Declaration

TO THE FACULTY, STUDENTS AND FRIENDS OF HOUGHTON COLLEGE

Resolved: That to properly commemorate the Bi-Centennial Celebration of the birth of the Father of our Country we, the Junior Class of Houghton College, have hereby chosen a colonial theme for this, the ninth annual issue of the Boulder, and do intend to give through the pages of this book our conception of that great leader, George Washington.

Resolved: Secondly, that to provide a permanent record for the Faculty and Students, and to give an insight to the friends and prospective students of Houghton College, we have hereby set down in due form what we believe to be an accurate account of the activities and college life during the year 1931-1932.

Resolved: That if to those who in future years shall peruse the pages of this book there comes pleasant memories and recollections, we shall be amply repaid for our efforts.

THE CLASS OF 1933

OFFICERS

RAYMOND PITZRICK	President
EDWARD DOLAN	Vice-President
LENA STEVENSON	Treasurer
MORELLA WILTSIE	Secretary

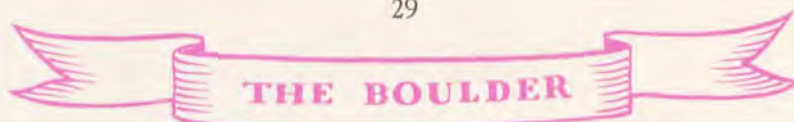

With hearts more courageous than ever before, we returned in September as upperclassmen. In the early part of the school year we organized with a membership of sixty-five.

From the beginning of the year to the close we found loyalty and co-operation in our class. Early in the year the Boulder Staff met to make plans for our college year-book. Each member was determined to make the book a chest of treasures more valuable as the years come and go.

In the various activities and in scholastic achievement we found Juniors and more Juniors. All knew that dark green and buff. The Junior class furnished the foremost tennis players of the college. Not only one, but two or three, led the school in this. Our men's team led the others in basketball. Thus our team has the distinction of holding the championship of the school for three years.

Not only did we have our athletic stars but also students who showed marked literary ability and musical talent. Juniors showed this ability in the Literary Contest, in which one received first place in essay, and another in the poem.

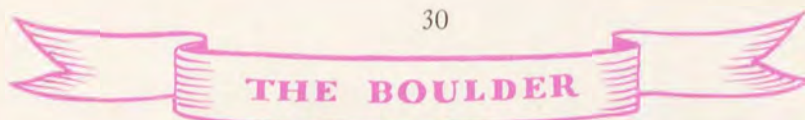

We find that as each year slips by we realize more and more the value of an education, and since education is found in more than books, extra curricular activities, as well as lessons, develop the capacities of learning.

DEPARTMENT OF THEOLOGY UNDERGRADUATES

To prepare young men and women for Christian service was the ideal of the founder of Houghton Seminary, and this ideal has found expression in the Theological Department from the beginning of the institution. At first, however, its members were few. Up to eleven years ago there was but one member of the faculty teaching in this department, and there were no graduating classes.

At present there are four teachers who teach full time in the Theological Department, and one part-time. About thirty students are registered in the department, most of whom are college grade. This year a class of six will graduate from theological courses. Of these two are planning for active missionary service in the foreign field, and three are already pastors.

Due to the fact that many members of the Theological Department are also members of the college classes and join in the social activities of those classes, the department does not function very largely as a social unit.

If God continues to bless in the future as in the past, we expect to see this department assume increasing importance in the program of the school, and to see an increasing number of well-prepared ministers of the gospel at home, teachers of the Word in foreign fields, deaconesses, and Christian workers in other lines go out to bless all whom their ministry shall reach.

THE DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC UNDERGRADUATES

No period in the history of the Music Department has seen more progress than the current year.

Next to the College of Arts and Sciences, the School of Music is the largest department of Houghton College. There are five active members in the faculty of the School of Music, and over one hundred students are enrolled in this department. Courses are given in Theory, Piano, Voice, Violin and Public School Music, and all of this work is fully accredited by the Department of Education of New York State. Students graduating from the Public School Music Course receive the special certificate from the state to teach music in the public schools of the state.

