2002 Boulder Dedication

Cindy and Mike Lastoria are two of the most giving people I have met at Houghton over the past four years and probably ever will in my life!

Cindy is constantly working to assist in any support needed on The Boulder's computers and even saved some page layouts that I neglected to save before getting the computers reimaged. She has taken a more behind the scenes role over the past 18 months since her promotion to the Shop from managing the Help Desk.

Mike, if you have the opportunity and privilege to get to know him, you'd understand why so many of his students and peers enjoy his company! His kindheartedness and great sense of humor keep those around him constantly amused. In addition to heading up the Counseling Center, Mike is a psychology professor who is known for his rigorous, but educational and enjoyable classes.

I have watched as Cindy and Mike constantly give up their time for students no matter the hour of day. They have given up their house to people who have been in desperate situations and do these acts in the most giving and caring manner.

They are the epitome of grace and have earned my deepest respect and gratitude.

For all you both do for Houghton, its environment, and the students, Mike and Cindy, we give you our most sincere thanks. For so many students, Houghton would not be the same without you both here! Thank you and good luck!

- Tom McIlroy

FOUNDERS' DAY

Homecoming Activities

This year's Homecoming demonstrated a continuation of Houghton tradition. At the Founder's Day Convocation, President Chamberlain was recognized for his 25 years of service to the college and presented with an honorary doctorate in Humane Letters. Friday's activities continued with sports events, an Artist Series and coronation.

Saturday began with an equestrian dressage competition and the traditional Homecoming parade, which was won by the senior class.

Wild Wild West

The day continued with sports events, including the Alumni soccer and field hockey games. The evening consisted of the students' formal banquet and the traditional closing to Homecoming Weekend, Spot.

"Now I wake up dreaming
I hear that plane fly overhead
I visit the runway in my dreams
This fitful circle of dreaming, sleeping, waking; How do I escape? I'm waking into the runway that I dread; This dream I'm having; If I could wake up and get out of bed; I see that plane take off out on the runway; down on

Oh, but I'm dreaming; Where do I

Kyle Bowman

Kyle,
You have grown in wisdom and she has rewarded you; use judgement and discernment and they have protected you; grown in understanding and it has guarded your heart. And now, as you graduate, make level paths for your feet, only take those that are firm, keep your feet from evil. Guard instruction, it is your life;
guard your heart, it's the wellspring of life.
Trust in the Lord with all your heart, lean on His understanding, acknowledge His sovereignty in all you do, and He will make your paths straight.

You are loved,
Dad, mom, Jordan, Nathan

The Boulder Staff

The boulder staff this year was bigger than I personally have seen (in my 4 years at Houghton). We had over 40 people working on the staff this year (at least that's how many signed up to help). Of course as schedules were increasingly busier, we lost a number of them to their work, but the fact that they were willing to try to fit it into their schedule says enough. I want to thank each of you for the work that you have put into this years book! Without your help, the editors would be so lost and I would be working on this book up through the end of the summer! I give you my deepest appreciation for the willingness to work on the Boulder.

I would like to thank everyone who's helped with the Boulder this year. Especially, I'd like to mention thanks to Roger Houck, who had really invested a lot of time the last few weeks of the year in doing a significant number of pages for us! Also thanks to Malinda Butler who did a lot throughout the year with both photography and misc. things that needed to be done (many tedious jobs). I'd like to thank Sarah for all her hard work throughout the last year and especially towards the end of the spring semester. Also, thanks to Seth Grebbien who helped even after graduation with the indexing for the entire book! Thanks to my Mom who's supported me through everything and Mom and Dad Taylor who've been a constant encouragement towards my entire school experience (beyond the yearbook). Of course, thanks to Michelle for putting up with another year of chaos and my limited schedule! I'm really looking forward to not having as much to do after this year! Without God's hand upon the entire staff, this book wouldn't be possible. Only by His Grace, have we been able to finish the book. He has truly showed His presents in our lives! I thank you and wish each of you all the best and luck in the future!

