NINETEEN FIFTY SEVEN

Dear Syb, I have you for a the Lord soon really wondered to let me to show they romantic this year. It is difficult for me to show they appreciation when others do things for me. but maybe a few words in ~~the~~ here can express ~~partially~~ what your life has meant to me. When tired and depressed I could always look forward to return to a smiling, homely one who could always take a joke and return them as well. Even in the chance and after bad time hours. You constant willingness to do for others and give to others has impressed me so ~~strongly~~. You always forgot and forgive so willingly and ~~strongly~~ the wrong others did to you, including myself. Also, our little ~~comrades~~ among the <sup>which</sup> three of us have showed me my ignorance about things I used to voice my opinion quite freely. ~~It~~ has made me more cautious of what I say. Remember the night I ask you to go for a walk. It was great to have a friend to whom I could turn. I might walk & talk that night. I felt most ~~well~~ upon return. I had fun in your home & all the food was delicious.
You still haven't seen me that my limit. I hope you never do. But all Remember ~~well~~ at Ore & the other time of course. There you. But all was not fun this year. Your prayers were given too although I do not pray it. Syd, may you always put God first. The ways are best although we cannot see a seed and they look so happy. There is no joy equal to pleasing God when its all over. He have loads of failure but God forgives all. ~~He is able to do every thing!~~ ~~Just him.~~
Have you
"In Christ Love"