Application has been made to grant the degree of Bachelor of Science with a major in music education. This will mean much to the students who desire to make music their life work.

Because of the remarkable growth of the Music Department, there is no longer room for the School of Music in the present buildings. Therefore, a new Music Conservatory is in progress.

Music holds an important place in our social and religious life. Why should we not be trained to meet its demand?

THE SENIOR CLASS

Of the twenty-two members who entered the Class of 1932, only six of these are in the present Senior Class. Many have transferred to other schools and some were graduated in the class of last year. Seven joined the class in 1929 and eight joined in 1930.

During the Freshman and Sophomore years, the usual number of parties and picnics were enjoyed. However, more work was accomplished and many good times were experienced in the Junior Year. By diligent effort money was raised for the Junior-Senior Banquet which proved to be a great success. Junior-Senior rivalry was strong during the year but at commencement time, all members found that their friendship had deepened for their schoolmates.

The present class of nineteen members, led by Harlow Terwilliger as President, Florence Wright as Valedictorian, and Gerald Smith as Salutatorian, have had a most happy time together during the past year. The end of High School days has arrived but many members are looking forward to four more years of companionship as students of Houghton College.

SEMINARY UNDERGRADUATES

The early history of Houghton Seminary is vitally connected with the life of its founder, Willard J. Houghton. He was always deeply interested in the welfare of the church, particularly in the young people influenced by it. He worked faithfully organizing many Sunday Schools in this vicinity where he was born and brought up. Since he possessed a most unselfish nature, he gave time, money, and energy to the forwarding of Christianity and the bettering of young lives. Therefore, when the suggestion came to him that the Wesleyan Methodist Church needed a school for her young people, under the control of the church; a school Christian in its ideals yet moderate in its prices, so that every boy and girl who longed for an education could obtain one, this noble man made the establishment of such a school his chief goal in life.

Finally, after many difficulties, sacrifices and bitter disappointments, a school was founded in 1883. Studies were begun during the year 1884. At this time the school was located on a hill about a mile distant from the present site of the college. Later, in the year 1893, when it was decided to add a college department to the seminary, the location was changed to the present one. After a time this building was not adequate for the ever increasing enrollment; consequently, a separate high school building and a gymnasium were erected. At the present time the school has enlarged considerably—a living tribute to Willard Houghton and his son Leonard.

The highest aim and purpose of the school still is to maintain its Christian ideals and standards, to train young men and women both spiritually and educationally at a minimum expense.

The Owls is Houghton's newest organization, having been chartered in 1932. The aim of the Club is to improve the journalistic quality of the Star, to promote literary interest in the school, and to encourage the writing of literary productions.

The Star Staff forms the nucleus of the Club, and membership is gained on a competitive basis.

The Owls expect to be an active factor in aiding the Literary Contest, and are working on plans for publishing a literary magazine, and a Student Song Book which will include both the words and music of new and old songs for Houghton. The motto of the Club is Accomplishment.

Houghton College Orchestra has assumed larger and better proportions this year than ever before. This group of twenty-eight musicians, under Professor Cronk's direction, gave a concert of classical music during Alumni Week, in December, 1931. This was the first concert of entirely orchestral nature to be given in Houghton by Houghton talent.

Later, in collaboration with the Public School Music Chorus, the Orchestra presented a concertized version of the operas, "Martha," and "Faust."

The type of music the Orchestra is putting on is very well appreciated. It is the purpose of the Orchestra to help Houghton find a means of a clearer comprehension of classical music.

Every college usually maintains at least one musical organization—the Glee Club. In Houghton we see the Glee Club giving place to the A Cappella Choir. Last year, under separate supervision, both the Men's and Women's Glee Clubs gave individual concerts; however, this year, by combining the musical talent and effort of both, Professor Bain hopes to obtain a unity of purpose and a higher standard of perfection in the production of a finer quality of music.

The A Cappella Choir is organized on the same basis as the Westminster Choir. The group, consisting of forty voices, made an extended tour during the spring vacation. Concerts were given in New York City, Rochester, Syracuse and many smaller cities and towns in New York State.