I would like to thank everyone on my staff and the other editors for the help they have given through out the year. Special thanks to Sarah for helping me to get tons of projects done and for all her encouragement. I have certainly learned a lot from the hard work the staff has put in this year that it takes a lot to make a yearbook. I hope that everyone in some way will enjoy the book and remember the special that they had at Houghton because of it. Congratulations to the Sarah, Tom, and Ellie! I hope that all goes well for you in the future, and that you will take away many memories from Houghton.

I appreciate the time I have had and the many experiences I have had, that I will always cherish at Houghton. It is known that it is the people that make Houghton special and unique. A lot of hard work and talent has gone into this book.

Tom, Sarah and Diane thanks for all of your hard work and commitment in helping us remembering all of our wonderful memories. Thank you Nancy for all of the help and support you were to me with making the process of putting the components of this book together. Bruce, you are a great source of encouragement and friend. Prof. Bates, by example, you have provided all of your students with the knowledge of how to achieve success, and gone beyond by connecting us to real life job experiences. All in God's strength.

Romans 12:12 "Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer."

"Some people come into our lives and quickly go. Some move our souls to dance. They awaken us to new understanding with the passing whisper of their wisdom, and make the sky more beautiful to gaze upon. Some people stay awhile, leave footprints on our hearts, and we are never, ever the same."

Title Page Caption and Thoughts

As I'm now graduated, over the past four years I have learned a significant amount of things including a greater understanding of our theme this year, surroundings.

Houghton College is surrounded by a number of physical things including local businesses, Letchworth State Park, etc. But in my experience, especially this year, I've realized how much and how often people such as myself take for granted the people surrounding them.

As I developed friendships these past four years with faculty, staff and peers, especially this year, I have realized how significant and essential these people are to a college experience.

The picture on the title page is of the Patti Slaughter's Spring semester's Initiatives class. As the class didn't know each other previously to taking the course together, Patti with the assistance of Nicki Hartwood brought a special kind of relationship upon us through using difficult tasks to foster each of our relationships.

As we progressed through the semester, I quickly realized how minimally I had interacted with many students here at Houghton for numerous reasons.

Meeting these people in Patti's class was probably my best wakeup call I have had in the past four years as to how easily Christians can lose focus of what is truly important.

So I challenge each of you to constantly be thinking what are my actions implying as to what I consider important.

May the Lord be with all of you,

Tom

This years Boulder started off with a bang! We had over 40 people sign up to help out at the Student Organizations Fair (thanks Lloyd Fleming!). As the year progressed, however, we did lose some people to sports and academics, but I must say there were a number of "die hards" who not only did the work assigned for them, but asked what else could be done as they started to see my head spinning the second semester. A few of these included Malinda Butler, Roger Houck and Lloyd Fleming. So thanks guys! Actually, as I'm writing this it's now close to a month after Graduation and we had sent in about 160 pages two weeks ago (thanks to Sarah Ewing and Seth Grebbien).

As I look back on my 4 years at Houghton, I realize how much I truly appreciate the strength and sincerity of its faculty and students. It seems to be a such an essential part of a collegiate experience is watching faculty in the institution where your studying and how they show Christ's love in their own actions. If only we could dedicate the yearbook to 15 people each year, then I think I could be content over the past 2 years on who has received it. We've really struggled with who should receive it, actually let me put it this way... We really struggled with who shouldn't receive it!

Thanks to all those who have shown Christ's Love, and I would encourage you to continue to make a conscious effort towards showing His love in a variety of situations and places.

e n d u r i n g FREEDOM

Tuesday, September 11, 2001, will be remembered as a tragic day that changed the world. That morning, a plot, masterminded by terrorist Osama bin Laden and the al-Qaeda network, was put into action. Two hijacked commercial airliners were flown into New York City's World Trade Center Towers, ultimately causing their collapse. Immediately following the incident, another hijacked airliner crashed into one side of the Pentagon in Washington, D.C., and a fourth plane crashed in Pennsylvania. Thousands of lives were lost, citizens were terrified and the world was in shock.

Following that mournful day the United States experienced anthrax scares, continued security threats and the reality of war. Despite the horror, fear and heartache, U.S. citizens united and their patriotic spirit soared. President Bush promised: "We will not tire, we will not falter, we will not fail." Through that statement and the remarkable sense of national pride exuded by U.S. citizens, it became evident that no threat, great or small, could deter the United States resolve for enduring freedom.