Volume XXXIV

Published by the Junior Class of
HOUGHTON COLLEGE
HOUGHTON, NEW YORK

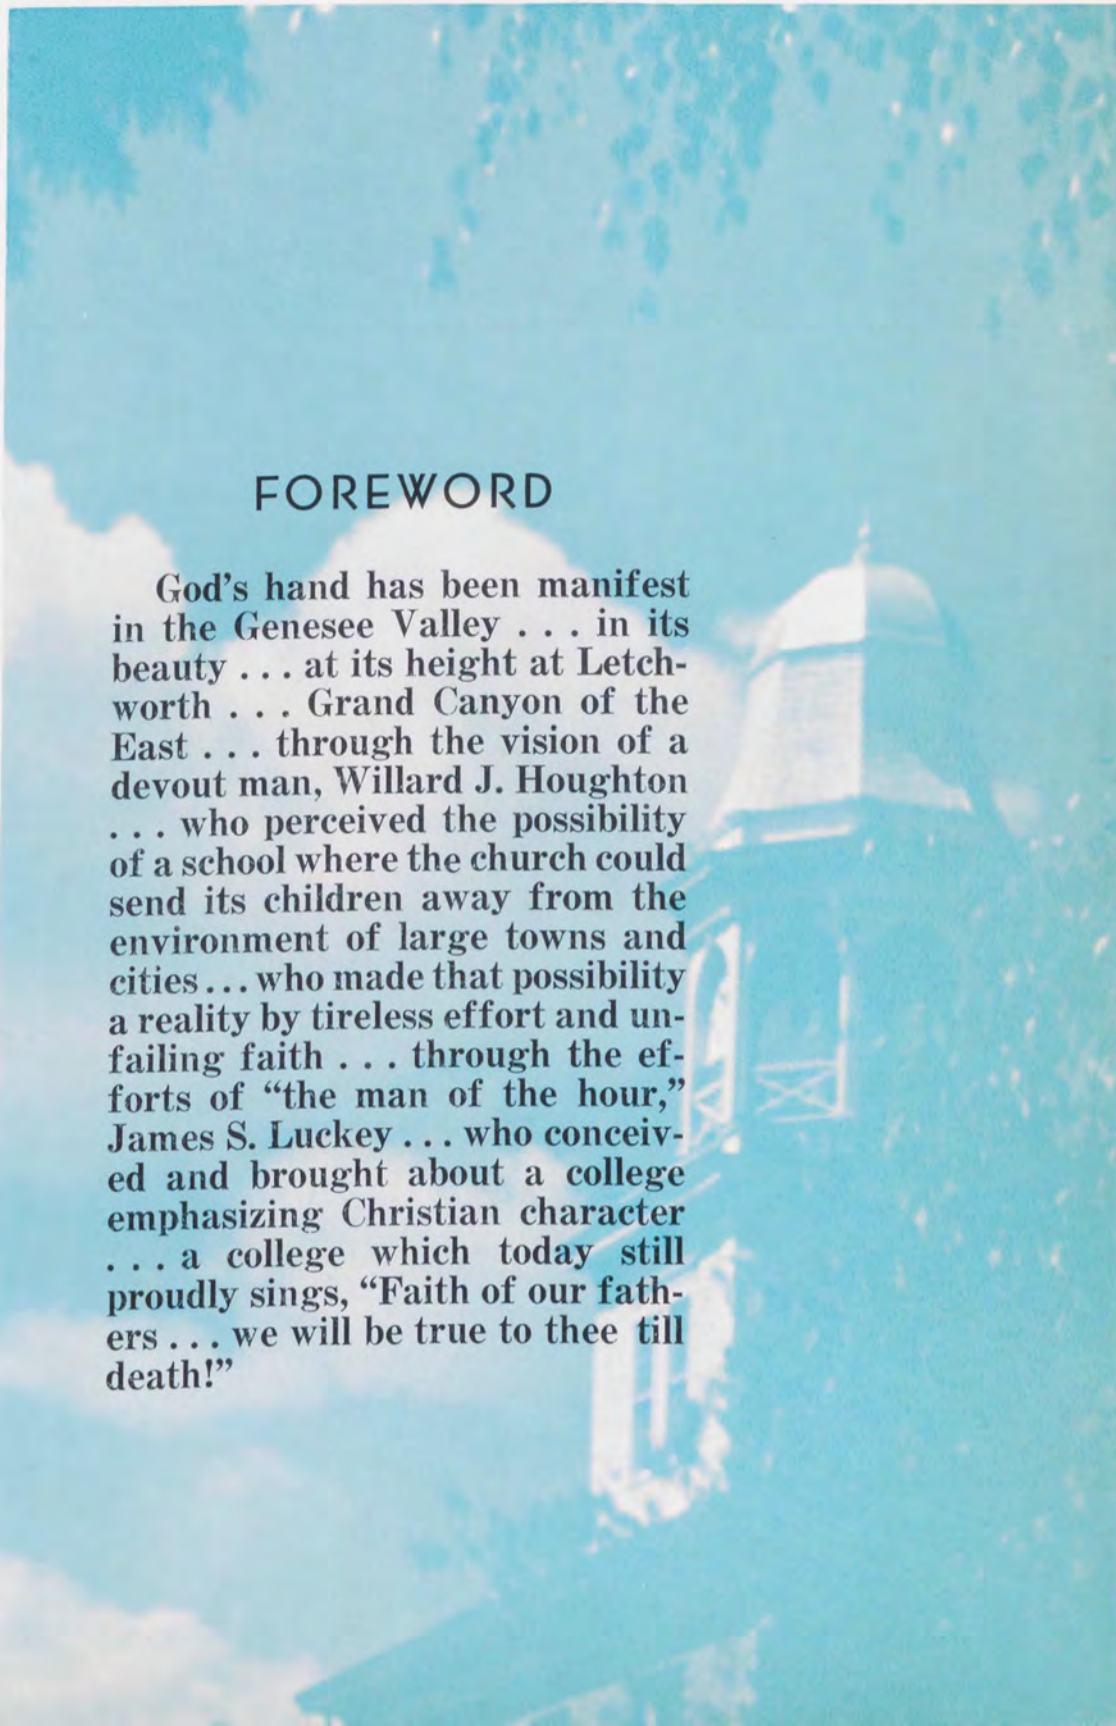

John M. Andrews, Jr., Editor
David F. Neu, Business Manager

We dedicate this volume of the BOULDER to the Head of the English Department . . . Professor R. W. Hazlett . . . The primogenitor of Houghton's literary scholarship . . . Terror of Freshmen . . . Mentor of English Majors . . . Bard of Genesee Lore . . . Integrator of the classics and the modern . . . amateur violinist . . . Mandator of immense erudition . . .

"His life is gentle, and the elements
So mix'd in him that nature might stand up And say to all the world, 'This is a man!'"

