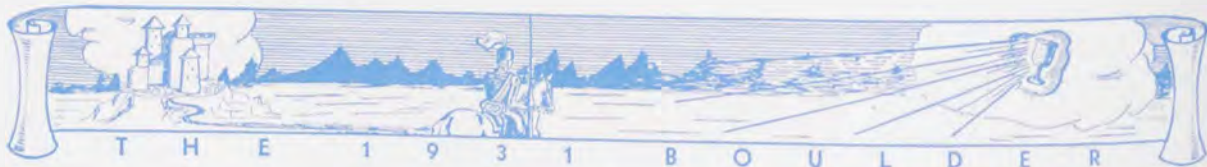

INTERLUDE

JANUARY

6. Tues.—"Happy days are come again." Be it ever so rule-full there's no place like Houghton.
 7. Wed.—Always something to take the joy out of life. Exams are coming.
 8. Thurs.—Cold enough to freeze the hair off a dog.
 9. Fri.—Shortage of water. Prof. Wright asks us to be philanthropists and follow the example of the old man who took a bath every Spring whether he needed it or not.
 10. Sat.—We've learned in Psychology that an egg is "that never too much to be sat upon object."
 11. Sun.—"Whatever difference there is between what I think of Jesus and the facts about Jesus demands repentance."
- J. R. PITT
12. Mon.—"Time ain't nothin' when you ain't in a hurry."
 13. Tues.—A trip through Germany with Mr. Bucher, F.R.G.S., Sleeping soldier certainly snored.
 14. Wed.—Soph boys defeat Seniors thus gaining Class Series championship.

WEARY WILLIE

YE CHRONICLE

15. Thurs.—The Black and Orange bobs look snappy and ride snappier. It's rumored that sliding is rather tough on trousers. (Ask Paul.)
16. Fri.—Library Benefit Concert proves the excellence of home talent.
17. Sat.—To-night the bobs rode like greased lightning with a cow bell attached.
18. Sun.—"Christ's way is not praying out of the burden . . . He is going to teach you how to bear the necessary load."
J. R. PITT
19. Mon.—"A stitch in time" is extraordinary indeed."
WEARY WILLIE
20. Tues.—With the drawing nigh of exams we're beginning to believe in that quotation; "No true education is painless."
21. Wed.—Mrs. Albert Einstein has said: "I must handle the family bank book. If the Professor tried to do it he would get all mixed up."
22. Thurs.—Bright and fair.
23. Fri.—Purple win both games. Must be partly due to the stimulus of Hines' band.
24. Sat.—Thaw.
25. Sun.—"When you get God's opinion of sin you will quit sin."
J. R. PITT
26. Mon.—Cram.
27. Tues.—Exam.
28. Wed.—Cram.
29. Thurs.—Exam.
30. Fri.—Exam.
31. Sat.—Sweet relief.
3. Tues.—As Mrs. Bowen says: "The school certainly is well peppered with the mumps."
4. Wed.—BOULDER Staff royally entertained at a Valentine party given by Miss Gillette. Bea's mumps kept her away.
5. Thurs.—"It's a long worm that has no turning."
WEARY WILLIE
6. Fri.—Senior girls sleigh ride to Caneadea and back to pancakes and—
7. Sat.—Alumni all over the town.
8. Sun.—"A life subjected to human experiment is lost."
J. R. PITT
9. Mon.—Prof. King informs Shakespeare class that little children giggle when embarrassed, and admits that college students can be similarly affected.
10. Tues.—Rev. W. H. Marvin begins special meetings.
11. Wed.—Prof. King almost giggled today.
12. Thurs.—More mumps—Theos and Tim.
13. Fri.—Rach's birthday.
14. Sat.—More mumps—Morella Wiltsie and Marg Plimpton.
15. Sun.—Rev. Marvin preaches "Christ the Lamb and Christ the Lion."
16. Mon.—Si Anderson's got 'em.
17. Tues.—Pres. Luckey has a heart to heart talk to the students concerning the Christian life.
18. Wed.—Thurber's face has swollen gorgeously. There are some compensations for mump pains tho—such as home made candy, ice cream, no classes, and a mighty fine nurse.
19. Thurs.—Rev. Marvin "carrying on" despite ill health.
20. Fri.—No soup today.
21. Sat.—Soup.
22. Sun.—When and Where Testimony Meeting.