We are proud of our choir and are looking forward to a great success for an organization that has had such an auspicious beginning.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

OFFICERS

ARTHUR FRANCE	President
ALBERT ALBRO	Vice-President
LUCY JOSLYN	Secretary

The Student Council was organized three years ago for the purpose of providing a vital point of contact between the Faculty and the students in settling problems of student government. The Council consists of sixteen members, six members from the Senior Class, four from the Junior, and two each from the Sophomore and Freshman classes. Those elected from the latter class act in a representative way, but do not have the right to vote. In addition the Faculty is represented by the Dean of Men and the Dean of Women.

In this, the third year of its existence, the Council has been able to present to the Faculty student views on many problems. And, while as yet the Student Council has not taken any definite steps in student government, it is believed that there is a great future for this organization in paving the way to a better understanding between the Faculty and the Student Body. Organized on such a sound basis as it is, if given greater authority by the Faculty it should prove of great value in solving problems that arise from time to time.

The Music Club, one of the most active organizations in the College, has a membership comprised of students interested in musical interpretation.

In private studio programs the members of the club study together the life and works of great composers, thus acquainting themselves with the master musicians and their contributions to the world of music. Each member of the club contributes in some way to the programs and music lovers acquire a deeper insight into the beauties of music.

Public programs are presented in cooperation with the Public School Music Chorus, and have been instrumental in arousing the students to a keener musical appreciation.

The purpose of the Club is to furnish a medium for self-expression, and to encourage students of talent to exercise their talents. The platform experience, and the practise in organizing and presenting programs, which the members receive, are invaluable.

With energy and enthusiasm behind it, the Expression Club will come to fill a vital place in the student calendar. Much has already been accomplished, in presenting worth while programs to the public.

Active membership in the club is extended to all students who have had or are now taking Latin I and Latin II or the equivalent in college.

The topic chosen for study this year was Roman daily life, taking up the habits, customs, and character of the Roman people. The work of the year will culminate in a Roman banquet served according to ancient Latin custom.

DER RHEINVEREIN

The Rheinverein or "Rhine Club," is a linguistic organization with a two-fold purpose: to acquaint students with German civilization, and to teach an appreciation of German literature. Letters are exchanged by some of the members with students in Germany. These greetings from the Vaterland are read occasionally in the meetings. In the Club's bi-monthly programs spent in discussing German customs and pastimes, in singing German songs and enjoying German anecdotes, the members become more sympathetically acquainted with the Volk der Dichter und Denker. Here, too, they are transported by the magic spell of such entrancing lyric literature as we find in Heine's "Lorelei" to the scenes of which the poet sings:

*Die Luft ist kuhl und es dunkelt,
 Und ruhig fliesst der Rhein;
 Der Gipfel des Berges funkelt
 Im Abendsonnenschein.*

THE CHRISTIAN WORKERS

OFFICERS

WILLARD SMITH	President
EVANGELINE CLARKE	Secretary

The Christian organizations of our College are as a hidden source of energy. Humanity is not only a rational mechanism. It is natural for man to search in the spiritual unknown for something tangible. Houghton College proposes to direct the minds of her students and to provide for them activities in the spiritual realm.

The various departments of Christian work have organized prayer groups which lend an impelling power to the weekly services in the school. By organizing the work and enthusiasm of the Christian students, steps have been taken toward universal evangelism within the College. Surroundings localities have been impressed by the spirituality of the students and many have been led to higher standards of Christian living.

Besides the Christian Workers there are the Y. M. W. B., Light Bearers, and Young Peoples Societies whose purpose it is to supplement the work of the Christian Workers by conducting Sunday Schools in the neighboring towns, training personal workers, and stimulate missionary interest.

THE PURPLE-GOLD SERIES

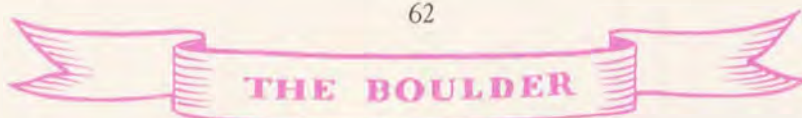

The series this year has been probably the most interesting from the standpoint of the spectators that has ever taken place in Houghton. Never before has there been such talent arrayed on both the Purple and Gold teams. Both teams presented a brand of basketball improved over that which teams of the past have shown. The Purple started out with a rush, taking the first two games, but the Gold, somewhat slow to round into form, came back to win the next four games in succession.

