

PURPLE GIRLS WIN FINAL GAME

Last Wednesday night we witnessed the concluding contest of the Annual Purple-Gold Series. The Gold played desperately to regain an even footing in the annual clash, but all efforts were futile. The Purple were possessed of an aggressiveness that swept away all opposition it encountered. This makes the third successive year the Purple girls have emerged victorious in a series conflict.

Last night both teams started out at break-neck pace. For several minutes neither side scored and everything pointed toward an evenly matched struggle. However, due much to the injury received by "Connie" Cole, necessitating her removal from the game, the Purple were occasionally able to gain a small lead while holding their rivals scoreless. At the conclusion of the first half the Purple led, 9-0.

The final half saw the Gold score two field baskets and one foul, making the final count 13-5.

The Gold team was also handicapped by the loss of their regular center, "Lil" Clark. However, against the formidable scoring machine of the Purple, it is doubtful if the regular Gold team could win, due to the increasing team-work and growing effectiveness of the Purple Quintet.

PURPLE GIRLS WIN 5TH GAME, 13-9

In a rather loosely played game, the Purple Quintet scored over the Gold by a four point margin. The game was unusually rough for a series contest, being very spirited at times.

"Ann" English again was the chief basket-cager for the Purple, her partner, "Vid" Stevens also scoring in whirl-wind style.

"Fluff" Albro endeavored to encourage her team-mates, scoring three field throws, but her efforts were unsuccessful.

An antiquated picture of Houghton as it used to look. Even at that, the old town hasn't changed a great deal.

FEDERAL AGENTS ENFORCE PROHIBITION

Visit Genesee Valley Towns

The determination of Federal Dry Agents to enforce the eighteenth amendment, was clearly brought out recently when a squad of officers rode in to the Genesee Valley, sweeping the section clean of the liquor traffic. Their work is much appreciated by residents of the Valley. Houghton College, an institution which stands for high principles and correct living, wishes to add her support to this campaign for the eradication of evil. The Northern Allegany Observer, Fillmore's weekly newspaper, has this to say concerning the recent raids:

A squad of Federal Dry Officers working under the direction of Chief Allan S. Bartlett, swooped down on the Genesee Valley, making flying visits to several prominent hotels and wayside stands, the latter part of last week and as a result eight men were cited before U. S. Federal Commissioner Parker at Perry.

The villages in which the raids were staged are Cuylerville, Portageville, Fillmore and Friendship. Commissioner Parker is reported to have held the men for grand jury action after they waived examination. Bail at $1,000 was secured in each case.

The Wee Blue Inn, described by federal men as a road stand, near Friendship, was raided and Harry Englemier, alleged proprietor and Donald Lamb, were cited. A garage and road stand also near Friendship were visited and William J. McDonough was cited.

At Cuylerville, the Lanardo House was raided and John Lanardo, alleged proprietor was cited. At Portageville, Leo Joyce was cited after the Genesee Falls hotel had been raided.

Barney O Warth, alleged proprietor of the Prospect House at Fillmore and Albert Leinen, were cited when the agents visited the place. On the Belvidere highway out of Friendship, a road stand was raided and William Fox, alleged operator was cited.

LEONARD HOUGHTON ENJOYS "THE STAR"

Having been asked recently by his daughter, Miss May S. Houghton, where he had found a certain bit of information, Leonard Houghton, staunch friend and supporter of the college, said, "Why I saw it in the Houghton Star. If you want to keep up with the times, read the Star."

The Staff this year is truly endeavoring to make the Star a newspaper in fact as well as in name. By employing newspaper methods, we are attempting to advertise Houghton to the best of our ability. The connection which we have gained with the Alumni has gained considerable approval. We also hope and believe that the Star has been a success in the estimation of the present student body.

Mr. and Mrs. Taber spent Monday and Tuesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mattoon.

Rev. J. C. Long gave us an excellent chapel talk, Thursday morning.