—Shakespeare

FOREWORD

God's hand has been manifest in the Genesee Valley . . . in its beauty . . . at its height at Letchworth . . . Grand Canyon of the East . . . through the vision of a devout man, Willard J. Houghton . . . who perceived the possibility of a school where the church could send its children away from the environment of large towns and cities . . . who made that possibility a reality by tireless effort and un-failing faith . . . through the efforts of "the man of the hour," James S. Luckey . . . who conceived and brought about a college emphasizing Christian character . . . a college which today still proudly sings, "Faith of our fathers . . . we will be true to thee till death!"

The 1957 BOULDER presents . . . our distinguished resident painter, Mr. H. Willard Ortlip, in his version "Of Time and the River" . . . depicting the work and interpreting the mood of the Great Artists . . . someday "When Earth's Last Picture is Painted," we shall expect him to use the sky for a canvas and Kipling's comet tail for his brush . . .

Commencement . . . so many different meanings: geological aeons and astronomical infinities . . . in the beginning, God . . . at the end, Eternity . . . Genesis to Revelation . . . from Alpha to Omega . . . physical birth and spiritual rebirth . . . the end of an academic quadrennium . . .

We'll never forget those college days . . . where ignorance is not bliss . . . the best that has been thought — but who said it? . . . Doc Jo . . .

Coffee break at our miniature automat . . . next innovation? . . . tea-bag dispenser for those who prefer "the cup that cheers but does not inebriate . . ."

East Hall . . . typical co-eds . . . ostensibly a session of sweet, silent thought just before exams . . .

No impediments to the marriage of true minds — not even co-education! Fool's Hill behind them, Parnassus ahead of them, Pegasus under them, our Jack and Jill will not falter or stumble . . .

Music — variously described or defined as: a course of sweet sounds . . . concatenated cacophony . . . noise . . . heavenly harmonies

This leader of the Houghton Harmonizers which barnstormed Western New York in the Twenties refers to himself as an academic Jack Benny, who prefers versatility to virtuosity . . .

Homecoming...

The homemade floats ... what ingenuity, patience, and ten dollars can produce ... a poor thing perhaps, if compared with the Tournament of Roses, but our very own ...

Proudly we present ... our choice for Miss Christian Coliege ...

Where hot dogs and marshmallows taste like ambrosia . . . the recipe: carefree youth around a campfire . . . warm hearts, clear consciences . . . singing voices under an open sky . . . mix and stir well . . .

