Arnold Cook

BOULDER 1984

Houghton College

Houghton, N.Y.

Volume 61

It is highly unusual to put the dedication of a yearbook in the Table of Contents, and yet the dedication explains the theme of the book, as well as my own personal philosophy about what it is we're doing. I feel that putting together a yearbook, capturing the faces and events we all want to remember, and doing it to the best of our ability is a Christian service that is important on this campus. Since I feel personally that the production of this Boulder is my form of outreach, it can only be dedicated to God, the One worthy of our service, the One who has been in control of this book from our first staff meeting until the day the book is distributed.

Anything that is dedicated to God should show His attributes, which is why the theme of the 1984 Boulder is the fruit of the Spirit, which is our way to serve each other, as well as serve our God.

Laurie Palmer,
Editor

"But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law."

Galatians 5:22,23

Love divine,
all loves excelling,
Joy of heaven,
to earth come down,

Fix in us Thy humble dwelling,
All Thy faithful
mercies crown.

Jesus, Thou art
all compassion,
Pure, unbounded
love Thou art;
Visit us with
Thy salvation;
Enter every trembling heart.

Come, almighty to deliver,
Let us all
Thy life receive;
Suddenly return,
and never,
Never more
Thy temples leave.

Thee we would be always blessing,
Serve Thee as
Thy hosts above,
Pray, and praise Thee
without ceasing,
Glory in
Thy perfect love.