For the Gold "Gen." Matthews was the outstanding star, efficiently aided by Hall who occupied the other forward berth. Velma Harbeck playing her last year teamed with Stratton presented a close checking pair of guards who were a thorn in the side of the Purple. Hewitt and Fero held down the center position with Hewitt getting the call in most of the games.

Elsie Congdon again showed her skill and speed for the Purple. Together with Kessinger, Minnis, Frank, Vila and "Peg" Ackerman, and MacFarlane, she time and again threw a scare into the Gold camp.

THE PURPLE-GOLD SERIES

The series of 1931-32 was the most promising and anticipated of any preceding series. The two teams had acquired some real basketball talent from the Freshman Class, and it looked as if there was going to be a real struggle for the championship.

The first game ended with the Gold coming out on the long end of a 31-19 score. Due to the "wanderlust" of seven members of the respective teams, they became ineligible and were barred from playing the next three games. The Gold was hard hit by this debarrance, losing four first string members, and the Purple by losing three.

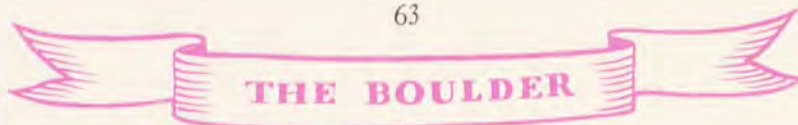

The second teams now came into prominence and fought hard: the Gold determined to maintain the lead established by their first team and the Purple set out to win. The next three games went to the Purple.

The last and best game of this season's series was played with the regulars of both teams in uniform. They were evenly matched, and the result was a hard-fought game. The score was tied and only a few seconds left to play when Farnsworth sunk a basket, and the series ended in victory for the Purple.

THE BASEBALL SERIES

The series again came to a close with a victory for the Purple men. The Gold, however, put up a strong fight but were no successful match for the Purple.