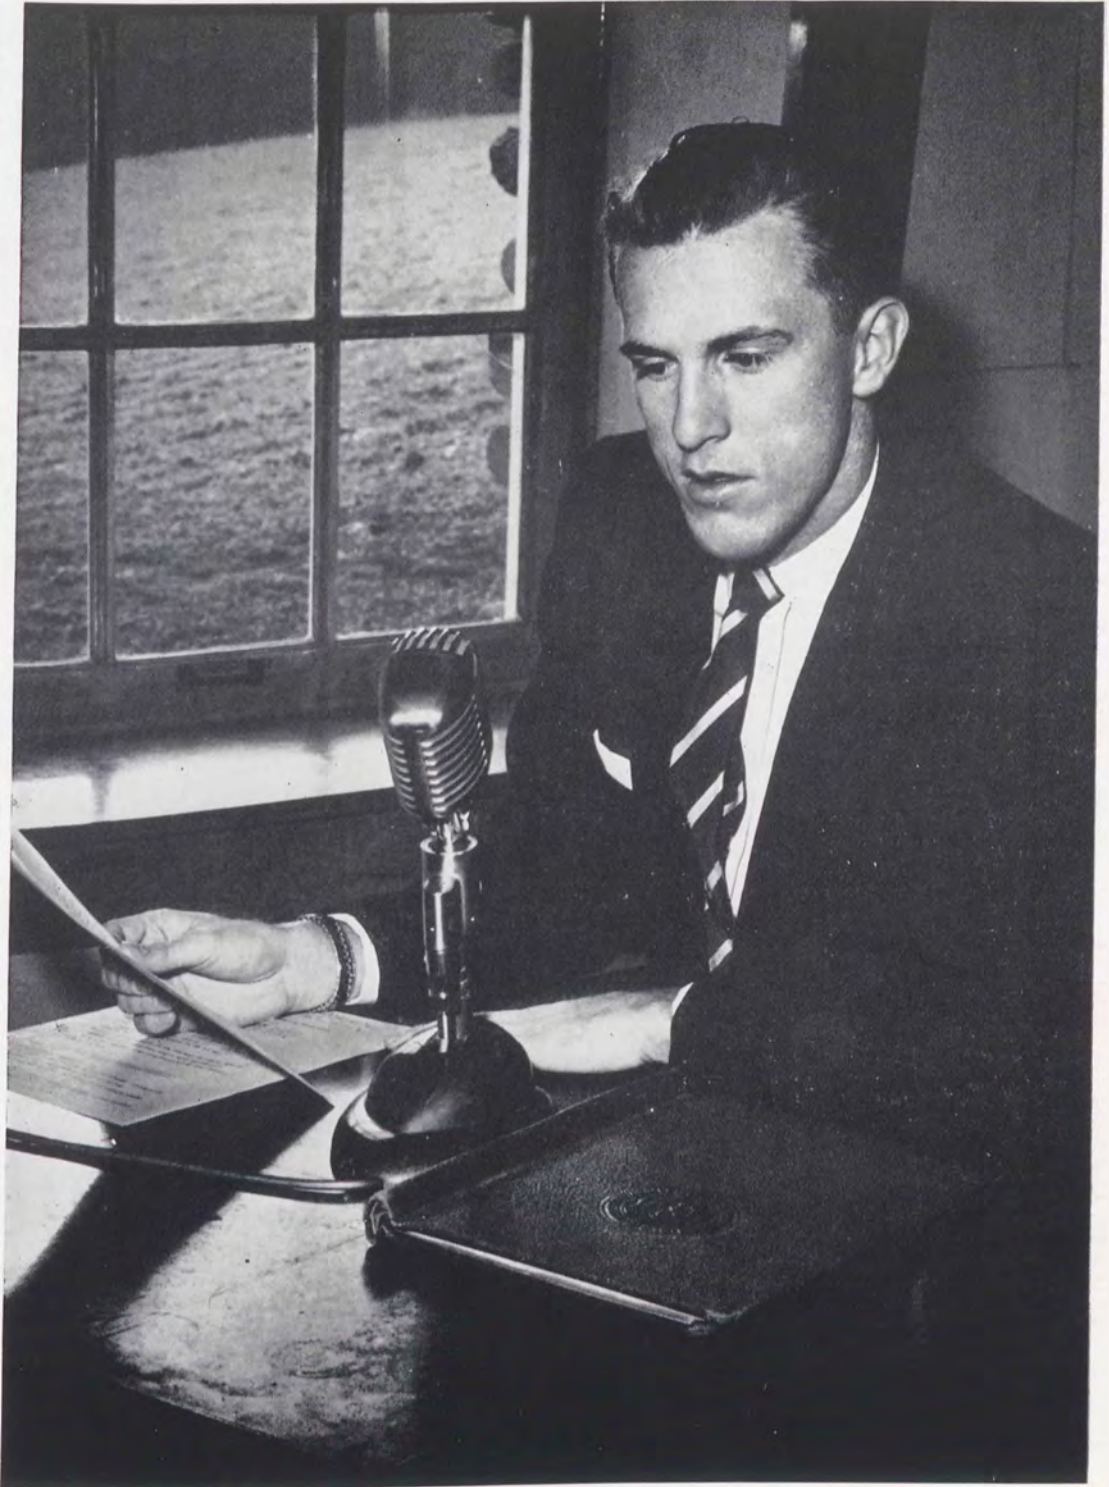

Murals and intramurals . . . our newest sport: touch football . . . our oldest? Probably croquet and baseball, the latter played in adjacent cow pastures . . . tennis was introduced about the same time . . . first court: under the large chestnut tree where the science building now stands . . . Houghton's athletes have always been red-blooded and progressive . . .

An Adamless Eden or the Forest of Arden without its Orlando — temporarily . . . bucolic pursuits amid bosky dells and rippling rills, otherwise known as Houghton Creek . . .