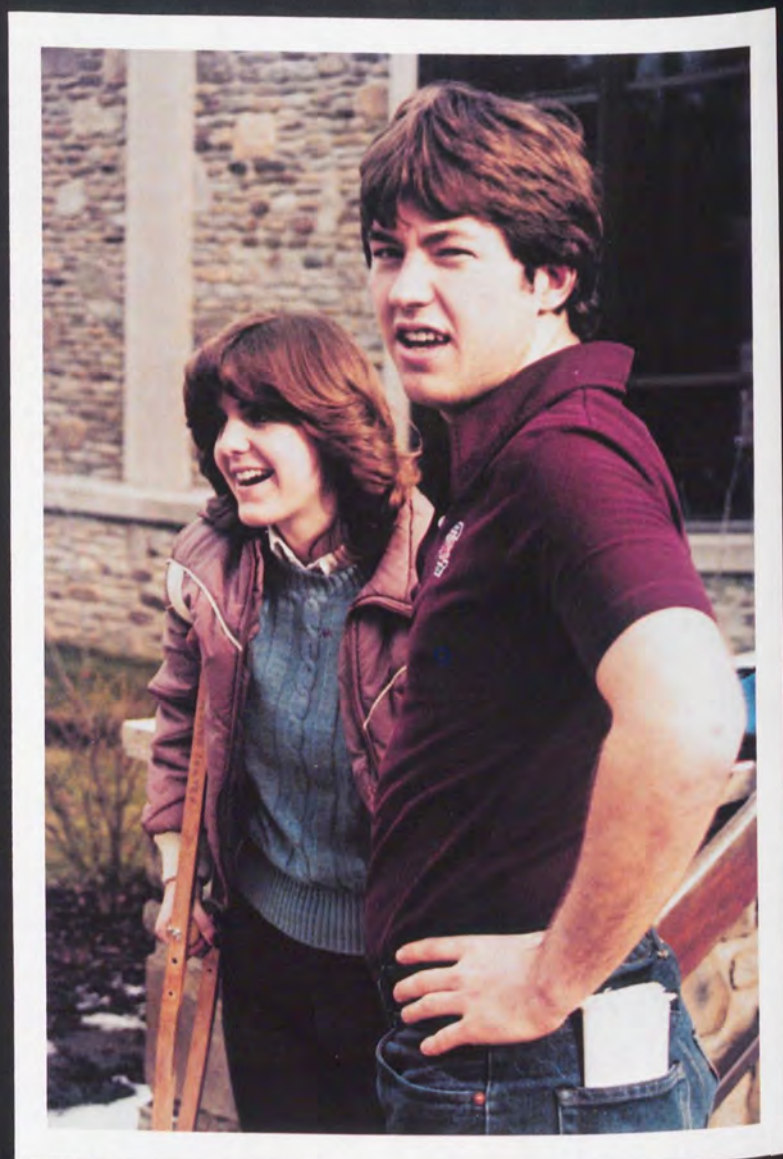

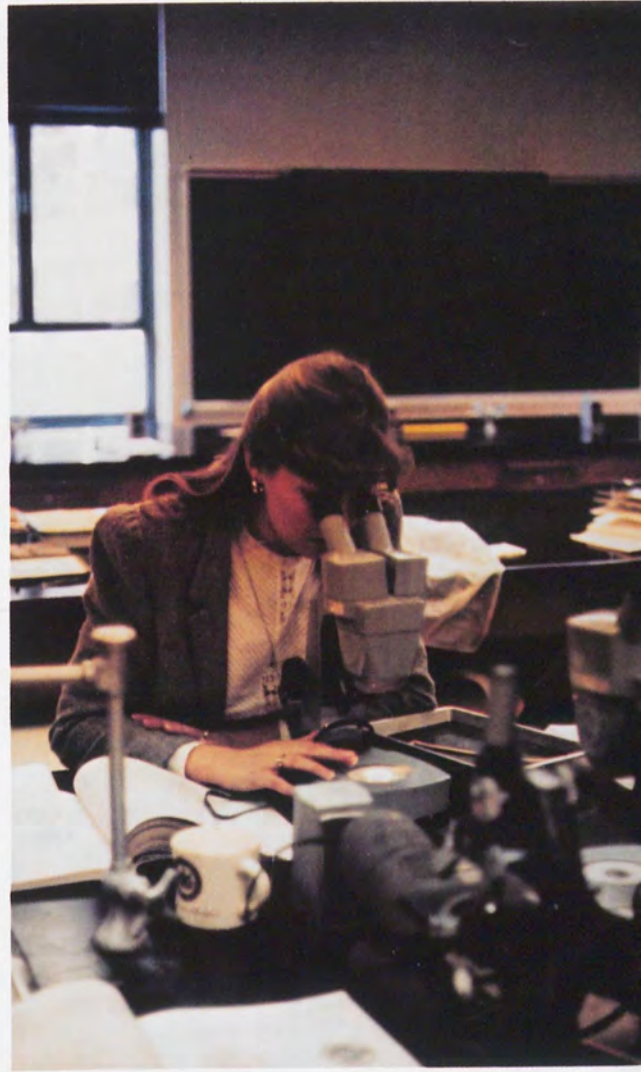

SPECIAL THANKS TO: MR. ARNOLD COOK

It's hard to find the right words to adequately express our thanks and appreciation to Mr. Arnold Cook for his contributions to the 1984 Boulder. He has been more than an advisor, he has been an understanding, concerned, extremely helpful friend. He has been our financial advisor, our photographer, our "errand boy" and the kind of professor who would give a frantic editor an extension on an exam that fell on a deadline date. We are especially grateful that we were able to benefit from Mr. Cook's experience before he resigned as Boulder advisor, and wish next year's staff luck in trying to replace this fine man. Thank you, Mr. Cook, from the bottom of our hearts!

ACTIVITIES

PEACE

“Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace . . .”

Romans 14:19

Maurice Suttono

Founders' Day

Founders' Day took its usual lead in the Homecoming activities, with Dr. Marion Birch speaking in the 1983 convocation.

Homecoming 1983

"A Little Bit Country" was the theme of the Centennial Homecoming celebration, and events for the weekend included an Artist Series with the Buffalo Guitar Quartet, a bonfire/pep rally, the annual parade around campus, a Senate Spot and movie, a soccer game against Canisius and the crowning of Homecoming Queen Carolyn Badura by Grand Marshal Dr. Hugh Paine. In keeping with the theme, there was also a greased pig catching contest, a pie-eating contest and a tug of war between the classes.

Halloween Party

Halloween was a major holiday this year, with a costume party at dinner that included cops and robbers, smurfs, oversized babies and a wide assortment of other imaginative costumes that were paraded before the judges. The winner — a clever likeness of the muppet Beaker.

Senate Spots

▲ Otis Day and the Knights, back by popular demand, singing their hit, "Shout!"

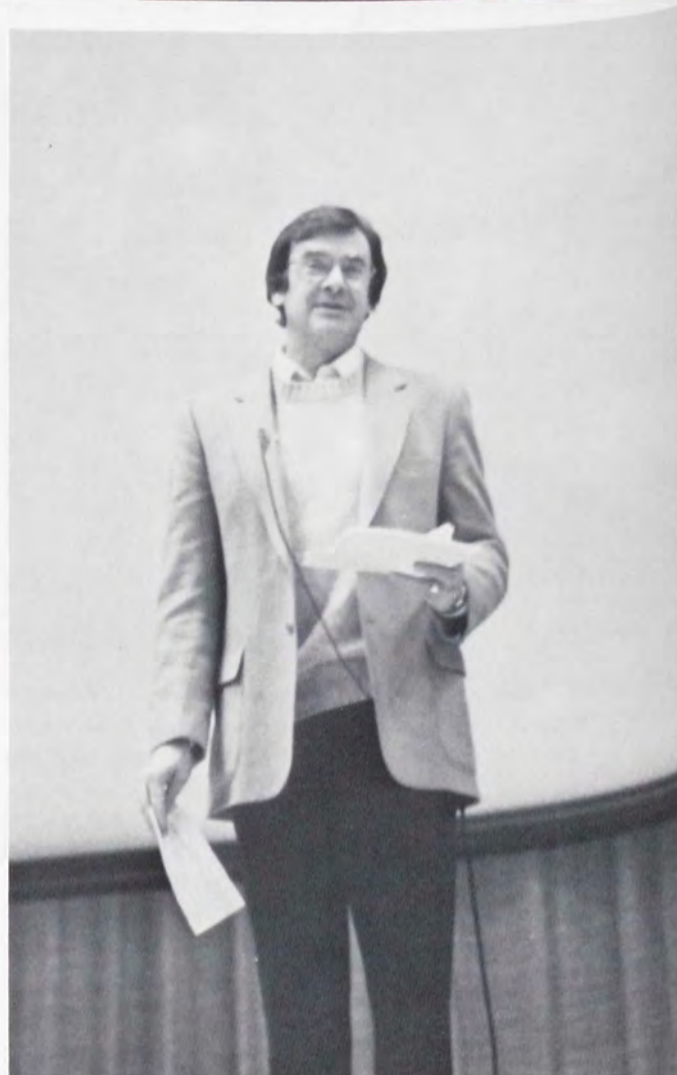

Senate Spots — a good way to have some inexpensive (free) entertainment on an otherwise boring weekend. Also a good way to get up on stage and share a meaningful song or a funny skit with the audience. Talent was not monopolized by the students, as faculty and staff also participated in the fun. This year was somewhat lacking in the number of Spots given, but those that we had were well participated in and enjoyed.

C.L.E.W.

This year's Christian Life Emphasis Weeks brought two very well-educated and diverse speakers to Houghton. First semester's speaker was Dr. Anthony Campolo, head of the Sociology department at Eastern College. Dr. Stanley Walters, from Knox College, a part of the University of Toronto, and professor of Old Testament theology was the speaker for second semester.

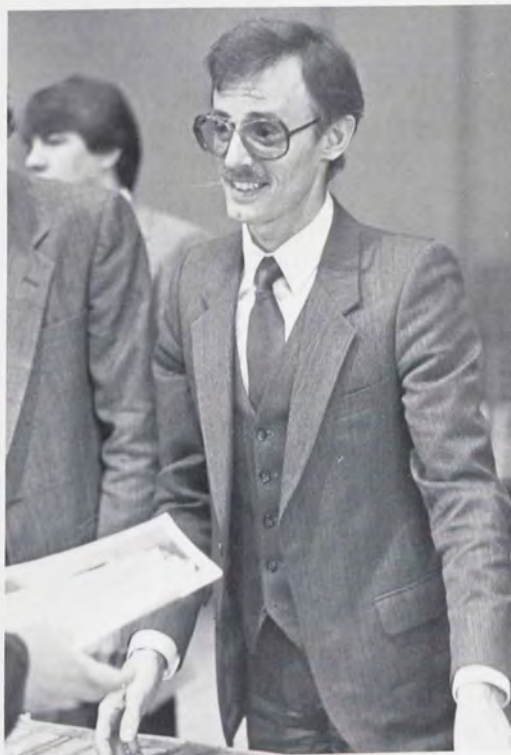

▲ Drs. Campolo and Walters each use different methods to emphasize a point in C.L.E.W. meetings.