THE MOST VITAL RELATION OF LIFE

Everyone has many binding ties in life; we all have relationships that we hold most precious; but that one is indeed unfortunate who does not number among his relationships a relationship with God. In Houghton there are several expressions of a communion with the Heavenly Father. Not the least is the Tuesday night prayer-meeting.

Tuesday night of this week the prayer-meeting was led by Miss Esther Ries who gave us a talk on Ephesians, the sixth chapter. She impressed upon us the necessity of wearing the full armor of God.

In the testimony meeting there was one note that seemed to ring out clearer than the rest: the blessedness of a complete consecration, for unless the eye is single one's success cannot be great. It was during this part of the service that a most apt illustration of faith was given. The Christian was likened to a man riding on a train. When he came to the dense darkness of the tunnel he did not attempt to get off the train. Rather he sat content knowing that this was the very best way home. So when the Christian finds himself in the midst of doubts if he be wise, he will sit still and wait upon God, knowing that that is the best way home.

W. M. Missionaries Acquainted with ex-Maharajah of Indore Nancy Miller to Wed Prince

Much discussion and comment has recently been aroused in this country by the anticipated marriage of Miss Nancy Miller of Seattle, Washington, to the former Maharajah of Indore, an Indian gentleman of some popularity in his nation. The latest reports state that Miss Miller has just renounced the faith of her fathers and sworn allegiance to the Hindu religion. This act was necessary in order to make possible her marriage to the Indian nobleman.

It is interesting to know that the home of Miss Miller's fiance is only a short distance from one of the Wesleyan Methodist Mission stations in India. Mr. and Mrs. Doty, who have just returned from the field, are somewhat acquainted with the Prince, and know something of his former life. Mrs. Doty states that if Miss Miller understood the Prince, she would not be so anxious for the coming event. Miss Miller's acceptance of the Hindu religion is a shock to many.

CROCKER, HUNTSMAN PREACH HERE SUNDAY

"The Christian's walk with God" was the theme of the message brought by Ernest Crocker Sunday morning. He especially stressed the following characteristic of the Christian's walk:

There is no walk except through Christ; it is a walk of faith, of love, in light, in the Holy Spirit, and of unity. The prerequisite of this walk is salvation through the blood atonement of Jesus Christ.

The evening service was in charge of the Christian Workers. Joseph Shipman was the song leader. Two special selections were sung by a male quartet consisting of Hollis Stevenson, Joseph Shipman, Elmer Roth, and Paul Roy. The message of God's Word was preached by Cecil Huntsman, the text being, "I have you in my heart." Phil. 1:7. He emphasized the need in Houghton for real soul-burden. Many of us are concerned about other crises, why should we not be about lost souls? If we have a burden for the lost, we will be careful that our lives; in fact, every detail of our lives will be such that others will not be made to stumble, for "We are the only Bible a careless world will read." What if we fail?

Mr. Huntsman exhorted all to keep under the burden for souls and to expect God to work in our regular seasons of worship and prayer. The service was closed by a gracious season of prayer. Truly, the presence of God was very precious in both meetings and we are expecting great things from God.

GLEE CLUB SINGS AT SCIO, N. Y.

The Houghton College Glee Club presented their first Concert program at Scio, N. Y. on Friday evening, March 9, 1928. This concert was sponsored by the Scio Senior class and was held in the Methodist church of that Village.

Due to the weather conditions the crowd was not as large as anticipated. However those present seemed very well pleased with the program and as an appreciation of the program The Glee Club was asked to return to Scio at a later date and present their same program.

Following the concert, the Glee Club was served to a light lunch by the members of the Scio Senior Class. In all respects, the Glee Club consider their first concert a decided success.