Long after you've forgotten the score, you'll remember Bedford Gym thudding feet . . . frenzied cries . . . the acrid smell of dust and sweat . . . the ball rolling around the rim of the basket in slow motion . . . the shrill sound of the referee's whistle . . . time out . . . colorful cheerleaders exploding into action . . . "Fight Team, Fight!" . . . the last inexorable seconds . . . back to the books again . . .

WJSL is on the air — 640 on your dial... tune in on our varied programs: newscasts... cavalcade of campus life chapel and church services for shut-ins... classical music... organizations... serving the Houghton area from Caneadea to Centerville... potentially a real educational asset... TV next?...

The masculine touch here in evidence
... Knights of the Kitchen ... they also serve ... seminar in pots and pans ...

After the ball game or concert . . . East is East and West is . . . the twain do meet — also North and South — in the lounge of East Hall . . . show place of the college and social center of campus life . . . many startling metamorphoses into formals . . . . . but always an informal friendliness and an atmosphere of Christian democracy . . .

The feminine touch and the festive spirit in the dining hall of Gaoyadeo just before the Christmas holidays . . . to the boys the food will taste better and appetites will increase prodigiously . . . underneath it all a deeper appreciation for Christian homes and colleges . . . all the privileges denied to so many millions in this world of ours . . .

*Simple -
It has been
"fun" getting to know you a bit better
this year.
Remember
Olsen? Remember
Furry Face?
Be good if you can!*

Our foreign students . . . the cosmopolitan touch . . . antidote to provincialism and smug complacency . . .

“Pop” Mills . . . our genial, homespun philosopher . . . gentle humorist . . . “Officially, Houghton College’s Supervisor of Janitorial Services. Unofficially . . . house father . . . and” matrimonial strategist to practically every boy in school . . . “Christianity in shoe leather,” one senior said of him . . . ”

The Zo Lab . . . who put zoo into zo-ology and men into men-agerie? . . . pervasive smell of formaldehyde . . . to some an alley cat bereft of its ninth life . . . to others the miracle of organic functions...

Our music students get practical experience in the grade school . . . watch the down beat . . . one, two, three . . . problems or prodigies . . . again, watch the upbeat . . . four and . . .

Field trips . . . Moss Lake . . . specimens . . . a collection of poems or pcsies . . . Tennyson's "Flower in the Crannied Wall . . . root and all and all in all" . . . Ophelia, "rosemary, that's for remembrance . . . pansies, that's for thoughts" — all suggested by one prosaic word — botany! Clear as Crystal . . .