Current Issues Day

Letha Scanzoni and Colin Cook talk with people after their lectures.

The topic for Current Issues Day, "Homosexuality: An Evangelical Response" produced a wide turn-out of students and faculty to hear the three speakers, Letha Dawson Scanzoni, Colin Cook, and Dr. Roger Sider discuss topics dealing with homosexuality in the Church, recovery for homosexuals and the ethics of therapy in dealing with homosexuals.

▲ Steve Strong addresses a question to the speakers.

Winter Weekend

► Snow King Rick Vienne and escort Nancy Haven enjoy their meal.

▼ Seniors had the difficult task of forming the 1 in the 1984 picture on the quad.

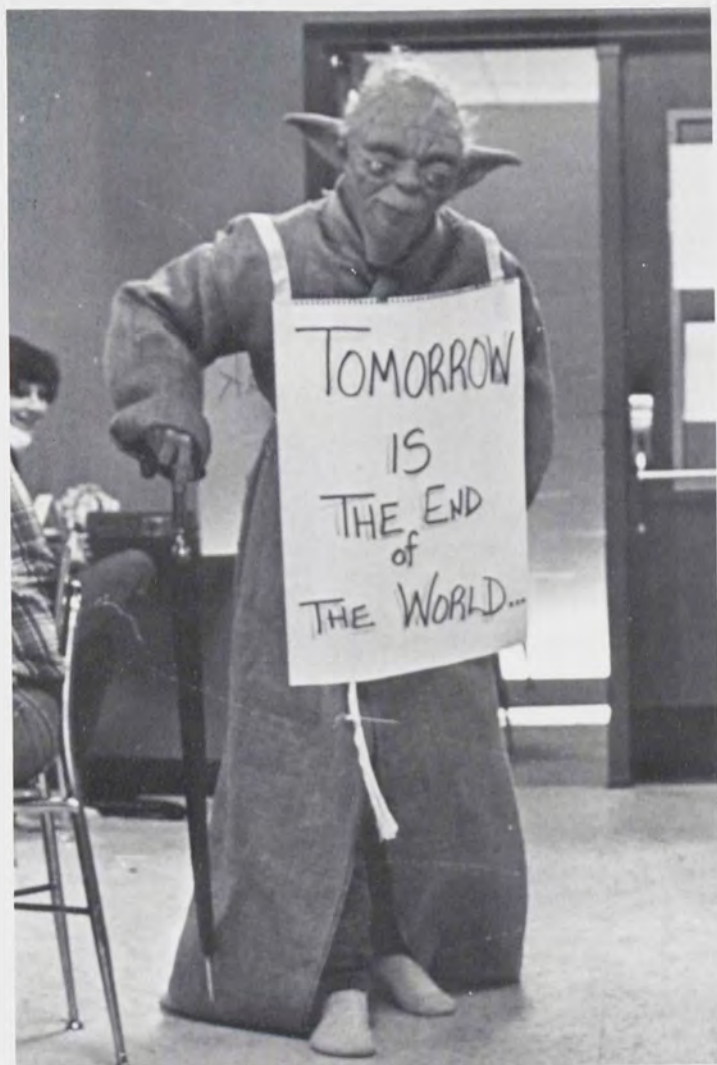

► Perkins et. al. proudly display their snow sculpture.

▼ Enthusiasm runs high at the basketball game against Roberts Wesleyan.

▲ Yoda's doomsday message . . .