THE COLLEGE GRADING SYSTEM

The fact has been often uttered that a college education does not entirely consist of mental training or scholastic attainment. It certainly must be conceded that higher learning should build character and generally round out the life of any individual in addition to giving him a fund of text-book knowledge. Nevertheless, to a greater or less degree, our success while in school is publicly measured by the number of good grades that we are able to gain. Therefore, the system of college grading is one of great importance to the student.

The method that many teachers employ in grading papers is often injurious not only to the student but also to the college in which they work. I am referring to the system whereby a professor attempts to size up the individual student at the first of the year, give him a certain grade, and continue to place this grade upon his examination papers throughout the year in spite of any improvement or failure upon the part of the student. This grade may be high or low, yet the continued effort of the student does not alter it. The injustice of such a system is not difficult to understand. From time to time a student varies in his capabilities. Therefore, as far as possible the teacher should carefully look over every paper handed in, and grade them according to their merit.

Although character must be taken into consideration in almost every activity of life, although the personal element almost always influences success, yet mental ability only should determine the individual grades. Character training is another phase of education.

ALUMNI GOSSIP

Floyd Hester '13

Because of the interesting manner in which the questions are answered, we have printed this questionnaire complete.

1. What is your present occupation?

Principal of Northbranch Academy (a Friends Academy), Northbranch Kansas.

2. Do you enjoy your work?

Yes.

3. Have you attended any educational institution since leaving Houghton?

Yes. A. B., Oberlin College; A. M., University of Wisconsin.

4. Are you married? If so, to whom?

No.

5. What is the most interesting experience you have had since leaving Houghton?

(1) My foreign service with the International Commission of the Y. M. C. A. serving in Siberia and North Manchuria. (2) Service with the International Relief Commission in Shantung Province of China. (3) Service with Russian Relief Commission in famine area of Russia. (4) Circumnavigation of the globe which has convinced me that the earth is round. (5) Campaigning during the summer of 1916 in Renville Co., Minn. for the State Prohibition Committee when W. J. Calderwood was state chairman. This is the state where "Pussy Foot" Johnson first became famous in his work of enforcing the Prohibition Law in the Indian Reservations. The State committee furnished all of us college men with stereopticon lanterns for use in lectures in the evening in halls, churches and even on the streets, in which latter case we used the white wall of a building or store for our screen. This was almost entirely a Norwegian county. This is the home county of the now world-known: "A. J. Volstead." I met him one day that summer. As I was campaigning for a good Norwegian who was running for Congress on the Prohibition ticket in opposition to Volstead on the Republican ticket, Volstead asked me why I was working against him since he himself was in favor of Prohibition. I replied that he had not done much yet for the cause, and that the peerless Prohibition candidate, former State Senator Lobeck, would make good. Lobeck was a strong candidate and was drawing support. Volstead's wife had sent word to A. J. at Washington to come home and get into his campaign or the Prohibition candidate would defeat him. Well, we had him scared a little, and he proved to the world that he was willing to do something, for Prohibition (when he was about forced to do so or lose his seat).

(6) My tour of all the colleges and Universities of Missouri, Arkansas, Oklahoma and Texas in 1923-1924 to lecture in behalf of "The Student Friendship Fund" for "European Student Relief."

6. What experiences from school life do you remember most vividly?

The concert tour of the College Male Quartet of which I was a member. The band concerts conducted by Theos Thompson. The debate contests with Alfred University and Chesboro Seminary. The State I. P. A. Convention and contests. The June Oratorical Contest when Edward Elliott, Lois Thompson and myself were the orators. The basketball games in the old Seminary building on the top of snow capped "Pikes Peak" or Tucker Hill.

7. While in school, who was your crony or pal?

No one in particular—everyone in general. Harry Ostlund, Clare Beverly, and Paul Fall perhaps came the nearest answering to this label.

8. Who was your favorite teacher? I held every member of the faculty in high esteem, because they were all competent, devoted, earnest, kind, and Christ-like.

9. What year or years did you attend Houghton?

Preparatory 1908-1909. College 1909-1913.

