As the potter molds the clay,
so is man's life molded

“And the vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter: so he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it . . . Behold, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are ye in my hand, saith the Lord.”

JEREMIAH 18:4-6.

Administration

"According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon. For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ."

I CORINTHIANS 3:10, 11.

A.M., Ph.D., LL.D.

God Working on Campus

Psalm 107 declares that "they who go down to the sea in ships" should praise God, for "these see the works of the Lord, and His wonders in the deep."

Young people in a Christian college, even more than "they who go down to the sea in ships," are spectators of God's works. In science classes they see the intricacies and magnitudes of His physical creation. In the areas of history, sociology, and psychology they note God's working with men as individuals and as groups. In sacred and secular letters they note what God has done and said.

Not only does the Christian student observe God's craftsmanship in creating man from the dust, but he learns that God would lift him as an individual from earth's "miry clay," in order to mould him into a "vessel unto honor." God works, and we are His workmanship.

Finally, the Christian student is trained not only in mind, but also in heart. Such a fitting prepares him for the glorious possibility of being a "laborer together with God," and like Christ, to "work the works of God."

It is commonly said that the Cyclotron has unlocked power for man's use hitherto undreamed, power for good but power, too, for destruction.

I wonder if today's fearful scientists might not do well to visit the campus of a Christ-centered college. There they would see at work a power far surpassing that which now threatens to destroy mankind. You and I have an experiential knowledge of it. That power is the piercing force that broke our once proud hearts to sorrow for sin. Shattering the old nature, it reconstructed the fragments of our personalities around a new center, even Christ Himself. It gave us new hope, new vision, new purpose. And even now it speeds us outward as ambassadors for Christ, trained to serve God and to bring others into the orbit of His love.

Members of the Class of '53, to you is given the greatest power of all—that of transmitting His nature to a world of men being driven by Satan into destroying themselves and all that is good. Esteem this a priceless privilege. Men are dying for want of that which is committed to you. Our prayers and our hopes will be with you always.

Arthur W. Lynip

Office of the Registrar

A cheerful skill long to be remembered characterizes the work of Miss Davison and her assistants. They faithfully record our academic progress and wisely advise our courses of study. From the day that we, as timid freshmen, register for our first courses, until the day that we receive our graduation diplomas, we are conscious of the quiet efficiency at work in the Registrar's office.

Willard G. Smith, A.M., Ph.D.
Treasurer and Business Manager

Heat — light — food — books — medicine — and countless other necessities for the life and vigor of the college are provided by the efforts of consecrated workers. The sincere diligence with which they labor to make our existence at Houghton enjoyable is as impressive a lesson as those we learn from books.

Public Relations

Houghton College does not exist in a vacuum, unmoved by public opinion and uninterested in extending her influence beyond the campus. These men are alert to every opportunity for proclaiming our faith in an omnipotent and loving Saviour, Whom all may find sufficient for every spiritual and temporal need.

Few students, if any, pass through Houghton without experiencing a helping hand from our deans. The encouragement they express and the interest they show in our various problems will leave an impression long after we depart from the immediate atmosphere of their influence.

Library

Abundant sources of information are available to us in our well-organized library. Miss Carrier and her assistants direct us to material which is essential for preparing those oral reports, term papers and book reviews which constitute an important part of our education.

“Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.”

II TIMOTHY 2:15

Richard Troutman, President; David Suetterlein, Vice President; Charlotte Owen, Secretary; Virgil Cruz, Treasurer.

Yesterday, it seemed as though this time would be the end of our dreams. Today we realize the youthfulness of our thinking. We see that this is but the beginning. We know not what the years may bring, but we do know that our years of living and working together will give us an advantage in stepping out into new ventures. We know that Houghton will ever remain dear in our hearts. The spiritual gains, the cultural life, the academic booster to our meager experiences—all will be remembered for their parts played in our life yesterday, today, and especially tomorrow.

We, the class of '53, hope you will remember us for class and school spirit, scholarship, sportsmanship; but most of all, we hope that you will remember that Christ was in all.

A list of the various prayer services held at Houghton each week would not tell the whole story. Scheduled prayer there surely is; and the effects of these united petitions are felt throughout the world. But who can tabulate the victories of individual hearts which have received the touch of God while quiet before Him in private prayer?

Each year outstanding students of our country are recognized in the publication Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. This recognition has been won by these members of the class of 1953. The selection was made by a committee of the deans of the college and elected representatives of the Student Senate.

Scholarship, school citizenship, and extra-curricular activities were the main factors in the choice of these honored seniors.

