DEDICATION

PROFESSOR JEAN-LOUIS ROEDERER

Jean-Louis Roederer has dedicated more than forty years of his life to Houghton College. With a Master of Arts in Languages from Middlebury College, he continued to teach language both in the classroom and abroad. Just this last year, he received Professor of the Year Award at Houghton College. Not only is Professor Roederer an excellent teacher, he is also a committed Christian, who spends his time sharing his love for Christ with his students and colleagues. His classes are both educational and intriguing as he finds ways to implement his faith with the lesson of the day by way of Bible verses, hymns, and personal stories. He never makes studying a new concept sound easy, but with his persistent attitude and private study, he demonstrates that even the most challenging obstacles can be overcome.

I remember in one of his French classes, he told the class a story about when he ran cross country in high school. His coach would make the team run many steep and strenuous hills without stopping. If a runner did happen to slow down or stop from fatigue, the coach would look up from his clipboard of times and distances and yell over the hilltops, "Keep running". Professor Roederer then went on to explain that nothing that is worth pursuing is ever going to be easy, but if we stick with it and "keep running" when we want to quit, we will best serve Christ with our dedication and become the best we can be.

For these reasons, the Boulder staff would like to dedicate the 2013-2014 yearbook to Jean-Louis Roederer. Thank you for all you have done and continue to do for Houghton College and for the countless lives you have touched through your love for Christ and the study of languages. May God bless you this coming year as you continue to run the race.

*In Christ,
Lauren Campbell
Chief Editor*

Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God.

-Hebrews 12:1-2

"Sacrificial love to one another is a central demand of the gospel. Jesus washed his disciples' feet and told us to humbly serve as he did. In John, He calls us to love each other as he has loved us. In fact, we are to be known as Christ-followers by our love for one another."

"And may you have the power to understand, as all God's people should, how wide, how long, how high, and how deep his love is. May you experience the love of Christ, though it is too great to understand fully. Then you will be made complete with all the fullness of life and power that comes from God. Now all glory to God, who is able, through his mighty power at work within us, to accomplish infinitely more than we might ask or think." -Ephesians 3:18-20

"Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice. Let your reasonableness be known to everyone. The Lord is at hand; do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things." -Philippians 4:4-8