10. Did you graduate from Houghton? If not, in what class were you upon leaving?

I hold a Preparatory diploma and a college diploma from Houghton.

Miss Rothermel—"What is the meaning of 'elocation'?"

Rachel Davison (dictating letters) —"The members of our faculty are always engaged before the annual Board meeting in February."

As the parting instructions were being given, the fresh young salesman picked up his bag and started on his initial trip.

"Good luck to you," said his chief. "Wire us important news."

The following day this message was received: "Reached here safely. Good room with bath. Feeling fine."

The manager wired back: "So glad. Love and kisses. Good-bye."

"Dear Teacher: Kindly excuse Walter's absence from school yesterday afternoon, as he fell in the mud. By doing the same, you will greatly oblige his mother."

A publisher's salesman, upon arriving at the hotel, was met by the porter inquiring how many trunks he carried.

"I use no trunks," the salesman replied.

"Oh, I thought you was one of them travelin' salesmen gentlemen," said the porter.

"I am, but I sell brains; understand? I sell brains."

"Well, excuse me, boss, but you're the fust travelin' fella that's been here this season who ain't carryin' no samples."

Teacher—"Yes, children, an Indian's wife is called a squaw. Now what are little Indian babies called?" Bright pupil—"I know, teacher: squawkers."

Johnny had two presents at the same time—one a diary, which he kept very carefully, and the other a pea-shooting popgun, which he fired indiscriminately on all occasions. One day his mother found the following terse record in his diary: "Mondy cold and sloppy. Toosdy cold and sloppy. Wensdy cold and sloppy. Shot grandma."

"Lub her? Boy, I lub de groun' mah gal stan's on!"

"Lawsy, man, yo' lub sho' do cover a heap ob territory."

Smith arrived home about an hour later than usual the other night.

"Got pinched for speeding," he explained to his anxious wife.

"Oh, my!" exclaimed the young wife who had a horror of the courts, "Will they send you to prison?"

"Not quite that," smiled Smith, but I have to appear tomorrow and get fifteen days or ten dollars."

Mrs. Smith's hopes took a leap, and she clapped her hands.

"Oh, John," she giggled, "take the ten dollars, and I'll get a new hat."

Perplexing Religious Questions Answered

By Dean Frank H. Wright

In this department, Prof. F. H. Wright in conjunction with others, will attempt to answer, each week, questions relating to religious creed and doctrine. Send your questions to the Houghton Star, Houghton, N. Y.

"Since the Holy Ghost is a personality, if one has him at all, he has him all." Thus it would seem that the regenerated man has with him as much of the Holy Ghost as does the Sanctified man. Hence the difference must be in the amount of submission of the man. Is it true that the Holy Spirit is as much with the unsaved as with the regenerate, the only difference being that in the first condition the man refuses to see him?

The above quotations and questions present not only a real difficulty but a very vital issue. The attitude taken toward it marks the doctrinal background for the leading denominational differences on the question of holiness. The quotation as given above is a pet statement among the Keswick brethren and the suppressionists in general. To accept it as stated would do away with a second definite work of grace so far as it involves the work of the Holy Spirit as a purifier of the heart.

We shall receive help on this subject when we disabuse the mind of the idea that personality demands conformity or materiality. I remember one of my Keswick teachers saying that the Holy Spirit cannot travel in sections, that his body cannot be in one place and his head in another, hence, if one has the Holy Spirit at all, he has him all. Such a position is absurd, as soon think of God, in personality, with a head, body, etc., as limit the Holy Spirit thus. God, the Father, is a person. As a person, he has personality. But God, the Father, never took a human form for himself. The Holy Spirit is a person, but he does not have hands, head, and feet as a human being does.