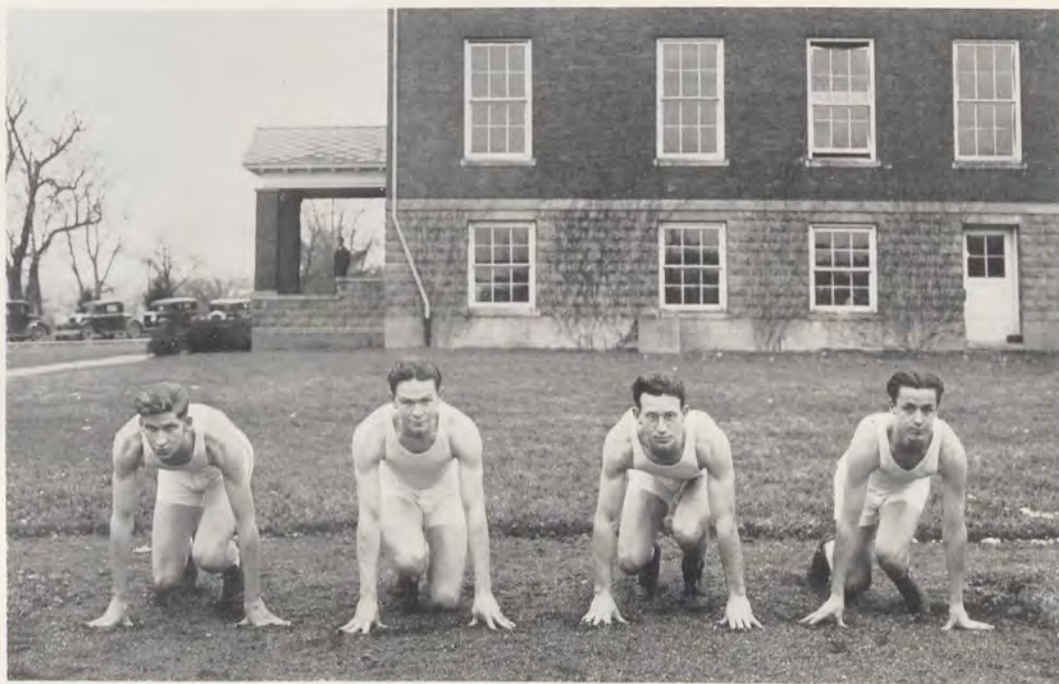

The Purple and Gold were much strengthened by the athletic talent they received from the Frosh. The Purple were fortunate in getting "Bob" Rork who proved himself a good man back of the home plate.

The Gold made their best showing in the first game which ended with a 11-6 victory for the Purple. The second game was another Purple victory, the Gold scoring only two runs. The Purple proved their superiority in the third game by holding the Gold scoreless.

Thus ended the 1931-32 baseball series with the Purple taking four straight games.

THE HIGH POINT TRACK MEN

Paul Vogan, a man who certainly deserves a place in Houghton's athletic Hall of Fame, again showed his ability in the 1931 meet and became high point man for the second successive year. Eddie Dolan, his team mate, celebrated by shattering three records and should be even better this year, as he is rapidly developing. Johnson proved to be the best man when distance is the test and carried off honors in the mile run, while Benjamin proved himself a track man of no mean ability.

Ackerman Minnis Matthews Harbeck

THE HIGH POINT WOMEN

The High Point Women in last years track meet were equally divided between the Purple and the Gold, for those girls who are still in college. Harbeck and Matthews represented the Gold, while Ackerman and Minnis drew the honors for the Purple. Harbeck carried off the lion's share of the points; she is probably the fastest girl to ever perform on Houghton's cinder path. Matthews proved herself a jumper of no mean ability, and Minnis heaved the shot put for a new record. Ackerman showed her heels to the rest of the field in the 100 yard dash to gain a tie with Clegg.

THE BIG H CLUB

To those who prove their athletic ability sufficiently to win a letter in three major sports, a large, block, chenile H is awarded. In addition to this award all those who receive it are entitled to membership in the Big H Club. This year the club consists of ten members, five men and five women and represents the cream of Houghton's athletic ability.

One member of the Club, Paul Vogan, deserves special recognition. Vogan during the four years spent in Houghton has proved, not only that he is an excellent athlete, but that he is a true sportsman who fights hard for every point, and if he meets defeat, he takes it like a gentleman.

A. Albro P. Vogan D. Frank E. Dolan H. Flint

THE 1931 TRACK MEET

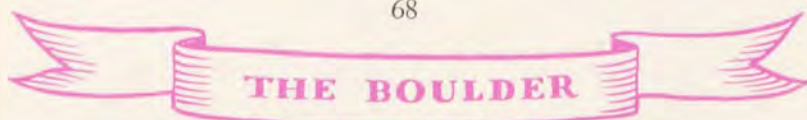

The track meet held last spring was probably one of the best, from the standpoint of interest, that has been held in Houghton in some time. For weeks before the meet the field was the center of activity for all of those who were athletically inclined. Vogan could be seen practicing the pole vault, Dolan and Woodard were going over the hurdles, and a host of others were hard at work practicing their favorite sport.

Although the Purple was badly beaten in the 1931 meet, the 1932 event promises a turning of the tables. The Purple acquired many promising athletes in the Freshman Class, who are practicing faithfully in the effort to haul down the Gold banner. Advance "dope," if that means anything, calls for a tight meet that might hold the result in the balance until the final event.

A CAPELLA CHOIR—That exclusive body which goes about unaccompanied.

ACTIVITY—The main purpose of student life. All such superfluous pursuits as the pursuit of knowledge are never to be permitted to interfere. Activity may appear in various phases such as hiking, conversation in arcade, lounging in reception room on Friday night.

ALUMNI—Survivors of the four year struggle. Full-fledged members of the institution.

ARCADE—The boundary line between High School and College; a suburb of the Library.

ARTHRON—De joint where dem Senior goils hangs out. You know de ones!

