PURPLE WINS SERIES; FOUR STRAIGHT

Beat Gold In Final Tilt

Farnsworth Strong

Tuesday afternoon saw the last game of the Purple-Gold series. On this game hung the only hopes of the Gold to score a victory. Both teams, the Purple confident of victory, and the Gold battling with doubts and fears, entered the fray determined to win.

Farnsworth was in the pink of condition and showed himself to be master of the situation from the beginning.

The Purple started the scoring in the first inning with two runs. In both the fourth and sixth innings the Gold threatened to rally, getting two hits in each inning. Unwise plays and increased speed of the pitched ball contributed to the failure of these attempts. In the sixth inning the Gold defense gave way and the Purple scored their last three runs. The rest of the game passed swiftly and one more series entered into Houghton's baseball history.

The outstanding plays of the game were Pete Albro's fast run from short to left field to pick a fly out of the air and Spencer Moon's catch in the same locality. The two first basemen, Harrison, Purple and Fisk, Gold also played good ball. The weakness of the Gold infield was another outstanding feature.

Boulder Concert Coming Friday

Promise Good Program

One week from to-night, on Friday, October 17, the 1931 Boulder Staff will present the Annual Boulder Concert.

Each year about this time the Annual Staff gives an entertainment to introduce the students, Alumni, and friends to the outcoming annual. The program has not been officially announced as yet, but we do know that the college quartet will make their Houghton debut with new songs at this time. When Hines, Turnell, Cronk and Ebner blend their voices—well, everyone wants to take time out and lend an ear. The program will undoubtedly be published next week.

Of course, you have heard the rumor that the 1931 Boulder will be something that will make a big splash. The staff have been hard at work but not much news has leaked out as to what it is all about. They disrupted classes in general last week to get some good pictures—at least they say they are good. Anyway we have their promise that the "peppiest class will give the snappiest Boulder." So let's come to the concert Friday night, October 17, at eight o'clock and see if we can't get in on the ground floor. They tell us that all seats are reserved for fifty cents each. It will be announced between now and then where we can get them.

Expression Club Active

On Monday evening, September 29, the Expression Club gave a second public program which was as great a success as the first one.

Lloyd Foster gave a humorous reading, "Counting One Hundred." His encore proved to be a variation of the poem "Mary's Lamb" but the vocabulary was so learned that few would recognize the familiar lamb as its theme.

How everyone applauded "Zick" when, dressed as a small school-girl with books, braids and a scholarly(?) frown, she interpreted "The School-room Alphabet of a Lazy Lass."

The audience was delighted when Miss Rothermel gave the program which she had rendered over the radio this summer in California. After her hearers had laughed over her experiences in the broadcasting studio, Miss Rothermel announced that she would take the whole group of eager listeners in her "poetic airship" from Labrador to India and back to the United States to the beautiful Yosemite Falls where Miss Rothermel's original poem, "The Trinity" was given; to the homes of James Whitcomb Riley and Sidney Lanier. Miss Rothermel ended her program with Riley's "Out to Old Aunt Mary's" and that lovely bit of philosophy "Life and Song" by Sidney Lanier. Those who listened to this radio program showed great enthusiasm for Miss Rothermel's work and are looking forward to her next appearance on the platform. In closing.

The Slak Party Conduct Chapel

Bring Message In Music

On Thursday, October 2, the Reverend C. I. Armstrong of Bradford, Pa. and the well known Slak Evangelistic Party conducted our chapel exercises. We all joined heartily in an opening hymn, led by Mr. Case, after which the scripture was read by Reverend Armstrong. The individual members of the party were then introduced. It consisted of Mr. Philip Slak, the senior member of the party; his wife, Mrs. Anna Slak; their son, Mr. Peter Slak, 16 years of age; and, Mr. Lester Case. The program was as follows:

Piano accordion solo, "Jesus Is Dearer Than All to Me" by Peter Slak.