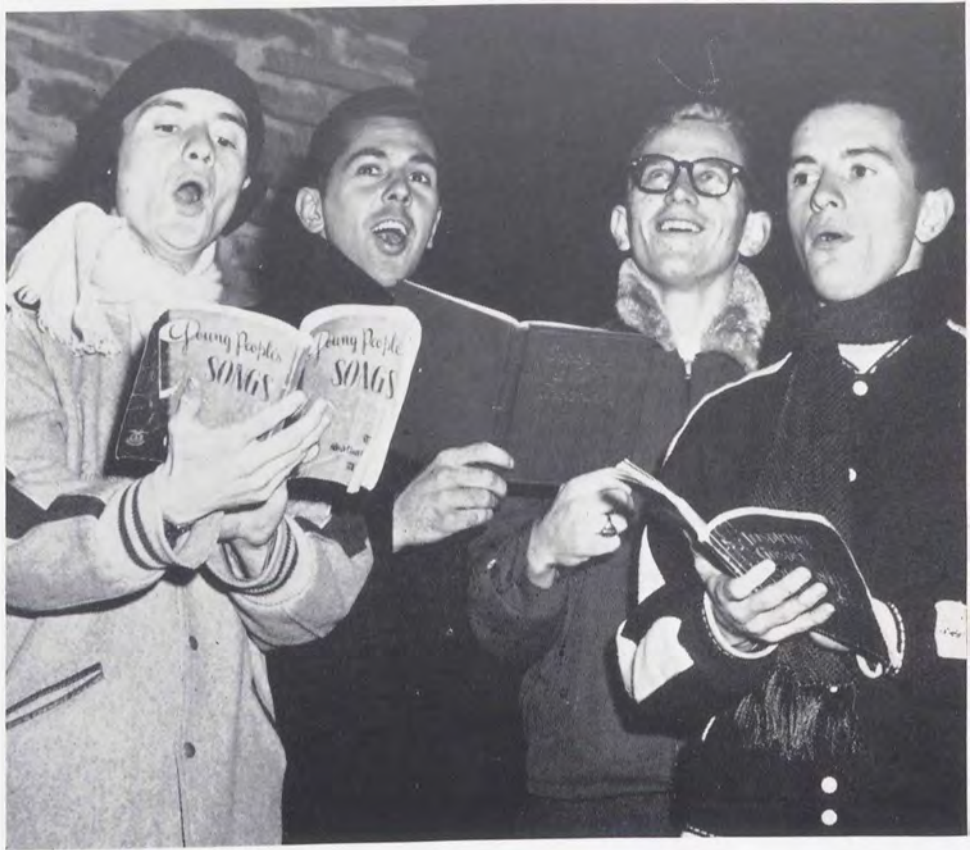

Our college "co-op" in the basement of Luckey . . . a few ecumiums for our emporium and its energetic manager, Jim Hurd, and his efficient student staff . . . everything from books to bobbi's . . . cokes to kodaks . . .

Benjamin Franklin, circa 1957 . . . our typographical expert and manager of the Houghton Press, Allen Smith, A.B., views his handiwork . . . the STAR makes its bi-weekly appearance . . . Volume 1, Number 1, burst upon the journalistic firmament in February 1909 . . . nearly fifty years of progress . . .

“If Winter Comes” to Allegany County — and the Ice King does come . . . is a long time in abdicating too . . . a few adventurous souls with toboggans or skis . . . abortive attempts to flood the tennis courts for a hockey rink . . . impromptu snowball fights to “warm up” stiffened pitching arms . . . here a bit of impressionistic snow “sculpting” in front of Gao . . . A Galatea of the Genesee? . . .

Christmas . . .

Boys going caroling . . . Here we come a-wassailing . . . God rest you, Merry Gentlemen . . . O little town . . . as with gladness men of old did the guiding star behold . . . the first Noel . . . earth's sweetest music . . . angelic antiphonies . . . Christmas! . . .

Private devotions . . . the Book of Books . . . the Babe of Bethlehem . . . the beginning of wisdom . . . thy law, a light unto my feet . . . written on the tables of the heart . . . meditation day and night . . . my help cometh from Christ — God's Eternal Gift . . .

“But O! what art can teach,
What human voice
can reach,
The sacred organ’s
praise?
Notes inspiring holy love.
Notes that wing their
heav’nly ways
To mend the choirs
above.”

Where men meet God . . . the “extension” of His kingdom . . .