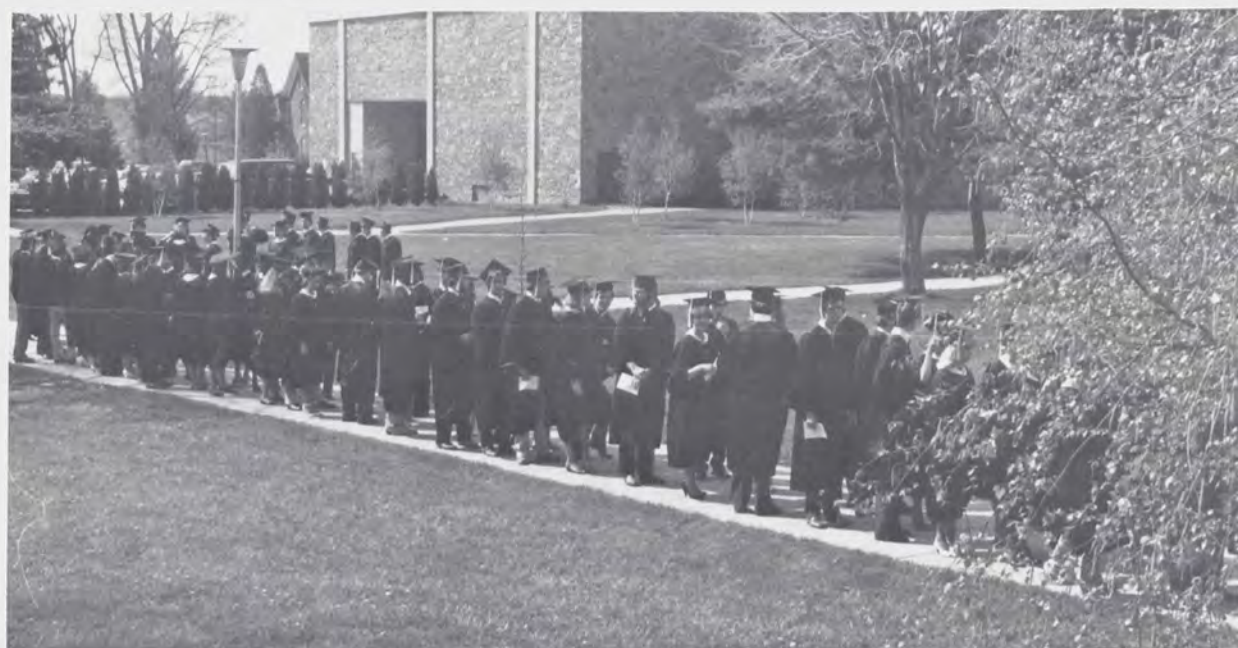

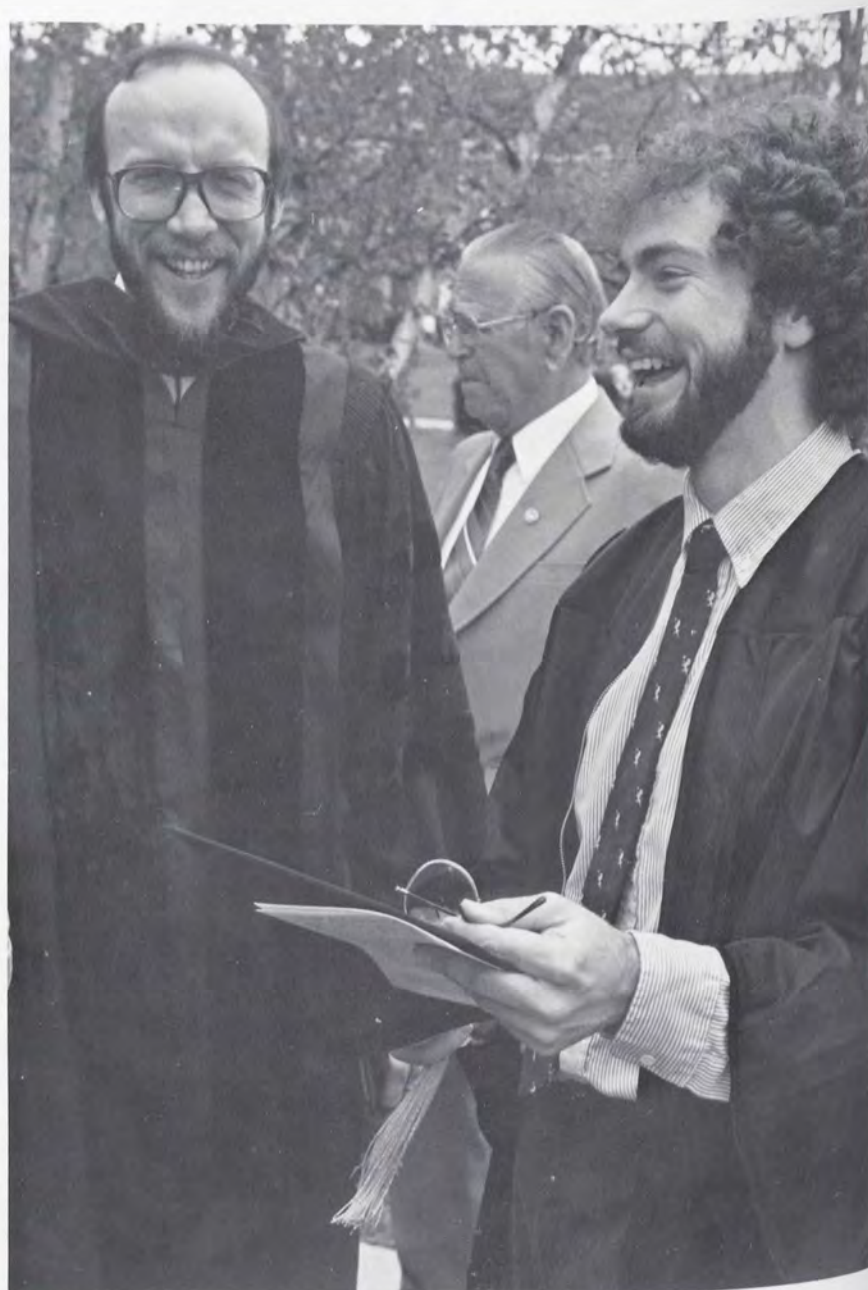

This year's Winter Weekend theme was taken from George Orwell and Stanley Kubrick — "1984: A Space Odyssey." The events of the weekend included a dog-sled race, a cross-country ski race, a snow sculpture contest, the movie "Star Trek II," and a midnight breakfast. Dean Danner's grim visage was seen in numerous spots around campus, serving as a reminder that Big Brother was watching, and the thought police patrolled the midnight breakfast, hauling away those accused of thought crimes. The student body cooperated in forming the 1984 on the quad that can be seen on the inside front and back endleaves of the book. The weekend culminated in the crowning of the Snow King, Senior Rick Vienne.

. . . and Study Breaks!

The Merchant of Venice

Cast:

The Merchant of Venice brought Shakespeare to Houghton in a lively and well-received fashion last fall, as over twenty students participated, under the direction of Lionel Basney, to produce the comedy. Shirley Gray assisted Basney, who himself played Shylock. The plot interwove young lovers, borrowed money, a greedy Jewish money-lender, a trial, typical Shakespearean false facades, and, of course, a happy ending. Three sold-out performances seemed to indicate the Bard's long-lasting popularity and the talent with which the play was performed.

The Fantasticks

Director Shirley Gray and actors Jaynn Tobias, Ned Farnsworth, Sandy Wilson, Chris Henry, Ken Tryon, David Strand, Allen Helbig and Sue Krischan brought the ever-popular The Fantasticks to the Houghton stage in February in a typical boy meets, wins, loses and wins back girl plot that was fun for the actors and audience alike.

▲ Matt and Luisa (Chris Henry and Sandy Wilson) talk to each other through the wall their parents built to keep them apart.