FEBRUARY

1. Sun.—"Any place of service is a place of exaltation."
REV. E. F. MCCARTY
2. Mon.—Registration—Doc Frank registered on time. Rip roaring good basketball game. Gold win all around.

YE CHRONICLE

23. Mon.—Washington's birthday. Only celebration we noticed was the closing of the Post Office.
24. Tues.—Mumps' patients leaving the Hospital one by one.
25. Wed.—Our editor has to spend another "mumps session" in the Hospital. Other side of his face wants to have a swell time.
26. Thur.—"The spiritual life is sick of the palsy."
C. H. CHURCHILL
27. Fri.—"Christ is better than His word."
C. H. CHURCHILL
Wonderful revival.
28. Sat.—Just Saturday.

MARCH

1. Sun.—"Jesus Christ was at once the most sorrowful and exultingly happy of men on earth."
J. R. PITT
2. Mon.—Alvin Barker and Donald Berry have succumbed and are suffering from a swelling of the parotid glands.
3. Tues.—Mr. and Mrs. Norman, evangelists, in Chapel.
4. Wed.—Another Purple-Gold basketball scrap. Gold come out on top.
5. Thurs.—BOULDER Staff exhort (by means of pen) the Alumni to support.
6. Fri.—Purple-Gold Game. Purple girls season champs. Purple boys crowding for a chance at the victory.
7. Sat.—Prof. LaVay Fancher is sporting a Nash.
8. Sun.—"The word of God in your life constitutes all the area in which the Spirit can work."
J. R. PITT
9. Mon.—"Curfew shall not toll to-night."
10. Tues.—Helen Wiltsie couldn't resist the mumps. "Poor Richard." Senior class seem to be sailing through this epidemic almost unscathed.
11. Wed.—Gold men win series.
12. Thurs.—Robin chirping in the snow.
13. Fri.—Spectacular basketball game between Faculty Women and Junior Dorm Girls.
14. Sat.—Somebody heard a bluebird.
15. Sun.—"God never told the Church to reform society. The calling of the Church is a higher calling than that."

WHO'S WHO AMONG HOUGHTON ALUMNI

Due to many requests from the Alumni, the Staff of this eighth volume of the BOULDER have put forth a special effort to add to the Alumni Section.

Each year a new group joins that integral part of the Institution, and as time passes Houghton becomes more and more privileged to claim her honored sons. And there are many of these! Their vocations are as varied as are the walks of life, yet many are recognized as truly great.

This year, the BOULDER attempts to give its appreciation of the work of five men—all former Houghton students. Early in the year we asked many of the Alumni to nominate those whom they considered worthy for a place in Who's Who. Their response was prompt and most gratifying. Space does not permit us to list everyone mentioned, but those here named were the almost unanimous choice of their friends and former schoolmates.

Among our Alumni, such men as these will fulfill the prophecy of the Alma Mater:

"When o'er earth thy fame has risen
Like the morning light. . ."

HENRY CLARK BEDFORD

Born Bradford County, Pennsylvania, December 19, 1875 to Sylvester and Elizabeth Ann (Rathbun).

Graduated Houghton Seminary, Houghton, New York, 1902.

A.M., Ohio Northern University, Ada, Ohio, 1906.

A.B., Oberlin, 1910.

Married Nellie Crow of College Springs, Iowa.

Professor of Greek Houghton Seminary, 1900-15.

Pastor Wesleyan Methodist Church, Fillmore, New York, 1907-1910.

President Wesleyan Methodist College Central, South Carolina, 1915-19.