In this modern age, the twentieth century, scientists have thought about flying to Mars. Science has progressed as a continuous adventure; just so has our class of 1954 progressed in our adventure at Houghton, which began in 1950.

We are pleased that our progress has been spiritual as well as intellectual. Many of our spiritual gains have come to us through prayer meetings and extension work.

As adventurers of this modern age we have not forgotten extra-curricular activities, such as athletics, Junior-Senior banquet, class parties, and clubs. This year our adventure has been highlighted with the pleasure of producing the 1953 BOULDER.

We would not want to forget Richard Castor and the splendid work he did as leader of our class. We know that with God's help the coming days of our adventure will be most happy, since we are "Risen with Christ."

Throughout our sophomore year, we have worked and played together happily as a class. Sophomore class spirit was high for Bugs Bunny week, otherwise known as Frosh initiation, in spite of equinoctial and garden hose precipitation. Neither class reported any major tragedies. "Conquerors through Christ," the class motto, was the theme worked out on the Homecoming float, which won first prize for originality, a reward for many long hours of work.

The Maroon and Gray looked forward to some good basketball games. While the team kept things busy on the court, a pep band followed suit among the spectators. A well-planned Christmas party at the Recreation Hall was built around the theme of Rudolph, the red-nosed reindeer. The chaplains planned attractive programs for the class prayer meetings, which were times of real spiritual refreshing.

In academic, social, and spiritual life the Sophomores stood united as "Conquerors through Christ."

Education, we have been told, is largely a matter of adjustment. An adjustment it was when we freshmen moved from home to college for the first time, for we had to do for ourselves many things which loving parents had always done for us. An adjustment, too, we found it, to study for one class what seemed like a week's assignments.

But we have found the atmosphere provided by Christian teachers and fellow-students ideal for our educational, spiritual, and cultural progress. Looking back on a year at Houghton, we realize that a good foundation has been laid and that our future success in life will be determined by the manner in which we continue to build our lives on this foundation.

Organizations

“Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest.”
ECCLESIASTES 9:10.

Student Affairs Committee

Chairman, Coach Wells; Secretary, Dean Blake

This committee arranges the schedule for the various clubs and organizations for the scholastic year. They represent both the faculty and student body in dealing with requests and petitions of the students.

Cultural and Spiritual Life Committee

Chairman, Dr. Hall; Secretary, Miss Jackson

Seeking to provide a high level of cultural and spiritual atmosphere for the student body, this committee arranges for the Artist Series, Lecture Series, and chapel programs for the school year.

Student Senate

Student Body Officers

Secretary, Merle White; President, Wilbur Zike; Vice President, Richard Dunbar; Treasurer, Alfred Speirs

Elected representatives from each class make up the Student Senate, which functions as an important organization in providing for close cooperation between the student body and the administration of the college.

Debate

C. Makey, D. Tysinger, Dr. Hall, D. Seeland, C. Schultz

The Houghton College Debate Team is a charter member of the Western New York State Forensic League. Week-end trips are made during the school year to compete with other debate teams from schools such as Niagara University, St. Bonaventure, Geneva, Fredonia, and University of Buffalo.

President, J. Rollo; Vice President, T. Durr; Secretary, S. Haviland; Treasurer, R. Bender; Chaplain, T. Harris

A.P.O.

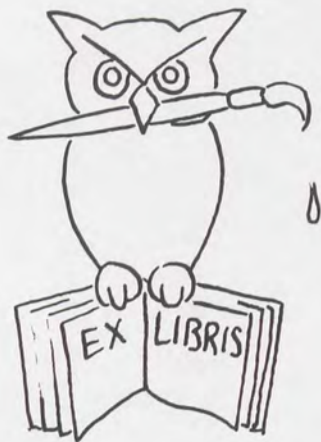

This is a campus service organization formed this year to assist the community and college in practical ways. The members also cooperate with groups such as the Red Cross, which seek the assistance of the College in various projects.

Student Publications

The editors and advisers of the student publications and the Vice President of the Student Senate are responsible for nominating candidates for the editorships of the Boulder, Star, and Lanthorn for the coming year. They are also concerned with the policies and supervision of these publications.

Each year, just before Christmas vacation, the annual Info makes its appearance. This handy booklet contains such information as the names and addresses of students, officers of the various campus organizations, and the calendar of school events for the current year.