ARMS and the MAN

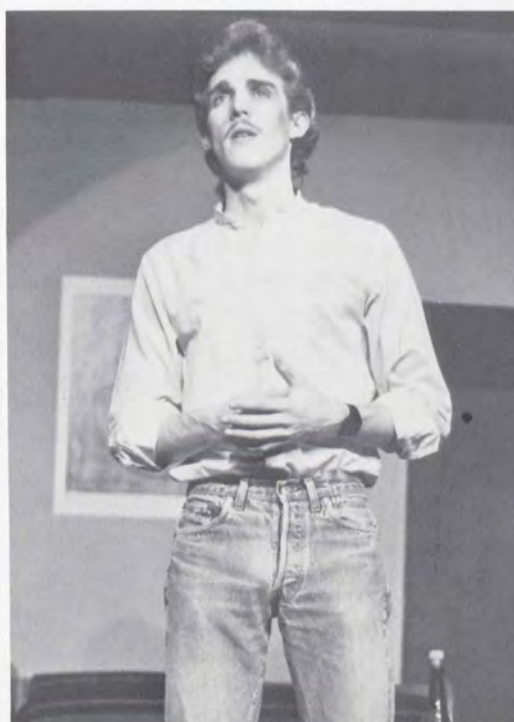

Led by Bruce Brenneman, the cast of Melody Sellers, Jamie Mullen, Sylvia Greenway, Rod Hutton, Norm Jones, Vivica Roth and Tom Britton performed George Bernard Shaw's play about a Bulgarian family and the Swiss mercenary that disrupts their lives by seeking refuge in their house during the war between Bulgaria and the Serbs in Austria.

The Shadow Box

Michael Cristofers's "The Shadow Box" was directed by David Shoemaker and performed by the English Expression Club on April 5-7. This intense drama centered around three terminally ill people — Joe, a husband and father, Felicity, a senile elderly mother, and Brian, an aspiring yet unsuccessful writer — all who were living out their days in a hospital-outpatient facility for terminal cases.

Dealing with the intense emotions involved with the entire concept of death and dying, the acting and expert directing culminated in a compelling and thought-provoking theatrical success.

Cast:

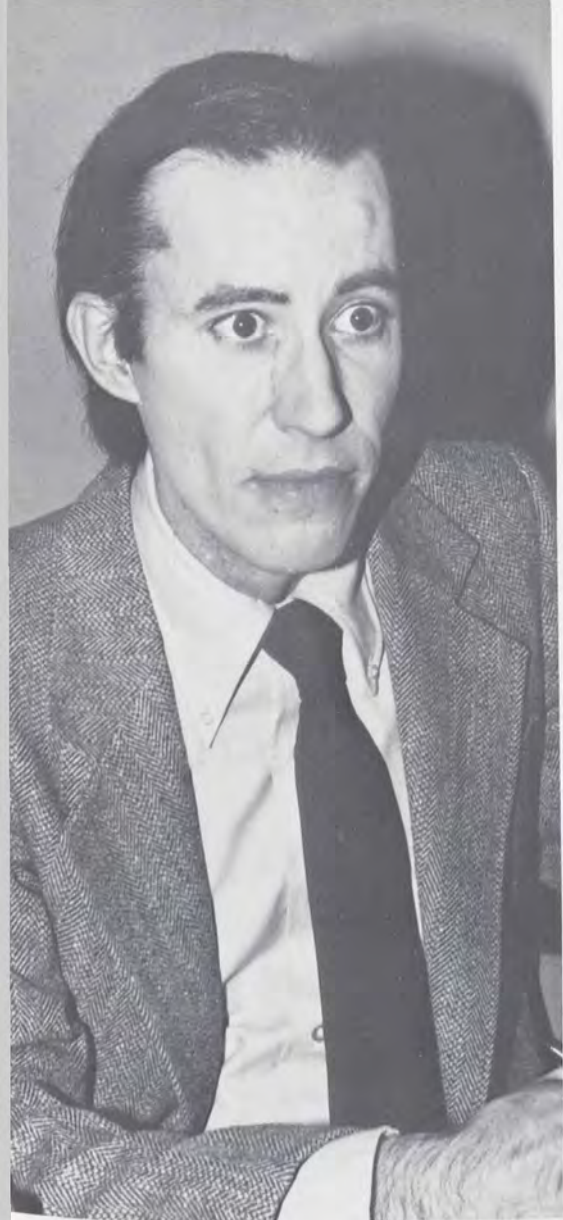

Joe: Craig Henry
Maggie: Ramona Ranalli
Steve: Allen Helbig

Brian: David Shoemaker
Beverly: Virginia McCaffrey
Mark: Bryan Vosseler

Felicity: Leisa Burhans
Agnes: Barb Baker

The Interviewer: Dr. Lionel Basney

Co-Director: Jaynn Tobias

Opera

The Houghton College 1984 Opera Workshop presented renditions of The Old Maid and The Thief, The Marriage of Figaro, Così Fan Tutte, and Hansel and Gretel, on Saturday, April 7. The scenes of these major operas were performed in English and were fully staged and costumed.

The talented singers and accompanists included Denise Brown, Ria Burke, Joan Kirchner, Andy Leverenz, Kathy Merrill, Mark Knox, Doug Allen, Chris Henry, Mary Putney, Kevin Schmidt, Angela Kinney, Craig Dennison, Brian Chilton, Steve Mitchell, Frances Edwards, Kathy Dennison, Rachel Mann, Celeste Wagner and Jeff Cox.

Opera workshop Director Jean Reigles was correct in believing that the different styles presented would be enjoyable to the audience, who seemed to be entertained by a Night At The Opera.

Men's Soccer

Men's soccer got off to a promising start after winning the Elizabethtown tournament and finished off the season with a 7-5-4 record. After qualifying for the NAIA district play-offs at The Kings College, the Highlanders were defeated 2-0 in their first match by top seeded Dominican.

Unity between the players and coach was perhaps the brightest spot in an often times difficult season, and was expressed by a Christian attitude both on and off the field. Honored this season was Junior Dan Ortlip, who once again was chosen to the NAIA All-American team and the New York State second team position.