Solo, "God's Beautiful Morning" by Mrs. Slak accompanied by the Spanish and the Hawaiian guitars, Mr. Case joining on the chorus. Instrumental quartette "Oh Jesus Come" by Mr. and Mrs. Slak playing saxophones, Peter Slak playing the piano accordion and, Mr. Lester Case playing the banjo.

A duet, "Take Your Burden to the Lord" by Mr. Case and Mrs. Slak, accompanied by Peter.

Piano solo by Peter.
An accordion and banjo duet, "Whispering Hope" by Mr. Case and Peter.

Mr. Case then pictured to us vividly an ocean scene. Ships are sailing to and fro over the deep. In the distance there can be seen the signs of an approaching storm. The threatening clouds lower until seeming to meet the waves in the distance, the storm breaks forth. Cries are heard from those on the sea. Ships are no longer visible. As the air vibrates with the sound of dreadful agony from those who are going down by the force of the mighty storm, those on the shore realize that they must send aid quickly. It is here that the words of the song, "Throw the Line" come with their realistic description. Mr. Case in a very real sense made us all see with him those who were perishing and the need of a life line, the Word of God, which would draw them to the shore.

Music Club Elects

The first meeting of the Music Club was held Monday evening. The number who came out to the first meeting show that the students are interested in the Club. Election of officers was the first duty of the Club. The results of the election: President, Margaret Carter; Vice-President, Bernice Davis; Secretary, Lawrence Benson; Chairman of the Program Committee, Theos Cronk.

Everyone come out to the meetings. There is an interesting program being planned for the year. Musical ability is not a requisite for membership. All who are interested in music are invited to join. The meetings are held once in two weeks. The next meeting will be Monday evening, October 20.

Communion Service Held Sunday

History of Passover Given

The Sunday morning service was very inspirational. It was communion Sunday and the whole service was impressive. It was opened by singing "It Reaches Me." The scripture was read from Revelation 21:1-6 and Matthew 26:17-30. They were passages referring to the Lord's Supper. Rev. Pitt then brought us a very fitting sermon on the first Lord's Supper. Who started the feast of the Passover? It was instigated at the time of the deliverance of the Israelites from the bondage of Egypt. That particular time they were to eat no leaven. They were to slay a lamb and sprinkle its blood on the door-posts and lintels of their homes. Then they were to roast the lamb whole and after making themselves ready for their journey they had to eat all of the lamb. The angel of the Lord passed through the land that night and in all the homes where the blood was not upon the doorposts the firstborn died. Such was the beginning to the Feast of the Passover which became an annual feast. Jesus and His disciples were keeping it. They sat down to keep the Passover but before they had finished they had kept the first Lord's Supper; they had commemorated for the first time the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. The disciples had met the living Christ and that meeting was so impressive that they were never able to forget it. The true church is made up of people who are aware of Jesus; people who have met the living Christ and those who know Him so well that they do not forget Him. People who walk with Him leave old things and grow into the new beauties of the Christian life. The Christ of the moment is the same yesterday, today and tomorrow.

Junior Officers Entertained

The Junior Officers had no sooner assumed office than they were invited to a dinner by the defeated candidates. Friday night they were escorted to the College Inn and entertained royally.

After dinner, gifts were presented to the new officers by Theos Cronk. He handed President "Walt" Alexis a brand new derby and a gavel, admonishing him to remember the dignity of his position. Taking it for granted that the President will be on hand to preside at all Class meetings, Theos gave the Vice-President, Ruth Burgess, some pretty green beads to amuse herself with for he claims she won't have anything to do. Mae Collins need not fear the consequences of "minute-taking" for the longest of meetings. She was supplied with an oversize pencil and a tablet to match. Evidently the financial depression hasn't frightened the Junior Class for Paul Vogan was presented with a very unique and competent looking bank.

The entertained thank the entertainers for their kindness and especially for the assurance of continued co-operation.

Third Game Easy For Purple

Leffingwell Beats Taylor

The Purple took their third straight game Monday by a score of 4 to 3. They started off with their usual bang by bringing in one run in the first inning when McSweeney crossed the plate having been brought in by Albro's two-base hit.