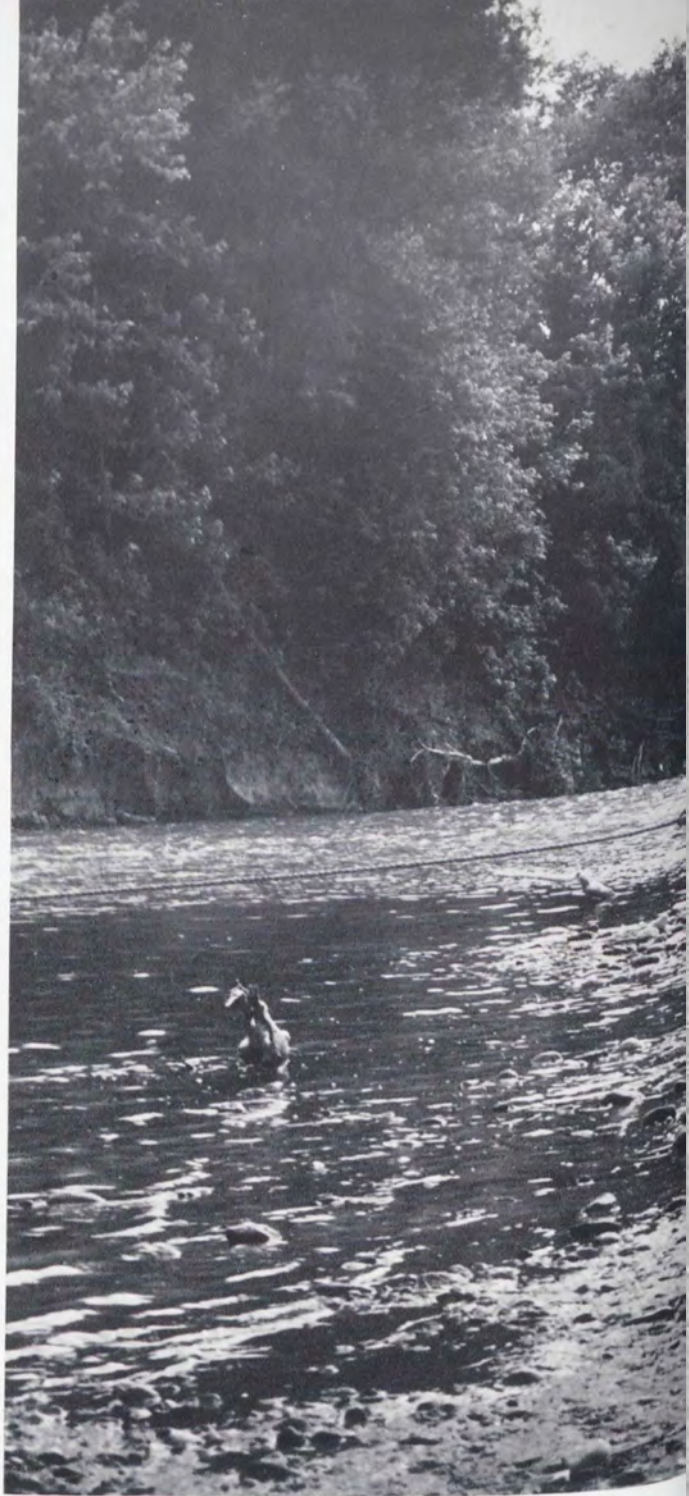

Back to our initial theme — “Of Time and the River” . . . musings and reflections . . . the eternal flux . . . mountains flowing to the sea . . . ARS LONGA, VITA BREVA . . . UBI SUNT QUI ANTE NOS FUERANT? . . . names writ in water . . . Cornplanter, Copperhead, Moses Van Campen . . . Portages, “Genesee Fever” . . . the One and the many . . . beside still waters . . .

“Whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.”

Dear Sybil -
 How glad I am
 for the opportunity of being your "broom" for two weeks. Your wit & personality have seen a "alarm clock"
 Don't forget your "alarm clock"
 and the "Held Her Hand!!" Really, I'm glad to get to know you. Little letters may be a guide & direct you as you prepare for his service & please you as you live for Him. Love in Him Glad

AND FACULTY

President

Completing two decades of able leadership
... having inspired vision ... an eloquent exe-gete and exponent of Christian education.

"GENESEE, RIVER OF THE 'PLEASANT BANKS.'

"Pathway of Mary Jemison and her Seneca companions toiling northward in 1762 to their Genesee valley home.

"War trail of the Senecas, marching to their defeat by Sullivan's colonials at Newtown in 1779.

"Scene of iron-nerved Moses Van Campen's successful running of the gauntlet near the old Seneca council house in 1782.

"Route of the wheat-laden canal barges heading for the Rochester mills in the middle 1800's.

"Training ground for the horse jockeys with their rough and godless center at 'Jockey Street.'

"Prayer arena for the godly Ed Palmer, who dared to ask God to 'clean up Jockey Street.'

"Site of the little white Wesleyan church of Houghton Creek, the rising walls of Houghton Seminary in 1883, the 'new campus' in 1906, with its growing cluster of college halls, its busy traffic of friendly students.

"Home of Willard Houghton, James S. Luckey, and a great multitude of witnesses, 'men and boys, the matron and the maid.'

"The Genesee Valley has seen the wonderful works of the Lord."