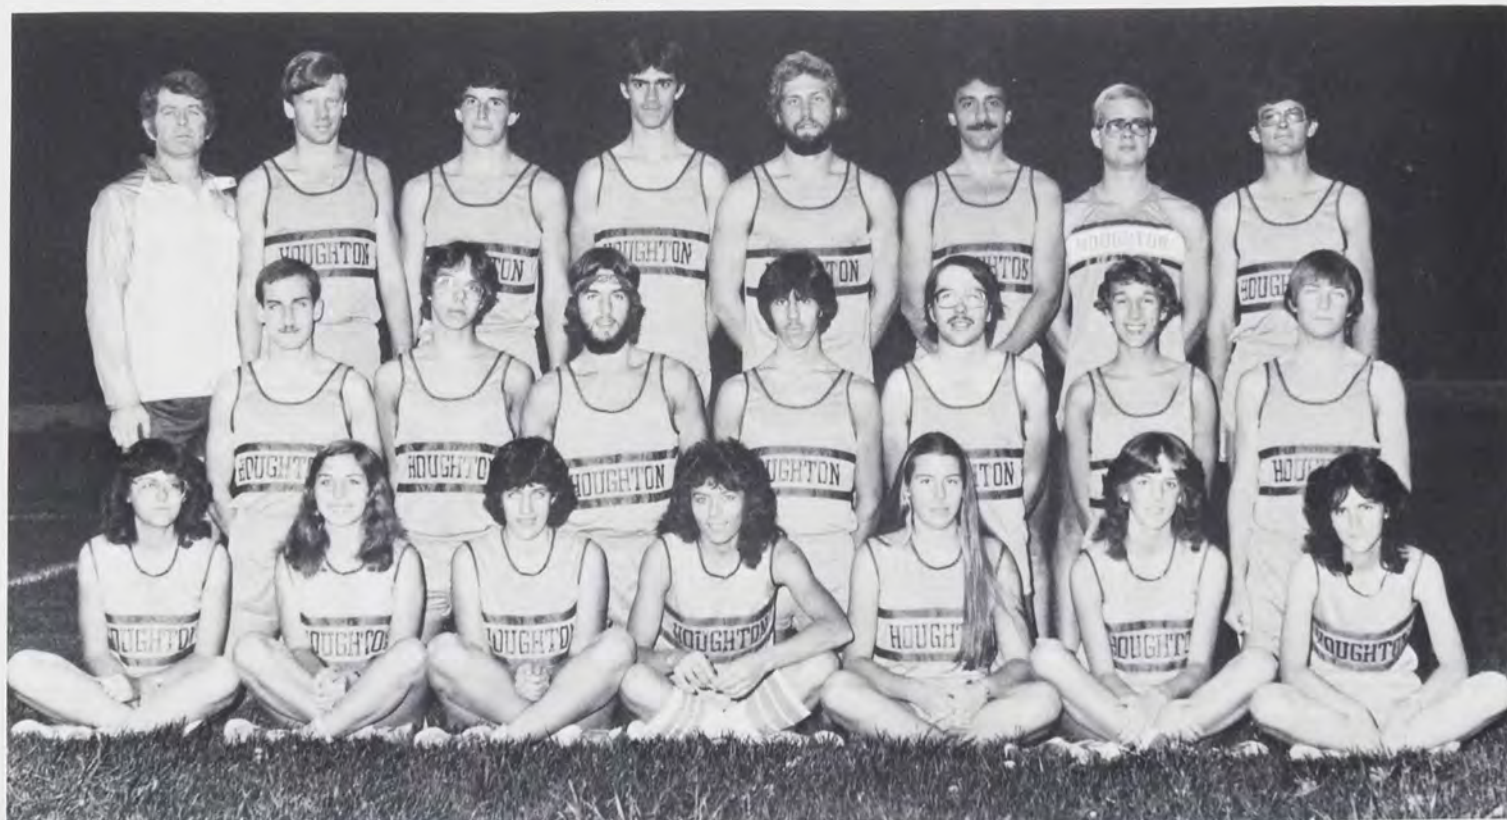

Hopes are high for the '84 season as the majority of the club returns for a promising season.

"To speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, showing all meekness unto all men."
—Titus 3:2

Cross Country

Although this year's Cross Country team was a young one, it was also the largest that Houghton has had in the past few years, and the runners' enthusiasm and hard work made up for their lack of experience on the intercollegiate level.

Led by NCCAA Cross Country Coach of the Year Gene Ayers, both the men's and the women's teams took first place in the NCCAA district meet at Roberts Wesleyan College. The men's team went on to take eighth place in a 22-team field at the NCCAA national meet, held in Cedarville, Ohio, while the women's team opted not to go.

Both teams also ran well in the NAIA districts at Bard College, placing third in a competitive field of runners. They completed the season with a 2-2 record and are looking forward to continued improvement in the 1984 season.

Women's Soccer

The 1983 soccer season marked an exciting one for the Lady Highlanders. While still young in the intercollegiate level, the women continued to surprise opponents with their skilled play.

Though the regular season record reads 4-7-1, captains Paula Maxwell and Noel Fleming led the team to victories for the Lord which cannot be expressed by numbers. While on the field, as encouragement and reminder, the women held outstretched arms in the air pointed Heavenward so all could unitedly remember who they were playing for.

Coached by Bob Smalley, the Highlanders netted 21 goals in actual games and 13 goals in scrimmages.

Field Hockey

With only four starters back from 1982's team, this was a rebuilding year for the women's field hockey team. Lead by co-captains Michele Staley and Lynne Ross, the young team finished the 1983 season with a 2-12-1 record.

Highlights of the season included a road trip to Canada, where the team played its best matches of the season and the NCCAA District II field hockey tournament at Eastern College. The season was topped off when senior Lynne Ross was named the tournament's outstanding defensive player. With most of the players returning for next season, the future looks bright for the Highlanders.

"Humble yourselves before the Lord and he will exalt you."

—James 4:10

Men's Basketball

The 1983-84 Houghton Varsity Basketball team combatted the loss of two key players from the '82-'83 squad by utilizing the talents of younger, less experienced players, into a team patient and disciplined enough to carry out the game strategy necessary to win. The Highlanders completed the regular season with a 14-14 record, including victories over NCAA division powerhouses Manhattanville and the University of Buffalo.

The Highlanders were led by the shooting accuracy of junior Jeff Anspach and senior Rick Otis, Jeff making the honorary 1000 point club. The ball handling capabilities of senior Bruce Makin gave the Highlanders a distinct advantage over opponents in pressure situations, and also earned him the record for most assists in a single season. Both Otis and Makin will be missed in the basketball program next season.