They were retired without further scoring and the Gold "Strikers" were given a chance. The Gold were unable to score in the first inning, Leffingwell allowing only one hit. The second inning saw the Purple hitless and scoreless while the Gold tied the score by bringing in one run. The third inning was a no hit, no run affair, but the fourth saw some more action from the Purple who got two hits and succeeded in scoring one more run, breaking the tie. The fifth also brought one run for the Purple while the Gold had to be content with only a hit to their credit. The run in the fifth was due to a three-base hit by Farnsworth which brought in McSweeney who was on second base. The sixth inning again saw both teams scoreless though the Gold tried hard to even up the score, but succeeded in gaining only one hit. The seventh and final inning brought much action however. The Purple started it off with Folger getting a two-base hit which later developed into a score as the runner came home on a ball past the catcher. The side was retired without more hits, and the Gold came up for their final chance at victory. Moon started it off with a single, followed by a sacrifice by Frank. Then Taylor received a base on balls which developed into a run on over throws. This, however, was their nearest approach to victory as the Purple pitcher again settled down and retired the side, ending the game.

WORK

Do you ever hate your work? Ever wish that you were anywhere but where you are and doing anything in the wide, wide world except this work? Ever feel that way? Almost everyone does once in a blue moon. A little bit of dissatisfaction drives you on to better work. But—too much dissatisfaction, if your work is really suitable for you, spoils the enjoyment that you should derive from it. I like the sentiment that Henry Van Dyke expresses in his poem "work":

*Let me but do my work from day to day,
In field or forest, at the desk or loom,
In roaring market-place or tranquil room;
Let me but find it in my heart to say,
When vagrant wishes beckon me astray,
"This is my work; my blessing, not my doom;
Of all who live, I am the one by whom
This work can best be done in the right way."*

*Then shall I see it not too great, nor small,
To suit my spirit and to prove my powers
Then shall I cheerful greet the laboring hours,
And cheerful turn, when the long shadows fall
At eventide, to play and love and rest,
Because I know for me my work is best.*

HOOS HOO

A tall, spare, bespectacled figure, always pacing slowly, thoughtfully along pondering very earnestly over many deep philosophical or psychological problems. When aroused from the resulting abstraction a grave "Good-afternoon," or "Good-evening" salutes you.

Junior-Faculty Club

Last Friday evening a company of about twenty-five or thirty girls drew up chairs in a circle down in the annex. Mrs. Lee Jr. called upon Mrs. Ries Jr. to lead in the singing of that good old song, "Come Back to Dear Old Houghton"; but Mrs. Bowen Jr. piped up before Mrs. Ries Jr. could collect her thoughts and so began the first meeting of that well-meaning but slightly unconventional society,—the Junior Faculty Ladies' Club in Combination with the Associate Professor's Wives (more commonly known as the Junior Faculty Club). Miss Moses Jr. gave a talk on the rules of the organization (which is not an organization but merely a systematic movement for the improvement of Houghton).

Then Mrs. Ries Jr. consented to sing a clever little ditty, the Title of which is withheld on account of its being considered incriminating evidence. The rest of the demure circle applauded so long at the conclusion that Mrs. Ries Jr. assisted by Mrs. Whitaker Jr. sang "Drifting and Dreaming." Mrs. King Jr. spoke feelingly about the founding of the association and the honor that she felt in being allowed to belong to it.

The big sensation of the evening however was Miss Zimmerman Jr.'s account of her aeroplane trip from the West. It was agreed that most of the members present would have experienced much the same pleasant feelings under the circumstances as Miss Zimmerman related them.

After more or less consequential talk on the part of Mrs. LeVay Fancher Jr. and Mrs. Bowen Jr. popcorn balls effectually put a stop to this exercise of vocal cords and the meeting broke up with many exclamations of satisfaction.

Bald-headed men take notice! A remedy for baldness recommended by the ancient Egyptians was a concoction of fats of the lion, hippopotamus, goose, serpent, crocodile, and idex.