ASSIGNMENTS—What the faculty expect in us. How misplaced is their confidence.

BACHELOR—What graduation does to a Co-Ed.

BLACKBOARD—A necessity in the teacher's profession enabling him to draw conclusions.

BLUFFING—A camouflage thrown out to the professors usually in the form of another question or in evading the real point of the question. Great results are obtained. He thinks you know a lot about the subject when you really know less than nothing.

BOOKS—Within lies our store of knowledge. Wanted: a medium of exchange.

BOOKSTORE — Chicken dinner served at any hour. Students interested in Astronomy are urged to take advantage of opportunity to learn more about the Milky Way. Favorite lounging room.

BOREDOM IN THE LIFE OF A CO-ED

Monday	—Bed at 10:00 P. M.
Tuesday	—Bed at 10:00 P. M.
Wednesday	—Bed at 10:00 P. M.
Thursday	—Bed at 10:00 P. M.
Friday	—Bed at 10:00 P. M.
Saturday	—Bed at 10:00 P. M.
Sunday	—Bed at 9:30 P. M.

What could be worse?

BOULDER OFFICE—Try and find it. We can't.

BULLETIN BOARD—Lost and found.

CAMPUS—A fairly level hilltop. Notes for its muddy roads, squirrels, and the hum of Mr. Cott's lawn mower.

CARPET—A Wilton, located in the President's office to support the burden of an infringer on the rules, etc.

CHAPEL SPEAKERS—And do they really "enjoy looking into our bright and shining faces?"

CHAPERONES—A necessary evil.

CHORUS—The Lost Chord.

CHURCH—A small white building; a heaven-pointing hand; a sincere and reverent preacher.

COLLEGE—Well, you're in it.

CONCENTRATION—A little goes a long way. Somewhat analogous to cramming.

CONTRACT—The Ideal of the Senior year. Many seek—may all attain!

CRAMMING—A very beneficial extra-curricular activity indulged in during exam week.

CUTS—The most popular pastime of students, especially when "'tis the day after the night before." Noted for their absence just before and after vacations.

DAYOITGAO—Well, suppose you figure it out for yourself.

DEAN OF MEN—Faculty member appointed to put men in their places and keep them there. (Now don't argue! Of course, he's always Wright.)

DEAN OF WOMEN—Arbiter of Dates—a very ubiquitous personage.

DILEMMA—Exams. If you write little Prof. thinks you don't know much. Then if you write much, he thinks you're stringing him a line.

DIPLOMA—That which enables us to face the world after graduation—especially our employer. Walking paper signed by the college authorities.

DISTINCTIONS—Clothes make the man. Sweaters make the upper classmen.

DORM—Looks peaceful on the outside but the inside—just ask the inmates—they know.

EDUCATION—The minor reason for prospective teachers' going to college.

ETHICS—A study of Wright Conduct taught by Professor Right.

EXCUSE—Four out of Five get by with it.

FACULTY—The backbone of the college.

FLUNKS—Something for nothing. Disproves old theory that a man gets just what he works for, because this degree is given when he doesn't work at all.

FOOTBALL—A minus quantity.

FRESHMAN COMPOSITION—A training course for future members of the Star Staff.

GRADES—The ups and downs of college life.

GYM—Never dated up till the Senior year and then the date is broken, if possible.

HANDBOOK—Revered by Frosh.
Consulted by Sophs.
Tolerated by Juniors
Ignored by Seniors.
(Also receives use at Pep Meetings)

HOT DOG—Loaf of bread, a pound of meat
And all the mustard you can eat—
Hot Dog!

HUMOR—Needed in the dining hall. It aids digestion.

INFIRMARY—"Three pounds more—it can't be possible. Where could I have put it?"

INTUITION—The native ability within one which warns him of an approaching "surprise" quiz.

JUNIOR—The busiest class of all. Its special function is the Boulder.

KEEPER OF THE KEYES—Checks up on male absentees from chapel in order to get a little pin money.

LAB—Just an afternoon pastime.

LECTURE COURSE—Includes everything from soup to nuts, mostly nuts.