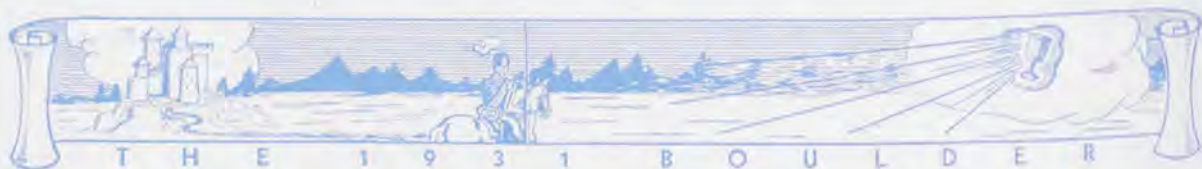

President Marion College, Marion, Indiana, 1919-1922. He was the first President of the School at Marion after the Wesleyan Methodist denomination took it over.

Professor Religious Education Penn College, Oskaloosa, Iowa, and pastor College Friends Church, Oskaloosa since 1922.

This concise bit of information is not the likable H. Clark Bedford that Houghton knew from 1900-1915.

Each of us have, at one time or another, known a Professor who was still a student at heart, one to whom students might go for aid and advice, one who would work and play along with the students. Such a one was Clark Bedford.

On the college campus stands the Bedford Gymnasium—a fitting testimonial of one phase of his work here. Professor Bedford was instrumental in tearing down the Old Seminary building and moving it to the new campus as a gymnasium.

His interests were not only for the physical well-being of the youth. Each Sunday he conducted a Sunday School Class of young women, and each Sunday evening they met at his home for an hour of prayer.

In 1915, much to the regret of his friends and co-workers, Professor Bedford left Houghton to enter larger fields of endeavor, but his stay influenced scores of lives of Houghton students.

IRA BOWEN

Born Seneca Falls, New York, December 21, 1898, son of Rev. J. H. Bowen and Philinda (Sprague).

Houghton College 1915–1918.

A.B., Oberlin College, Oberlin, Ohio, 1919.

Worked as Assistant in Physics 1919–1921 at Chicago University under Professor R. A. Millikan, who took Bowen with him to California Institute of Technology in 1921 where Millikan is Chairman of the Board of Managers.

At California Institute of Technology he was first Instructor, then Assistant Professor, and is now Associate Professor of Physics having received his doctorate with summa cum laude.

One of the editors of Physical Review.

Member of Sigma Si.

Has twice addressed the American Association of Science.

The little boy who never went to public school, but had his mother for a tutor till he became of secondary school age; who graduated from Houghton High School as Valedictorian of his class; who used to string batteries around the house to give the family shocks: this little boy, who hated Latin, but loved to read, and to study Mathematics and Science, grew up to be the man who knew how to use his opportunities, and about whom the following was written:

“A short paper, published unobtrusively a few weeks ago has excited unusual interest among astronomers. In a single page it gives the answer to one of nature’s riddles which has baffled the world of science for sixty years—the composition of the gaseous nebulae. This noteworthy discovery—by far the most remarkable of the year now closing has been made, not by an astronomer, but by a physicist, Dr. Bowen, one of Professor Millikan’s associates at the California Institute of Technology, California.”

BENJAMIN J. CLAWSON

Perhaps one of the most prominent Alumni in the field of Medicine is Dr. B. J. Clawson.

Dr. Clawson was born in Dixonville, Pennsylvania and was educated in the common schools there. In 1902 he came to Houghton and completed his high school and Seminary work. After leaving Houghton he decided to take additional work in the zoological field. Later he took his Ph.D. in Bacteriology from the University of Chicago.

He became State Bacteriologist in Oklahoma. While there he found that it would be advantageous in his work to have a knowledge of medicine. He resigned his office and went to the University of Minnesota as a student in the Medical School. After his graduation he remained there as Research Professor in Bacteriology in the field of Medicine. Dr. Clawson is a recognized authority in his field, and has delivered several papers before a National Medical Association.

Recently he announced the result of an experiment which he claims will be a benefit to mankind. During his research work he discovered what he believes to be a cure for arthritis. Dr. Clawson's find has not been completely verified as yet, but in several cases thus far the cure has been successful.

JAMES SEYMOUR LUCKEY

Born at Short Tract, New York, August 1, 1867, son of James and Pollyanne (Davis).

Graduated from Houghton Seminary, Houghton, New York, 1889.