President Gives Splendid Talk

On Tuesday, October 7, President J. S. Luckey brought to us more information about our College and those who have gone out from here to enter places of responsibility. "The proof of the pudding is in the eating." In like manner the factory, the farm, any producing establishment is known by its produce. Our school was founded in 1884 by Willard J. Houghton, a man of the Abraham Lincoln type, endowed with one of the greatest blessings of life, common sense. Recognizing that education must be standardized, he founded this institution where it where every boy and girl should be treated according to his or her scholastic ability. It was a habit with Mr. Houghton that wherever he went to hold a meeting there was an altar service for the children and young people. He wanted a school should be 100% worth-while, and where stress should be laid on religious character. Houghton Seminary was the result of these desires. The school continued thus until 1898 when College courses were added.

About 3000 students have attended Houghton. Among the graduates of this institution who are now in service are Mrs. Mary Lane Clarke, Superintendent of the Y. M. W. B.; the Reverends Dean and Clark Bedford; Mrs. Anna Boardman Smith, missionary; Dr. Earl Madison, doctor; Rev. E. F. McCarty, foreign missionary secretary and Rev. I. F. McCleister, editor of the "Wesleyan Methodist". John S. Willett our Connectional Agent was the first graduate from the College Department. Since the age of seventeen, when he was converted, his efforts have been turned toward spiritual things. He has done a great deal for the school and for the church.

Our College course received no recognition from other institutions until 1909. From that time until 1923 when our College received its charter, students attended Houghton for three years and then went to some other College to finish. There were 84 graduates between those years. One of the main factors which aided us in securing our charter was the high record which the students who had gone out from here were holding in other institutions. Testimonials were written by many professors in the large Colleges. This school has grown rapidly since then and now our President is applying for entrance into the Colleges of the Middle Atlantic States and Maryland.

President Luckey states that his greatest desire for the school is that it may fulfill the desire of the Church; that it may have a department which will prepare men and women to go out to serve the world. He says that what we need is a live, red hot institution which will enable students to leave with a zeal to serve Christ; real leaders who will shape history. Many are becoming giants intellectually and dwarfs spiritually. These in turn are training men like themselves. The world needs leaders in every walk of life; teachers and ministers loyal to the standards of the Christian faith who will be a great blessing to humanity. We must remember that the record of our school depends upon the testimonials which result from our doing our best.

Boulder News

Well, folks, we are coming along fine. If you don't think so, think again.

By the way, we want to announce the appointment of George Page to the staff as Seminary Editor. George is that tall capable-looking Junior whom you see running around the High School. The Staff welcome him to their number and we are sure that he has the spirit of a real '32-er.

The pictures are all taken—that is until spring when we take the athletic groups. A few of us are going to breathe easier for a time. We want to thank all of you who had your pictures taken for the prompt way in which you responded. We, also, want to thank the faculty for their cooperation. Just for that we will give you a real Boulder in 1931.

Sophomores Elect

The college Sophomore class elected officers Friday October 4. The results of the election were:

President—Chester Driver
Vice-President—Edward Dolan
Sec. & Treas.—Mildred Stoddard

Anna Houghton Daughters

The Anna Houghton Daughters met with Mrs. C. B. Whitaker Friday afternoon, October third. About twenty-three members attended. Several important reports were brought in and discussed by the society. The possibility of a printed calendar for the coming year was also talked over and topics given out for the next meeting.

Following the business session refreshments were served and a short program was given. Miss Ruth Zimmerman told us some interesting and humorous bits concerning her recent aeroplane trip. By the way, this was Miss Zimmerman's first public speech, so we especially appreciated it. Miss Noss played the lovely Kamemnoi Ostrow of Rubenstein, as a piano solo. Then Miss Rothermel enthusiastically reviewed her visit to the colorful West with Miss Burnell. The sound of the dinner bell informally ended the pleasant afternoon's get-together.