— Stephen W. Paine

Arthur W. Lynip, Ph.D.
Dean of the College

"GENESEE SELF-INDULGENTLY
WANDERS THROUGH OUR VALLEY ... roars discontent at Letchworth's confining walls ... now is curbed by Mt. Morris Dam.

"Tributary streams are small ... Can-eadea Creek, Fillmore Creek, Houghton Creek ... main channel is devious ... but stored, controlled power is released for the sweetening, the edifying, the enlightening of the land.

"So with this campus ... wandering lives gathered here ... brief time of strength gathering ... then channelled for high service to a world in need.

"Kids in green 'beanies' marked '34 add dignity to State offices in '57 ... Editors, School Superintendents, Doctors, Preachers, Presidents, Missionaries ... lines of strength go out ... God's nobility ... providentially gathered, providentially trained, providentially sent forth."

will Houghton be expected in the late '60's?

Alumni of '57:

YOU HAVE BECOME a part of that family group — grads of Houghton who have helped to make possible your own education.

NOW YOU CAN SHARE in making college a reality for others by carrying on the traditional, student-sponsored, Student Foundation Plan.

TODAY THERE IS A SPECIAL NEED for down-to-earth backing of Houghton's development program. You have felt some of the pinch caused by the expanding student body. This growth is expected to take an even sharper upward trend with the passing years.

WILL YOU HELP to make Houghton ready for others by participating in the Student Foundation Plan?

I hope you had a "bit" since I've known you this semester. Honest - you are the craziest gal - a big tease, jive & more fun! Remember our many excursions & the Fri. night
 "me" went for a walk down by the creek!

I hope next year we'll have many more happy experiences together. We may make our first million on my car
 next year!!! - Or we may

*The Sybil, should have addressed you
 as "Strutler". This year had been a lot of fun becoming acquainted with you I want to say that you made a very good impression on me when I played the piano with you.
 I be forgetting me, I want you to have this book and
 "put it right here".
 Lord bless your

Nate Scharff

The eyes of the world are focused on Israel

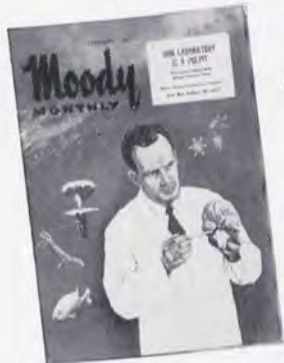

The coming of the Lord draweth nigh and the day of opportunity for Israel is now. Some 12 millions of precious souls in the field of Jewish Evangelism are without a born again experience, without hope, and only a few to tell the story. To these, God's chosen ones, we owe a debt.

What have you done for the Jew?
 Lamentations 1:12

"Pray for the peace of my people — that they might know Him, the Prince of Peace."

NATE SCHARFF, Director of Jewish Evangelism — Wesleyan Methodist Church of America

General Secretary of the Hebrew Christian Alliance of America

 their God . . .

Man. 2.2. 1957

Hi Silo,
Well, this is
it. A few more minutes and we have wrapped up one big class for this semester.
It certainly has been a wild ball, hasn't it. Gals, am I ever a good you sit next to me. I'd look awfully stupid handing in a blank paper every day.
I will never for get your great sense of humor, this smile, and your love for God all wrapped into one.
It certainly makes anyone feel good just to be around you. Keep it up, ace. You'll never be wrong.
Yours in Christ,
Jerry

Dear "Sgt."

Well, how is it in middle you you in our college lives. How are you getting along? But, that's your business just like "chucked" just yr lot of good times & fun. Did you forget all that.

It was too long past morning with you & your putting up with all my faults & "dances" & leave your name. I am hope all has been forgiven because it was all in fun. You have <sup>been</sup> such wonderful & did always remember you & your promising possibilities coming along.

Did you ever see the 5 that you brought for all the food you always brought with you & also all the pictures in her book. It was one nice of you & I have all the "pictures" up to you know for a week. And also when we three compared our up there too. That was sweet of you. You better know how I feel. That's for you & me because you & I were together.

I am not sure if you will meet you next year, but I am hope you & my "brother" or OK? That was what you & I put that night in the door for me & you. You know? Well, making you the best of everything. Remember it, all, but I will be with you & I will hope all will not for you too. Love always,
I still love you