Women's Basketball

The women's Varsity basketball team had a tough season this year, and new coach Bob Smalley had his work cut out for him with a schedule that included U.B., Buff. State and Nazareth. What Houghton lacked in height they made up for in speed. Forwards, freshman Linda Hess, sophomore Patty Ryan, and junior Jackie Woodside were responsible for controlling the boards and contributing consistently to Houghton's scoring drive. Senior Carol Wyatt and sophomore Lisa Starks provided quickness and outside shooting ability. Losing only one player next year, the ladies will be looking forward to a stronger season with many talented and experienced returning players, along with new prospects.

Volleyball

"Therefore do not throw away your confidence, which has great reward. For you have need of endurance so that you may do the will of God and receive what is promised."

—Hebrews 10:35-6

This year the women's volleyball team finished a winning season with a record of 19-10. First year coach Wendy Jacobson and captains Sylvia Sprowl and Cindy Brenner lead the team with a spirit of encouragement that became evident to fans and opposing teams. Spirit and unity were key factors in victories over strong teams.

Hosting the NCCAA District tournament was the highlight of the season. The Lady Highlanders swept the tournament and became district champions. This title earned the team the right to compete in the NCCAA Nationals in Chicago, Ill.

NCCAA District II Champions

Baseball

The 1984 Baseball season might have found better weather in Alaska. The Highlanders braved tornado conditions and freezing temperatures, but through it all managed a 4-9 record. Despite the lack of outdoor practice before their first three games, and no spring trip, the team played well.

The Highlanders are losing only two players, co-captains Rick Otis and Ed Wing. Among the returning players will be Joel Steindel, MVP for the season, and Carl Holmes, 1983 MVP. With most of the team returning, Coach Tom Kettlekamp will have a lot to work with to put together a winning season next year.

Track & Field

Row 1 Gloria Mosher, Mary McCullough, Laura Minard, Deb Jalovick, Kathy Wilmot, Mark Hillis, Julie Button, Miriam Hale. Row 2 Ella Chamberlain, Dave Riether (Capt.), Gene Ayers (Coach), Shawn Skeele, Dave Horton, Chuck Budney, Paul Allen, Blair Blakeslee, Charles Beach. Row 3 Ron Duttweiler, John Monroe, Wes Dunham, Tim Frenz, Tedd Rothfus, Jan Sperl, Eric Pendleton.

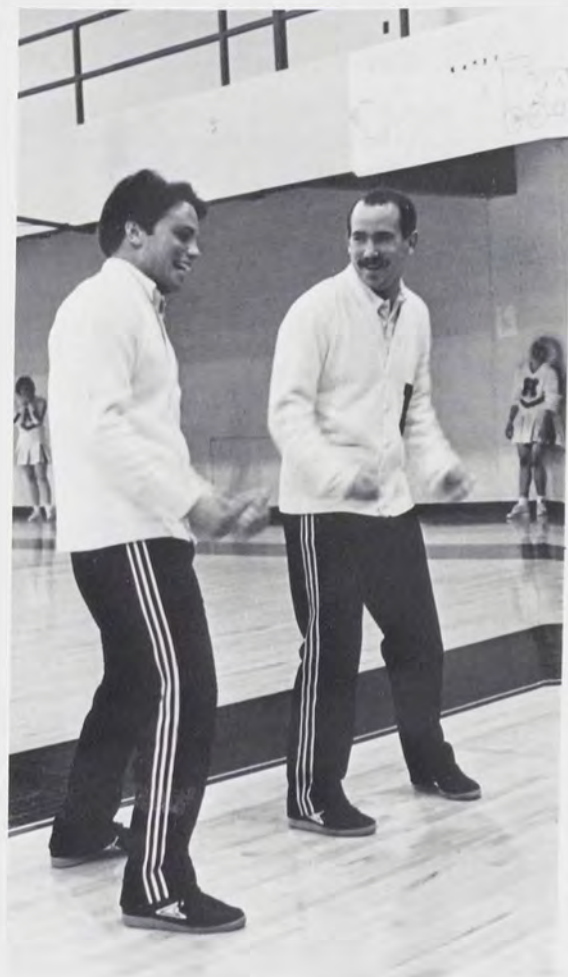

The track team nearly tripled in size from just a year ago, and the performances turned in reflected a qualitative increase as well. The women's team smashed six school records. Gloria Mosher and Mary McCullough set new records, and two new relay records were set. Although the men's team set no records, many outstanding performers shone. The men's team was led in scoring by hurdler David Riether, also the sprinting coach for the team. Eleven members qualified for NCCAA Nationals this year: Gloria Mosher, Mary McCullough, Mimi Hale, Julie Button, Paul Allen, John Monroe, Dave Riether, Wes Dunham, Ron Duttweiler, Shawn Skeelee and Mark Hillis.