SLAK PARTY

shore and to safety in Christ. Mr. Slack told of his wonderful conversion. For many years he had been a member of the Russian Orthodox Church. He had drifted deep in sin and his home was far from happy. His wife was converted in one of the Bosworth Brothers' meetings. Because of the wonderful change which Mr. Slack noticed in the life of his wife, he decided to attend one of the meetings which she was attending. During the first service he was converted. He said that from that time an all of his evil habits disappeared and his home became a place where God was honored. Mrs. Slack also told about her conversion which was truly as remarkable as her husband's.

Peter Slack then concluded the chapel exercises with an accordion solo, "Nearer My God to Thee".

We wish to express our appreciation to the Slak Party and to Reverend Armstrong, and it is our desire that at some future time we may have them with us again.

There is a certain restaurant where they don't keep food any more. They keep a bulldog instead. You can drop in there any time and get a bite.

High School Notes

SIDE REMARKS ON LIGHT BEARERS

"The Light Bearers organization has become a definite part of the church work in Houghton," said Rev. Pitt last Sunday in the morning service. It is striving to fill a place in the hearts and lives of the young people of the Seminary and college and is putting forth its utmost effort in holding worthwhile Sunday afternoon service. You are the judge as to whether or not it is succeeding in this work. The suggestions that anyone will offer in relation to these services will be welcomed.

Last Sunday's service was well attended. The song service, the season of prayer, the testimony service, all were an inspiration and enjoyable. Spencer Moon spoke on the topic, "Faith," using as his scripture that wonder "Faith chapter", Hebrews 11. The Spirit of God was manifest in a very real manner.

Next Sunday several members of the organization are going to Scranton, a suburb of Buffalo, to hold a meeting for Miss Marietta Fancher in the new work which she has started there. Pray for this service that it may be carried on to the glory of Christ.

The election of new officers takes place during the last week of this month. It is very important that the right people be put into office.

Come to next Sunday's service in the study hall. Come with the motto of the organization, "Pray and Work," in mind.

SEMINARY ELECT OFFICERS

Monday witnessed the election of new officers for the student body. The following were elected for the various offices:

President—George Page
Vive-President—Kenneth Eyley
Secretary—Gladys Jewel
Treasurer—Elizabeth McFarlane
Chorister—Malcolm Cronk
Cheer leader—Leon Jones

With such officers the Student Body should be able to accomplish some real good this year.

THE SENIOR CLASS

Already the year has proved successful if success can be judged by the amount of business brought to the class. At least four agents have interviewed the class. The Commencement invitations have been ordered and a contract for caps and gowns has been signed. Success to the class!

SABBATH SERVICES VERY INSPIRING

forever, but Master of the perfection of new heaven and earth. All things are made new through Him.

The first part of the evening service was in charge of the Christian Worker's group. The quartet composed of Albert Roth, Miss Waite, Miss Fero and Lyle Donnelly, sang two numbers "How Much I Owe" and "Jesus is a Friend of Mine." The testimony service was very inspiring, many testifying to the saving, sanctifying power of Jesus Christ. The text taken by Rev. Pitt was I Thes. 5:17 "Pray without ceasing." Uninterruptable prayer is possible. Nothing can hinder our prayer life except our own wills. Many things will seem to hinder us but if we put our wills to it we can pray unceasingly.

185 at Sunday School

The Sunday School attendance this year is exceeding that of former years, the average attendance being 182. The largest attendance was 189 and the smallest 172.

There are still some who are not taking advantage of this opportunity of Bible study. To these a cordial welcome is extended.

Senior: When Mr. Brown arrived home from his tour he fell on his face and kissed the ground of his native city.

Junior: Emotion?
Senior: No, banana skin.

COMMON SENSE THRIFT—

Is simply taking a small sum each week and depositing it in a bank account.

If this amount be only $2 a week, you will have over $100 a year. Counts up, doesn't it?

If you are not doing anything like this, suppose you start in.

Call and get a book. Try common sense for a year, and you will never regret it.