LECTURE METHOD OF TEACHING—"A course in which the notes of the professor are transcribed thru the medium of the fountain pen to the students' notebooks without passing thru the minds of either"—Rollins College.

LIBRARY—A short cut to the 4th floor.

MAKE-UP—Has various meanings. Sometimes implies a feminine external physiognomy. Also internal characteristics. Usually means re-exam.

NOTES—Students' dissection of professor's brains.

ORATORY—A series of Whoas!

ORGANIC CHEMISTRY—A class for prospective bootleggers. Special emphasis upon preparation of alcohols and fermentation processes.

OPTIMISM—The ability to enter an exam with a smile and to keep it till after the blue book has been returned to you.

OWL—A wise, feathered fowl reported to be not in very good standing with the Faculty. The name of the otherwise respectable Literary Club.

PARTIES (CLASS) — Nothing to write home about.

PROFESSOR—He is the master of our fates. Especially in evidence at examination time.

QUIZZES—Mental endurance contests.

RADIO—Favorite avocation of girls. Cause of much unrest to Dean.

“The Twilight darkens, the curfew calls,

Up the stairs Dean Anna crawls,
‘Be quiet, Girls’ and silence falls,
As radios are turned off along the halls.”

With apologies to Longfellow.

REGISTRAR — Makes we “pore uns” dig down deep!

REGISTRATION—Self inflicting of rules for another term.

RELIEF—Expressed with a sigh when the period is over.

REST—What everybody needs after Christmas vacation.

SCHOLAR—Rare specie of genus homo. Careful analysis of all Houghton students reveals total lack of any scholars among us.

SOPH ENGLISH—A course in classic literature. Through unnumbered years the burden of the traditions surrounding this class has descended upon us — And they abolished the Inquisition in Spain!

SOUP—What have we? Don’t ask me. I dunno.

SPINACH—Just another piece of resistance.

SUCCESS—Getting by with a B when you expected a C.

THEME SONG OF HOUGHTON
—The Prisoner’s Song.

THINGS THAT MAKE US
LAUGH—

Edicts of the Board

Pig-Tail day

Purple-Gold Band

Lower Hall Association.

T. P's—Town Paupers.

UNDER CLASSMEN—Those who bring up the rear at college chapel dismissal.

VACATION—The logical time for doing term papers and units.
Teachers seem to have a hobby for longer assignments just before and after.

VOCATION—Our college inheritance.

WILLIE'S MUSTACHE—Obtained on the installment plan—a little down each week.

YAWN—An outward manifestation usually of boredom, sometimes fatigue caused by the heavy date of the night before—never by the professor's heavy discourse—Oh, no!

COLLEGE LIFE AS WE SAW IT

SEPTEMBER 1931

14-15 Registration Days—Making reservations for a term ahead of us.

16 First classes of the semester. Glad to see old students and classmates back and to welcome new ones.

17 Getting back into the routine of "daily grind" by degrees.

18 New Students' Reception.

19 Soup diet served for first (and not by any means the last) time.

20 Missionary from India, Miss French, addressed the Sunday School.

21 The Big Parade of the Greenbacks.

22 Freshmen Un-intelligence Tests. I. Q's have their ups and downs—mostly downs.

23 World Series opened in Houghton today. Varsity conquering Frosh.

24 Several Freshmen Stars make their debut in chapel program.

25 Rev. George Bennard, author of "Old Rugged Cross" opens revivals.

26 Saturday—Clean Up Day. Dorm rooms given good cleaning.

27 Robert Harkness, noted hymn composer gives a Sacred Recital at Rushford. Many Houghton students and Faculty members attend.

28 "Live such a life that if every life were like yours, Earth would be God's Paradise." David Reed, Assistant to Reverend Bennard.

29 Prof. Russell Carter of State Music Department welcomed.

30 "Closed dresser drawers add to the appearance of one's room. Don't run up the shades any more." A. L. F. (Note found in Dorm rooms.)

OCTOBER

1 October's Bright Blue Weather!

2 A very inspirational service and altar call at church.

3 Rev. Bennard conducts "Cross" service.