Cheerleaders

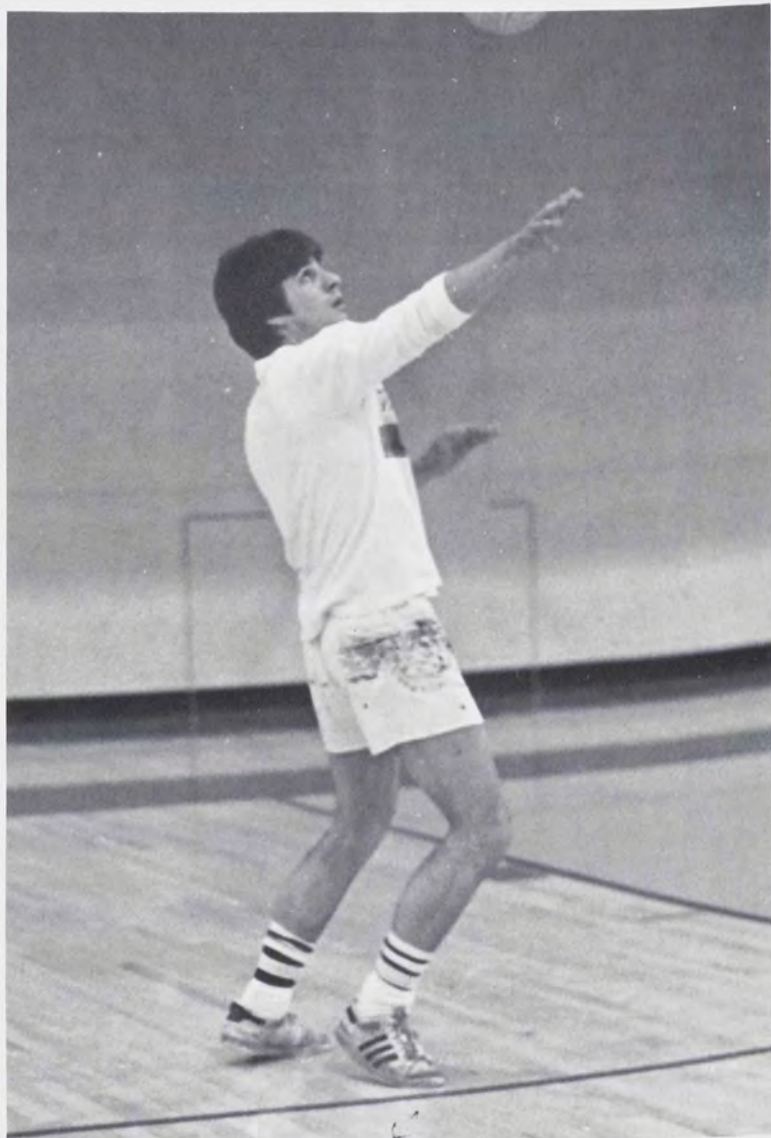

Two new arrivals to the Houghton cheerleading squad this year were Chris Dempsey and Steve Durgo, who were valuable in contributing their strength to the team and their humor to the spectators. A tight-knit group, practices were usually opened with a Bible study and prayer. Although cheerleading is not a sport with a win-loss record, it is a valuable sport and contributed much to both the men's soccer and basketball teams.

Row 1: Kathy Weaver, Kim Donner Row 2: Belinda Mason, Kim Menichetti (captain), Joanna Lewis, Darice Beardsley Row 3: Julie Button, Chris Dempsey, Steve Durgo, Kim Hendricks

Intramurals

Intramurals are designed to provide students with the opportunity to play a number of non-varsity sports. Such sports include floor-hockey, indoor soccer, volleyball, basketball and water polo. The popularity of the intramurals program proves that athletics can be enjoyed by anyone with a few hours to spare.

Queen Elizabeth (Kathy Dennison) and her consort, the Lord of His Rule, (Mark Knox) entertained the Houghton College Community with their annual Yule Tide greetings during this year's Madrigal Dinners. Under the direction of B. Jean Reigles, the Chamber Singers brought songs of barn yard animals to life adding special fun and frolic to the Christmas season. Songs proclaiming the birth of our Lord Jesus climaxed the night bringing the joy of the Christmas celebration closer to those present.

—Colossians 2:21

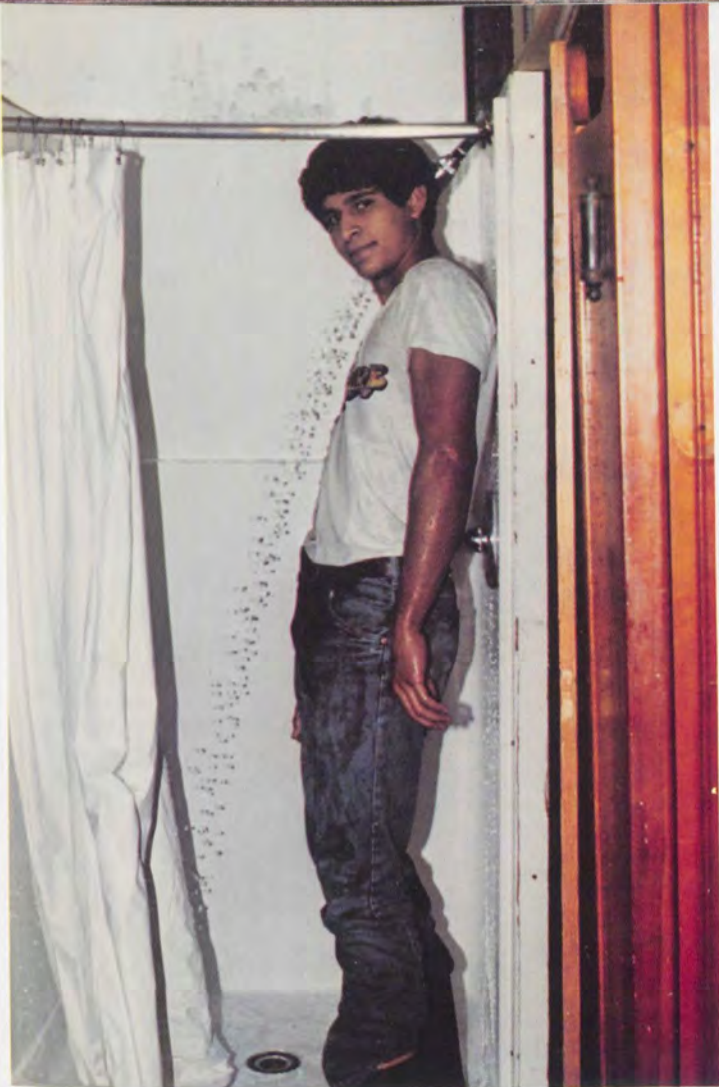

Joel Hecht

Special thank-you's to:

Hope Kunkle, John Krytus, Rob Holz, Tim Byers, Don Haingray, Haruyo Kondo, Andy Nelson, Laurie Boseck, Joey Jennings, Eric Dohner and Beth Markell—for snapping and printing some great shots!

Ron Kerr, Beth Markell, Vicki DeFilippo, Kim Hendricks, Crystal Climenhaga, Lynne Ross, Noel Fleming, Laurie Spinelli, Jon Barnett, Pete Roman and Dave Shoemaker—for the copy you provided to help us remember what the pictures were of.

Joeli G., Bill, Bob and "Rich" Wichterman, Karen Shuey, DeeDee and Becky, Wendy (K. and H.), Kim and the rest of my great staff—for help, for entertainment, and for friendship when things were rough and even when they weren't.

Sylvie (and Ron)—for service above and beyond the call of duty. "You're marvelous!!!"

Mr. Sloane—All I can say to you is thanks for everything.