A.B., Oberlin, 1904, A.M., 1905.

A.M., Harvard, 1908.

Pd.M., Albany Normal College, 1898.

Married Edith Sarah Bedell of Mexico, New York, June 28, 1894.

Principal Millerton Union School, Millerton, New York, 1898-1902.

Instructor Oberlin College, 1905-1907.

President Houghton Seminary, 1908-1923.

President Houghton College since 1923.

Member Phi Beta Kappa.

When James S. Luckey received the call to the Presidency of Houghton Seminary in 1908, he was studying in Harvard College. He had received his Master's degree but was planning for another year's study. What it cost him to accept the call none but a student under similar conditions can know. President Luckey said at one time: "One of the hardest things I ever had to do in my life was to give up that second year in Harvard."

Those who know President Luckey can say of him that his life is the School. For more than two decades he has given unstintingly of his time, money and intellect. Under his administration Houghton has grown from a Seminary to a recognized college, and now he is working to have the School admitted to the Association of Colleges and Secondary Institutions of the Middle States and Maryland. His determination is remarkable, his faithfulness unexceeded, and his capacity for work unrivaled. Great educator that he is, he also has a great burden for the spiritual lives of his students. He is a truly great and good man.

JOHN S. WILLETT

When he was about fifteen years old John S. Willett came from England to Levant, New York where he hired out to work. His conversion at the Levant Charge marked the beginning of a life of service to his Church.

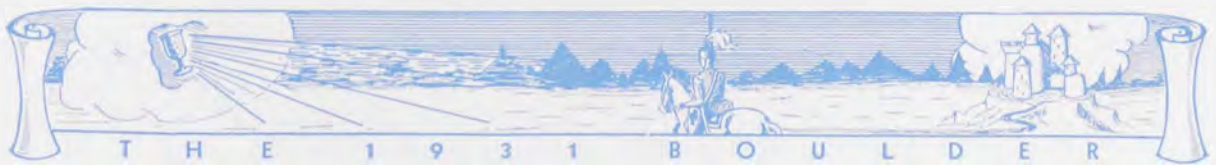

In 1894 he entered Houghton as a student, and in 1901 had the honor of being the first graduate from the Advanced Department of Houghton Seminary. Since that time Dr. Willett has been an outstanding minister and capable financier in the Wesleyan Methodist Church.

At present he is Vice-President of the General Conference, President of the General Board of the Church, and Publisher of the Wesleyan Methodist.

In 1905 he became pastor of the Eastwood charge. Each Sunday he travelled clear across the city of Syracuse to hold services in the tiny chapel in Eastwood. Under his ministration the work flourished, and now there is a church instead of a chapel and Dr. Willett has built his home in Eastwood. It is to be noted that he has held that charge for at least twenty-six years.

He is a logical and careful thinker. Although educated for the ministry he has shown himself a fine business man. He is a strong, eloquent preacher, a polished gentleman, a man who people love as well as respect.

When planning your Annual . . .

AS each new Staff undertakes the planning of a Year Book it is confronted with the same old problems which have perplexed the workers of previous years.

And yet, to each new Staff these planning and production problems are all new and ordinarily must be solved without the benefit of the experience of those who have solved the same problems in the past.

Much of this grief is avoided when the Staff works with The Du Bois Press. Out of our wealth of experience in building Year Books we have formulated certain well defined standards of procedure for the guidance of each new Staff.

To enjoy the full benefit of our Creative Service we recommend a preliminary conference between the members of the Staff and the Manager of our Year Book Department. This preliminary conference should be arranged at as early a date as possible and does not incur any obligation. . . . Our "idea" or planning department has created many out-standing and prize-winning Year Books. . . . May we be of service to you?

AUTOGRAPHS

“But when I look’d again, behold an arm
Clothed in white samite, mystic, wonderful,
That caught him by the hilt, and brandished him
Three times, and drew him under in the surge.”
And answer me the King Arthur, breathing hard
“He cut drains right; too true that I were gone
Make broad the shoulder to receive my weight,
And bear me to the margin; yet I fear
He wound both taken cold and I shall die.”