We shall also receive help on this subject when we think of the Holy Spirit in his offices. He produces conviction in the sinner. Thus the sinner has him in the office of conviction of sin. "And when he is come, he will reprove (convict) the world (kosmos, world age) of sin" etc. John 16:8. The Holy Spirit is also the agent in regeneration. "That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is Spirit." John 3:6. The Spirit does bear witness to our regeneration. "And it is the Spirit that beareth witness because the Spirit is truth." I John 5:6. And now comes the issue. In what sense does one have the Holy Spirit in sanctification? The office of the Holy Spirit in sanctification is twofold: to purify the heart and to empower for service. I believe both are accomplished at once. I can see that in John 20:22, and Acts 1:8. I fail to see why inspiration should say that on the day of Pentecost "they were all filled with the Holy Ghost" if they already as regenerated people had all the Holy Spirit which means all of his fulness. In Acts 19:2, Paul asks the certain disciples at Ephesus if they had received the Holy Ghost since they believed? In Acts 10:44, "While Peter yet spoke these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word." And they were earnest gentle Christians. In Acts 15:8-9 Peter rehearses the great service in the house of Cornelius, "And God, which knoweth the heart, bare them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us," and put no difference between us and them, justifying their hearts by faith." Thus Peter makes the work of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost among the Jews, and in the house of Cornelius among the Gentiles, that justifying the hearts of believers. This is his office in this age of the church. And this is the vital point at issue. The cleansing of the heart from all sin in this life is that to which these suppressionists object. I trust we shall not allow ourselves as Wesleyan Methodists to be deceived in this great subject. It is our privilege to be sanctified wholly by the Holy Spirit through the application of the blood of Jesus Christ so that the heart is justified from all carnality and filled with the Holy Ghost. And we can have it now, on this earth. When one enjoys this blessed experience, he will have the Holy Spirit in all his fulness and power.

PURPLE 2NDS REPEAT VICTORY

Russell and Molyneaux, High Scorers

The Purple Gold second teams clashed for the second time last Friday evening, and again the Purple kept clean the fine record established by the Purple first team, trimming their adversaries to the tune of 42-24. Russell, veteran Purple forward, had a great evening with ten field goals. Charlie Molyneaux, Purple center, totalled fourteen points. Mix was high point man for Gold with eleven points. Kemp's two long shots were features of the game.

WRITERS' CLUB ORGANIZED

Houghton College definitely made another step toward advancement when, last Monday evening, nineteen enthusiastic students and teachers met and organized a Writer's Club. The policy of this society is constructive literary work. Much stress will be placed upon the cultivation of practical experience in writing articles of literary merit. Three fields will be developed: the short story, essay, and poetry.

The Club is divided into two divisions, one for the men and one for the women, with joint sessions held occasionally.

The Committee appointed for drawing up the constitution consisted of: chairman, Lynn Russell, Ellsworth Brown and Erma Anderson.

From Other Campuses

In an extra edition of the Wheaton Record, we find news pertaining to the death of Professor Charles Walter Howard, an honored member of the faculty at Wheaton College. A clipping from the Record reads as follows: "Prof. Charles Walter Howard, Head of the Department of Zoology of Wheaton College, died at the Geneva Hospital, at 2:40 P. M. Thursday from injuries received when he was hit by a C. A. & E. train at the Chase Street crossing. He sustained a fractured skull, as well as internal injuries, and passed away a short time after admittance to the emergency ward."

Under an article entitled "Marion College Wins Favor" the Marion College Journal prints the following resolution:

"At the annual meeting of the board of trustees of Marion College, recently held at Syracuse, N. Y., the following resolution was offered and passed by unanimous vote of the Board:

"The Board of Trustees of Marion College hereby extends its greetings to and appreciation of Marion College, its Acting President, Faculty, student body, and local board of managers. The manner in which the faculty has carried on under unfavorable conditions, and the most excellent student spirit, are appreciated indeed. Without the co-operation of these there could have been no successful consummation of the year's work. Permit us to assure these faithful and loyal co-workers that we will leave nothing undone which lies in our power to make Marion College measure up to their expectations. Our prayers, our best efforts, and our most anxious thought shall be for Marion's prosperity. Your co-operation in the past has been an inspiration to this meeting, and much time has been given to the consideration of Marion's problems. We humbly desire to serve, and to the utmost of our ability protect the present and future interests of Marion College. To this end we invite your continued prayers and co-operation."