Lanthorn

To encourage literary expression, the Lanthorn staff sponsors an annual contest open to all Houghton students. The prize-winning stories, essays, and poems are published in an attractive booklet each spring. Also contained in the Lanthorn is a variety of informative and entertaining material, which reflects the experiences and creative abilities of the authors, thus providing an important addition to the student publications of the college.

Missionary Conquest

Foreign Missions Fellowship

Sponsored by the Foreign Missions Fellowship, the annual Missionary Conquest focuses attention on the command of Christ to "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature" (Mark 16:15). A program of missionary speakers and films is arranged, as well as the excellent display of curios and literature in S-24. Problems pertaining to the call and life of the missionary are discussed in forums. Houghton students take an active interest in the FMF program, as evidenced especially in their support of seven missionaries in various parts of the world's great harvest field. It is not unusual during the missionary conquest for a student to receive the call of God to a life of consecrated service.

Torchbearers

Taking the Light of the World to those nearby is the chief ministry of the Torchbearers. Each Sunday afternoon, groups of students visit hospitals and homes in surrounding areas, personally presenting the message of hope and comfort which is most needed. The results are twofold: experience in Christian service for the Torchbearers and spiritual blessings for those whom they visit.

Spring and fall concerts by the College Band feature music by Sousa, Bach, Wagner, and Strauss. Students also welcome the appearance of the Band at such occasions as football games.

The College Orchestra, besides presenting its regular concerts each fall and spring, provides a welcome addition to other programs during the year. A wide variety of types of music is included in the orchestra's repertoire and presented with enthusiasm and skill.

College Pastor

Preacher

Although only in his second year of ministry with us, Rev. Edward D. Angell has left a lasting impression upon Houghtonians. Students will not soon forget his thought-provoking and inspirational sermons from both the church pulpit and the chapel platform. As a friend and counselor he has laughed with us, played with us, and prayed with us. His joyful, triumphant "I believe!" will long re-echo in our hearts and challenge our souls to greater faith in our wonderful Lord.

Evangelistic Services

Special effort to direct our thoughts toward spiritual values is made each fall and spring in the scheduling of evangelistic services. Conversions and consecrations result from heeding the messages of well-qualified speakers.

From their many years of study and experience in the Lord's work, Dr. Hargett and Bishop Marston presented to us this year the challenge of life and character enjoined in the word of God. Thus, from ones who have lived the Christian way for a lifetime, we who are but beginners have taken courage and assurance.

OFFICE OF COLLEGE DEVELOPMENT

May 1, 1953

Dear Jane and John:

We want to tell you how proud we are of our alumni. Proud, because of what they are doing for God and humanity; proud, because of their continued allegiance to the spiritual ideals of their Alma Mater; proud, because they want you to have even better opportunities at Houghton than they had.

To make it better for you, they established a program of support known as the Student Foundation Plan. Would you like to know a little more about the Plan?

The Plan was initiated by students.

The Class of 1926, with the guidance of President James S. Luckey, officially adopted a plan of regular alumni giving known as the Student Foundation Plan. Appreciation for sound academic training at a very modest cost and appreciation for the moral and spiritual standards of Houghton College were the inspiring motives of that first class.

The Plan is maintained by students (who are now alumni)

Funds received on Student Foundation pledges are invested by Houghton College in projects of expansion and development of facilities, thus making more effective and up-to-date the services of the College. Currently, payments on these pledges are designated to the Athletic Field or to East Hall.

The Plan benefits students

Since the adoption of the plan, students have pledged almost $145,000. The class of 1949 subscribed over $30,000, the class of 1952 ranking second in pledges totaling $28,500. Every Houghton student of today is included in this plan, for he is separated from our alumni lists only by a few months or years. The record shows the amazing loyalty of Houghton alumni; one out of every two contribute; two-thirds of all funds received by the college are from Houghton alumni.

Your Alma Mater challenges you to carry on the tradition - for the help of students. Could we make it one-hundred percent participation this year? Think it over!

Cordially,

Your Alma Mater

Avail yourself of the numerous advantages and opportunities offered to prospective homemakers by the town of Houghton. "What are they?" you ask. First, there is a Christian atmosphere permeating life's activities and providing wholesome acquaintances. Secondly, business and trade are ever on the increase due to the steady growth in population. College labor is always available, and highway and railway transportation are accessible. Finally, Houghton provides facilities ample to making the community practically self-sufficient. Almost all shopping is done within the town itself. Not only these characteristics make Houghton ideal, but also the beauty of the surrounding scenery lures many to making Houghton their home. Why not investigate Houghton's possibilities in seeking your dream-come-true. "Houghton to you will mean happiness too."
