Parade, Coronation, Dedication

by Patricia Uleskey

Festivities of Homecoming weekend climaxed with the Homecoming parade, coronation of the king and queen, and the dedication of the sculpture on Oct. 11, 1986.

During the parade, the four judges selected the Sophomore class float, its theme being, Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs for first place. The Sleeping Beauty float, created by the Juniors, won second place. The Seniors Peter Pan float captured third place. Buffalo campus' Cinderella float was judged in fourth place and Pinocchio's freshmen float brought up the rear with fifth place.

Four attendants rode on each class float. Freshmen attendants were Karen Hervold, Mike Everett, Jon Ackerman, and Barb Henderson. Attendants on the Buffalo Campus float were Steven Dickerson, Dave Miriam, Nichol Smith, and Kathy Nobel. Sophomore attendants were Don Purdie, Amy Anderson, Bill Allen, and Stacie Schrader. Junior attendants were Lee Scharschmidt, Laura Grim, Becky

Jones, and Kirk Lederhaus. Senior attendants were Heidi Piper dressed as Cinderella escorted by Dave Omdal and Melinda Wood dressed as Snow White escorted by Richard Wright. The Homecoming king and queen of 1986 were Tim Valdez and Joyce Baly. In her interview with The Star Joyce remarked, "I'm honored, it's fun, and I'm really glad Tim's escorting me." She also remarked, "I just want to thank everyone, especially the Senior class. During her reign as Homecoming queen she said, "I plan to attend all the events and look beautiful."

The crowd moved from the regal coronation to the somber dedication of the eagle sculpture outside the Campus Center. President Chamberlain presided over the ceremony and unveiled a plaque which explains its significance. On the plaque, the Class of 1982's verse reads, "They shall mount up with wings as eagles," in memory of Beth Andes, Alan Bushhart, Gary Anderson, Joy Ellis, Cynthia Rudes, and Albert Rapp.