J. S. Willett, Chairman; E. D. Carpenter, Secretary; I. F. McLeister, F. A. Butterfield, E. F. McCarty, E. G. Dietrich, A. W. Smith, W. R. Emerson, W. D. Correll, John D. Williams, T. P. Baker, Fleming Perrine, Frank Martin, E. W. Black, F. R. Eddy, W. E. Hobsin."

From The Papyrus, the weekly newspaper of Greenville College, we clip the following article:

"President Marston reports a gift of $1,000 from Dr. Clarence H. and Mrs. Lefa Z. Snyder of Cincinnati, Ohio, creating the Zahniser-Snyder fund, the income from which is to be given yearly as a scholarship to a worthy Christian student, preferably a child of a missionary or a student preparing for the ministry.

Such a gift is the finest kind of philanthropy, insuring direct assistance in the education of needy students throughout the years.

Dr. and Mrs. Snyder were graduated from Greenville college with the classes of '21 and '19 respectively. Mrs. Snyder is a daughter of Bishop A. D. Zahniser, president of the board of trustees of Greenville college."

HE'LL TAKE YOU THROUGH

What though your friends may prove untrue
And everything looks dark to you
Do not give up what'er you do
Just look to God;—he'll take you through.

Tho' oft it seems you'll lose the race
And failure stares you in the face
Just look to God, accept his grace.
He'll take you through, all care erase.

This loving God is always near
To banish doubt, dispel all fear.
No other friend could be as true.
Just look to God;—he'll take you through.

great honor and trust and implies the implicit confidence in the one chosen as the most able athlete in school to pilot not only the basketball team but also to head all branches of sport in competition with the alumni. "Doc" is a Senior this year, and the honor of being elected Varsity captain is the greater when it is considered that he entered school last fall as a perfect stranger to all. He first broke into the limelight as a shortstop in the final games of the Purple-Gold baseball series last fall, and although he did not win his baseball letter, due to his team's loss of the series, he has a fine opportunity of becoming a three-letter man of whom there are only two in school, 'ere he is graduated this spring, having just won his basketball H and being practically assured of his baseball letter this spring.

Good work Doc! Congratulations upon your success and the best of luck in your near future athletic enterprises as Varsity leader.

The Varsity basketball team chosen by the Varsity captain with the aid of the Purple Gold captains on the merit of the player's performance during the past series are:—Lane F, Dyer F, Fox F, Fiske C, Kingsbury C, Miller G, Roth G, Madden G.

Students, Listen in on This!

WHEN IN HOUGHTON YOU PAY BUT A SMALL PART OF THE ACTUAL EXPENSE OF YOUR EDUCATION. INTEREST ON THE ENDOWMENT AND GIFTS FROM THE CHURCH MAKES UP THE DEFICIT THAT YOU DO NOT PAY.

YOUR $1.00 FOR THE STAR, LIKEWISE, PAYS BUT PART OF THE EXPENSE OF PUBLICATION. THE ADVERTISERS PAY MORE THAN YOU DO. THEIR PATRONAGE MAKES THE STAR POSSIBLE. DO YOU NOT THINK YOU SHOULD GIVE THEM YOUR HEARTY SUPPORT AND PROVE TO THEM THAT YOU APPRECIATE THEIR LOYALTY TO HOUGHTON?

WHEN YOU DEAL WITH OUT-OF-TOWN FIRMS LET THEM KNOW THAT YOU ARE FROM HOUGHTON. THEY WISH TO KNOW AND WILL APPRECIATE THE INFORMATION.
